Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological and Botanical Notices.

In frosty weather carry out manure for grass lands; and make such preparations for the spring as the weather will allow, taking care at the same time, that the live stock, especially the ewes, are sufficiently fed and protected from the cold.

Plant gooseberry and currant trees: prune apple, pear, plum, and cherry trees, and remove dead and irregular wood. Sow lettuce, radishes, carrots, and parsley, at the end of the month. Protect all flowering plants, in pots, by removing them into a sheltered place: or if on the ground by temporary awnings. Plant tulips as soon as the weather will permit, jonquils, and any other bulbous flower roots that are still above ground: and be careful of seedling trees, shrubs, &c., and especially valuable evergreens: keep up the heat of hotbeds by dung liangs.

The redbreast and mistle thrush sing, the hedge sparrow warbles, and the little wren tunes his lively notes even amid the falling snow. Various species of waterwagtails are seen running along the sides of ponds and brooks. In mild days they appear in our window, and gulls dance in the open air. Very few plants are now in bloom: a few primroses, polyanthes, and daisies appear in sheltered situations: at the month's end snowdrops blow.

Belfast, Ireland, 54 degrees 38 minutes N. L. 3 degrees 15 minutes, W. L. High Water daily 4 hours 2 minutes earlier than London.

Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological and Botanical Notices.

Thrash out corn, work the plough, and dress thorn hedges.
If the land be dry enough, sow beans, vetches, and saint-foin.
Break and disperse muck lamps; pick and carry off stones.
Look well to your live stock, keep calves warm, clean, and dry.
Sow cucumbers, melons, kidney-beans, and cauliflowers in hot beds. Prune peaches, nectarines, and apricots.
Prepare for grafting, by selecting your grafts, cutting them off, and keeping them in dry earth in a warm border. Plant strawberries, polyanthuses, and most sorts of hardy fibrous rooted plants.
Frogs begin to croak, and wood owls hoot; rooks pair, and house sparrows build. The titmouse gives his singular notes, which are like the noise produced by whetting a saw; chaffinches and hedge-sparrows sing in mild weather; partridges pair, and the green woodpecker makes a loud noise.
The vegetable kingdom has not many charms to exhibit at this cold period of the year. In the garden the principal are the modest snow drop and the bright yellow crocus; in the fields are seen the flowers of the white dead nettle, and those of the poet's favourite plant, the daisy; snowwort also, in moist places, sheltered from the north-east winds, begins to blow. The budding of several trees arrests the attention of the lover of nature, and puts him in mind of the approach of spring.

Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological and Botanical Notices.

Business connected with the farm becomes brisk in March, especially if the weather prove dry. On forward soils, barley sowing, at all events ploughing for it, becomes general. Oats should be sown at this time; also clover, peas, &c. The five stock requires still to be well kept, especially the ewes, or the lambs will exhibit the consequences of neglect.

Sow all sorts of salad seeds and Brussels sprouts, curled borcole, parsnips, &c.; also asparagus for the new plantations of next year. Set slips of sage, rosemary, lavender, and thyme; also the suckers and offsets of trees and shrubs. Lay turf for walks.

The melody of birds now gradually swells upon the ear; the thrush, second only to the nightingale in song, charms us with the sweetness and variety of its lays. The blackbird, the chaffinch, the hedge sparrow, and wren give out their vernal notes. Several insects appear in fine days.

The gooseberry and currant bushes now show their young leaves; the ash its grey buds; and the hazel and willow exhibit some signs of returning life. The camellia japonica is the chief ornament of the green-house in this month, bearing very handsome and justly-admired clusters of beautiful flowers. Primroses, daffodils, and crocuses of various colours, are in bloom. The sweet violet diffuses its delightful fragrance.

Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological and Botanical Notices.

Sow buck-wheat, flax, hemp, lucerne, sainfoin, clover, and hay seeds. Finish sowing barley. Plant quicksets and forest trees. Turn sheep to clover. Dig, drain, and reclaim bogs. Sow mustard, and roll wheat.

Sow lettuce, radishes, and small salad at two or three different periods. Sow silver-skinned onions for drawing. Set French beans, and finish planting bulbs. Sow annual flower seeds, and all kinds of aromatic herbs. Shelter your choice auriculars from all extremes of weather. Carnations and pinks may now be planted out into their blooming pots. Stocks and wall-flowers may be planted out in the open ground.

The pheasant crows; young ducks are hatched; the stone-curlew clamours; and the hen sits. The swallow returns to his nest, and the nightingale to her favourite thorn. The note of the cuckoo puts us in mind of spring. Several butterflies and moths appear. The beetle death-watch is heard ticking for his mate, in houses of long standing.

Marsh marigold blows on the sides of ponds and ditches. Ground-ivy and wood-anemone are in flower. The beautiful germander speedwell blooms at this time. The garden becomes very attractive by the numerous charms which Flora bestows on it.

Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological and Botanical Notices.

Prepare fallows for turnips; pare land for herring; weed wheat and roll it. Cut turf and prepare winter firing. Lay up clover intended for hay or seed. Destroy moles, &c. Forward sown beans and potatoes will require their first hoeing towards the end of this month.

Melon-beds' glasses must be covered every night with mats, and raised a little during the day. Supply cucumbers in frames with water. Sow cucumbers in the natural ground; also purslane and cabbages. Walnut, birches, oaks, and acornmores should be pruned; and strawberry runners picked off. Sow vegetable marrow, pumpkin, and kidney beans. The destruction of insects and vermin must not be neglected.

The latest species of summer birds of passage arrive at the beginning of this month. Among these are the goat-sucker or fern owl, the spotted fly-catcher, and that interesting songster, the garden warbler. The admiral butterfly and the May bug make their appearance.

Vegetation becomes very attractive both in the garden and fields: in the latter we find in blow-hawthorn, cowslip, forget-me-not, brook-lime, water violet, lily of the valley, wild ranunculus, and the poet's favourite the little lily.

Kinsale Harbour, Ireland, 51 degrees 36 minutes N.L. 8 degrees 28 minutes W.L. High Water daily 2 hours 23 minutes later than London.

High Water daily at Newcastle upon-Tyne, 2 hours earlier than Hull.

Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological and Botanical Notices.

Hand-hoe lucerne, if first year; marland chalk land, empty ponds and ditches, fell oaks, and clear your yards and barns for the produce of the approaching harvest. Finish preparation of land for turnips, rape, and cile seed. About new mid-summer sow common field turnip seed. Sheep should be washed and shorn in June.

Sow brocoli at the commencement of the month for a second crop. Transplant celery for blanching. Sow kidney-beans for a late crop, and plant out annuals in showery weather.

Several of the feathered tribe sing freely. Young birds appear on the branches of trees, and insects are very rous. How beautiful is summer! the trees are heavy with fruit and foliage; the sun is bright and cheering in the morning; the shade of the broad and leafy boughs is refreshing at noon; and the calm breezes of the evening whisper gently through the leaves which reflect the liquid light of the moon when she is seen.

— lifting her silver rim
Above a cloud, and with a gradual swim
Coming into the blue with all her light.

There is a greater accession of flowers in this month than in any other. The garden sparkles with carnations, pinks, lupins, larkspur, snap dragon, &c. Wild flowers now abound.

Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological and Botanical Notices.

This being the time of hay harvest it will be well to pay strict attention to the motions of the mercury in the barometer, for sooner or later in this month a period of showery weather takes place. Plough fallows to destroy the grass and weeds. Reap early rye; and pull and rate white flax and hemp. Sow onions and turnips to stand the winter, as also cauliflowers, carrots, and coleworts. Weed new planted quicks. Gather seeds as they ripen; also flowers, and dry them first in the shade and then in the sun. Plant out celery, cabbages, and brocoli in cloudy weather. Earth up peas and peas. Cattle betake themselves to pools of water for coolness. The quail and stoe curlew utter their peculiar notes. The blackcap, garden warbler, and yellow hammer continue to sing, but the rest of the plummy warblers are mute. The insect world in all bustle, and affords great amusement to the entomologist. The hesth-bell is now in bloom, and has changed the brown face of the waste into one wide plain of crimson; while the rich azure flowers of viper's bugloss ornament the fields. Traveller's joy, hedge-bind weed, corn-campion, enchanter's night-shade, &c., unfold their blossoms. Ripe fruit abounds.

Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological and Botanical Notices.

Reap and mow the various sorts of corn as they ripen. Barley is the grain most damaged by weather—having no husk to lay exposed to the rain, and, when wet, has a tendency to sprout quickly, which the skilful farmer knows well, and provides accordingly. Previously to stacking corn, rid all your premises of rain and mice. Turnips require the hoe; potatoes need hoeing a second time.

Sow cabbage seed for next year's summer crop. Look at your cucumbers on the open ground; if they stunt, curl, or canker, lay little bits of new lime under them. Plant slips of thyme, sage, hyssop, rosemary, and other aromatic vegetables. Continue to sow radish, mustard, and cresses every week. Gather herbs for drying.

The harvest and field mouse have at this time litters of young in their nests. The trout and the minnow bask in the beams of the sun, and the frog seeks for shelter from his rays under the broad-leaved plants. Several of our summer birds wing their flight to more southerly regions; and towards the month's end we have several arrivals from the north. The forests and woods abound with moths, which afford great amusement to the entomologist in the evenings.

The vegetable department of nature teems with beauty and richness, both in the garden and field. The branches are loaded with the treasures of Providence, and call for gratitude on our part.

Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological and Botanical Notices.

This is generally the harvest month in the northern parts of Great Britain and Ireland, therefore it is necessary to watch the changes of the weather and operate accordingly in those districts. When, at this time of the year, the barometer is high and steady, the farmer may depend on the weather being favourable for the gathering in of the corn, at least for several days. At the end of this month winter wheat may be sown on cold and backward soils.

Gather, on dry days, apples, pears, and other ripe fruits. Plant strawberries, and prepare the ground for Slip and plant fibrous-rooted perennial plants, as rose camptio, scarlet lychnis, &c. Sow lettuce, spinach, and small salad; and plant out caniflowers sown in August.

Some of the swallow tribes disappear, as well as some of the summer warblers. The stone curlew clamours, wood owls hoot, and the ring-necked reappears. Hares coagulate; and at the end of the month, the woodcock, thrush, and blackbird are heard.

Heart's-ease, stocks, marigolds, Michaelmas daisies, &c., ornament our gardens; and the Goernasy lilies our green-houses. In the fields ragwort, starwort, herb Robert, and convolvuli, are in flower.

Waterford, Ireland, 52 degrees 5 minutes N.L. 6 degrees 56 minutes W.L. High Water daily 3 hours 43 minutes later than London.

High Water daily at Dover, 2 hours 52 minutes earlier than London.

Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological and Botanical Notices.

Sow wheat, manure grass land, and prepare your farm-yard for the reception of your cattle. Milch cows will require some assistance to grass, or their produce will fall off, therefore, cabbages, turnips, or a little sweet hay will be found necessary. Dig up potatoes, and sow winter tares. Sow salad herbs, and prune fruit trees; sow haw, holly-berries, acorns, plum and cherry stones, &c.; lay down brocoli, and dig up carrots and parsnips. Continue gathering fruit as it ripens. The remainder of the swallow tribes now take their flight to warmer regions, while several winter birds arrive. The large garden spider spreads his net in sunny days, and the peacock butterfly is seen. Flora begins to lose several of her beauties, yet many interesting plants are in blow, such as the following: hollyhock, nasturtium, mignonette, wall flower, dahlia chinii-asters, Virginia stock, saffron-crocus, &c. The birds yield a few treasures to the botanist; the flowers of various species of hawk-weed are seen; feverfew is in blow, so are shepherd's purse and rock-rose's tongue; some of the dead-nettle species exhibit their flowers. Blackberries at this time abound in the lanes and hedge-sides throughout the kingdom.

Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological and Botanical Notices.

Tie up milch cows at night; a few hours in the yard by day is now all the liberty they should have. Turn sheep to turpits, fell wood, and thrash out corn.

Prune gooseberries, currants, and raspberries. Plant tulips; also the hardy winter bulbs, such as snowdrops, crocuses, daffodils, winter aconites, &c. Take care of seedling plants and tender flowers, for sometimes in this month severe frosts, though of short duration, take place.

Redwings and fieldfares are now seen feeding on haws and wild berries. The long-tailed titmouse appears in troops in the tall hedge rows, and the little golden crested wren sits from branch to branch in quest of food. Our friend, the Robin, cheers us with a song.

The trees now rapidly lose their leaves, and give token that bleak winter is at hand. The pollard, oak, and young beeches retain their withered leaves, till they are pushed off by the new ones in the spring. Walnuts, bullaces, and chestnuts are now ripe. As for flowers, not many are to be found at this time; the principal are the various species of chrysanthemum, and the late flowering autumnal crocus (crocus serotinus) where cultivated: also a few stocks, primroses, &c.

Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological and Botanical Notices.

Pigs must now be well littered, and sheep wintered in straw yards; in frosty weather, straw, chalk, and dung should be carted.

Sow a little radish seed in a warm border. Sow lettuce in frames, secure from frost, and pay attention to the green-house, otherwise the frost will do considerable damage.

The mole throws up hillocks; rats and mice are troublesome in our houses; the fox seeks the farm-yard in quest of poultry; skylarks and fieldfares are seen in flocks. In mild weather a few moths appear, and gnat dance in the open air.

At the commencement of the month the chrysanthemum decks our gardens and parlour windows with its large beautiful flowers; but these generally die away before Christmas: at the end of December we may say—

"The sun far southward bends his annual way,
The bleak north-east winds lay the forest bare,
The fruit ungathered quits the naked spray,
And dreary winter reigns o'er earth and air:
No mark of vegetable life is seen,
No bird to bird repeats his tuneful call;
Save the dark leaves of some rude evergreen,
Save the lone redbreast on the moss-grown wall."

Eclipse at Greenwich, if the meridian be East of that place, or to subtract it, if it be West, and the difference will give the time required.

The Eclipses are visible when the Sun is 8 degrees below the horizon, and the planet not less than 8 degrees above it.

The times of these Eclipses being adapted to the meridian of Greenwich afford a good method to discover the longitude between that and any other place, which the following example will illustrate.

Suppose on the 1st of August of this year the time of the emersion of Jupiter's first Satellite be observed by a telescope in an unknown meridian, to happen at 12h. 21m. 6s., I find by the table that the time of this emersion will happen at the Royal Observatory at 10h. 32m. 16s. on the same day. The difference of time is 1h. 48m. 20s., which being converted into degrees and minutes of the equator, will make 27 degrees 5 minutes, the longitude of the places of observation to the east, because the time is more than that at Greenwich.

N. B. Those Eclipses marked with an asterisk in the table are visible at Greenwich.

I, implies immersion, or when the satellite enters into Jupiter's shadow; and E, emersion, or when the satellite leaves the shadow of the planet, and of course becomes visible.

REMARKS ON THE PLANETS.

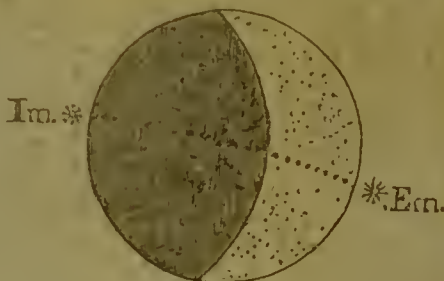

The planet Mercury, in consequence of the nearness of his orbit to the sun, is seldom visible to the naked eye. The most favourable time for observing him is in the evenings of the Spring, when he is at his greatest eastern elongation; or in the mornings of the Autumn, when about the time of his greatest western elongation from the sun. Now we find, by consulting correct astronomical tables, that Mercury this year may be seen in the mornings near the eastern horizon, about an hour before the rising of the sun, at the end of July and the middle of November; and in the evenings, near the western horizon soon after sun-set, about the middle of February and the first half of June.

Venus is unfavourably situated for observation during the whole of this year; she may be seen in the mornings, at the beginning of January and the end of December; from the end of May to the beginning of December she is visible, appearing very near to the western horizon in the evening twilight.

Mars this year will not appear near so bright as he did in 1841, when he was near the earth, yet he may be easily found in the evenings of January, February, and March; and in the mornings of October, November, and December.

Jupiter and Saturn will appear near each other during the whole of this year. They are in conjunction on the 26th of January, and may be seen in the mornings of February, March, April, May, and June. They are in opposition to the sun in July, and being then at their least distance from the earth, will appear conspicuous objects in the southern skies in the middle of the night. They will be visible during the latter part of summer and the whole of Autumn.

On Monday, the 7th of November, early in the evening, the Moon will occult or eclipse that fine star, Jupiter, from our view. He will emerge behind the Moon's dark edge at thirty-six minutes past three, and will emerge from the bright limit at one minute before five o'clock, agreeably in the annexed representation, where Im. shows the place of immersion, and Em. that of emersion. By means of a good telescope, the emersion of the satellites of Jupiter, as well as his orb, may be observed. The immersion of the satellites cannot be seen in consequence of the daylight.

Uranus, called also Herschel, and the Georgian is the most distant planet of which we have any knowledge, belonging to the solar system, being eighteen hundred millions of miles from the sun, around which he revolves in about eighty-four years, consequently his year is equal to eighty-four of our years. When this planet is the most favourably situated for observation he is only a telescopic object. The best time for viewing him this year is when due south (see the calendar department) in the months of September, October, and November. His geocentric longitude this year is between the 21st and the 29th degrees of Pisces. In 1843, he will enter the equinoctial sign, Aries.

AN ACCOUNT OF THE ECLIPSES OF THE SUN AND MOON, IN THE YEAR 1842.

In the present year five eclipses will take place. The first is an annular eclipse of the Sun, on Tuesday, the 11th, of January, in the afternoon, invisible at Greenwich; the ecliptical conjunction will happen at fifteen minutes past four. Visible chiefly in high south latitudes.

The second is a partial eclipse of the moon, on Wednesday, the 26th of January, in the evening, and visible in these parts.

The following representation for Greenwich, will serve, without sensible error, the whole kingdom,

At the middle of this eclipse, about eight parts out of ten of the moon's diameter will be obscured by the shadow of the earth.

The third is a large and visible eclipse of the Sun, on Friday the 8th of July, early in the morning. The following are the particulars of this interesting phenomenon.

† Star below the horizon.

† A near approach.

THE FIXED STARS.—Exact calculation, on which we may depend, teach us that a cannon ball shot from one of the nearest fixed stars, would be more than seven hundred thousand years before it could reach our globe. And yet the greatest astronomers agree that even these numbers do not express the apparent distance of one of the fixed stars from our earth. Some of these globes appear to us larger than others, because they are nearer to us, and it is on this account we call them stars of the first magnitude: those nearest to them, stars of the second magnitude, because being much farther off than the former they appear less; and they must be as far from the former as they are from us. Those of the third magnitude must be three times farther; those of the fourth, four times farther off from the first than the first are from us, and so on. Let us suppose that there are only twenty of these different orders, and it will follow, that the diameter of the universe is so great that a cannon-ball could not traverse it in twenty-four millions of years.

The House of Peers,

ROLL OF THE LORDS SPIRITUAL AND TEMPORAL,

the First Session of the Fourteenth Parliament of the United Kingdom of Britain and Ireland.

Peers of Parliament are in this column given in the order in which they sit in the House. It will be observed that in some instances the name occurs in this is occasioned by the holding of an office, which gives a rank superior to that of the title of the holder.

According to the usage of Parliament, when the house appoints a select committee, the Lords appointed to serve upon it are named in the order of their rank, beginning with the highest; and so when the house sends a committee to a conference with the Commons, the Lord highest in rank is called first, and the others follow in like order; but when the whole house is called over for any purpose within the house, or for the purpose of proceeding forth to Westminster Hall, on any public solemnity, the call begins invariably with the Junior Baron. The mottos of the Peers as emblazoned on their armorial bearings, were given in the Almanack for the year 1840, and English translations of the mottos in the Almanack for 1841; copies of either of which may be had at 63, Oxford-street, one penny each, or, for the years 1838, 1839, 1840, 1841, bound in one volume 5s. 6d.

ABSTRACT OF MARRIAGE AND REGISTRATION ACT.

These Acts are two in number—the 6th and 7th Will. IV. caps. 85, 86; but the first, "An Act for Marriage in England," is declared by its 44th section to be part of the second, "An Act for Registering Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England," as "fully and effectually as it incorporated therewith." The two Acts are, therefore, virtually and legally one Act.

MARRIAGES—I. Marriages may be performed as heretofore, according to the rites of the Established Church, either in parish churches, as usual, or in episcopal chapels, which may be licensed for the purpose by the bishop of the diocese. But in place of a license, or of the publication of banns, the marriage may be solemnized on the production of the superintendent registrar's certificate. The right of the Archbishop of Canterbury, &c., to grant marriage licences is not interfered with.

2. Marriages may be solemnized in any place of worship duly registered for the purpose, and with any religious ceremonies which the parties may choose to adopt, provided two declarations given in the Act are introduced into some part of these ceremonies. The superintendent registrar's certificate must be produced, and a registrar of marriage, and two or more witnesses, must be present at the solemnization, which must take place between the hours of and twelve in the forenoon.

Parties may be married in the office of the superintendent registrar, in his presence, and that of a registrar and two witnesses. The following declarations are to be used by the parties in this and the previous case:—

"I do solemnly declare, that I know not of any impediment why I, A. B., may not be joined in matrimony to C. D.

"I call upon these persons here present to witness I, A. B., do take thee, C. D., to be my wedded wife (or husband)

4. Members of the Society of Friends, and Jews, be married according to their former usages, on production of the superintendent registrar's certificate.

All marriages under the Act, in any of the above cases are as valid and cognizable as marriages hitherto according to the rites of the Church of England.

Preliminary Steps to a Marriage.—One of the parties intending to marry must give notice to the superintendent registrar of the district in which the parties reside, according to a prescribed form; if the parties live in two districts notice must be given to both superintendent registrars. The superintendent registrar can grant a LICENCE.

the parties may be married after the expiration of days after the day on which the notice was given, they prefer being married in the ordinary and regular mode, he issues his certificate, on application, in one day. But the superintendent registrar cannot a licence for a marriage which is to be solemnized according to the rites of the Church of England, although he may issue a certificate for that purpose. In obtaining a licence, one of the parties must take oath, or solemn affirmation, that he or she believes there is no impediment to marriage, and that other required preliminaries are fulfilled. The notices of marriage are to be read at the meetings of the board of guardians. The marriage notice book is to be open to inspection without fee. Any properly authorized person may write the word "forbidden" against any entry in the marriage notice book, subscribing his name and place of abode, relation to the parties, and reasons. Any objection against the issue of a licence or certificate may be lodged with the superintendent registrar, who is bound upon to cause an examination to be made. A marriage may be celebrated within three months after notice given, or else the preliminary proceedings are void and must be renewed.

A certificate of the superintendent registrar is to be issued, if the parties are married according to the rites of the Established Church, to the officiating minister; if dissenting place of worship, the certificate or licence must be delivered to the registrar present at the place; and, in the case of Quakers and Jews, to the respective officers who register marriages in the place where the marriage is performed.

Registration of Places of Worship for Solemnization of Marriages. Episcopal chapels may be licensed according to regulations laid down in the Act. Any place of worship which has been in use as such for at least a year, on the application of a proprietor or trustee to the superintendent registrar (which application must be accompanied with a certificate signed in duplicate by at least twenty householders), be registered for the solemnization of marriages; and, should the congregation remove to another place of worship, the registry may be altered, and the new building registered. These alterations are to be advertised in a local paper, and in the London Gazette.

REGISTRATION OF MARRIAGES, BIRTHS, AND DEATHS.—The registrar general is to furnish each superintendent registrar, for the use of the registrars, with books and iron boxes to hold them; each box is to have a lock and two keys to be kept by the superintendent registrar, the registrar, the minister of churches and chapels, and the Quaker or Jewish congregations, are also to be provided with marriage registration books. There are other regulations in the Act respecting the expense of furnishing books, &c. The superintendent registrar is also to keep a book for registering of buildings for solemnizing marriages.

Registration of Marriages. Notices of marriage, given to the superintendent registrar in the required form, are entered by him in the marriage notice book; if not forbidden, he issues in due time (in seven or twenty-one days) his licence or certificate. The registrar is to be present at marriages solemnized under the Act registers marriages, which is signed by the officiating minister, the parties married, two witnesses, and the registrar.

Registration of Births. Every Registrar of births and deaths is authorized by the Act to require information from the parties qualified to give it respecting every birth and death which may occur within his district. Any person may give notice of births and deaths to the registrar, but the information which is inserted in the register must be received only from parties declared by the Act to be duly qualified informants. Information is to be given of a birth within forty-two days after, by either or mother, or by the occupier of the house in which the child is born, to the Registrar, who is to enter the same without receiving a fee from the parties. If forty-two days have elapsed, the birth cannot be registered except on the presence of the superintendent registrar, when a fee must be paid to him of 2s. 6d., and 5s. to the registrar; moreover, the child must not be more than six months old. Any name given to a child in baptism, within three months after registration, may be added to the register, on production of the minister's certificate, and on payment of a fee of 1s., provided that the certificate is delivered to the registrar within seven days next after the performance of the baptism.

Registrar of Deaths. Intimation of a death may be given to the registrar by some persons who was present or in attendance during the last illness of the deceased, or by the occupier of the house in which the death occurred, or in the event of the death of the occupier, by some inmate of the house. On the death being registered, a certificate is to be delivered by the registrar, without fee, to the undertaker or other person having charge of the funeral. This certificate is to be delivered to the minister or person who performs the funeral service, and who, if no certificate is delivered to him, is to give notice to the registrar of the district in which the death took place, within seven days, under a penalty. Any Coroner who has held an inquest over a dead body may order it to be buried before registry of the death, on giving a certificate.

Any person giving information to the registrar of a birth or death, must sign his or her name, description and place of abode, in the register.

Captains of British vessels at Sea, are to note down the particulars required, of the birth or death of any of Her Majesty's English subjects which may occur on board, which they are to transmit to the registrar-general to be entered by him in a "Marine Register Book," to be kept in the "General Register Office."

N.B. The cause of death is one of the particulars required in giving information of a death.

Improperly solemnizing marriages, contrary to the regulations of the Act, is felony.

Illegal marriages solemnized with the knowledge of both parties that they are illegal, are null and void, and where one person only is guilty of a fraudulent marriage, he or she forfeits all property that may accrue by the marriage.

REGISTRATION FEES. Births. No fees are paid on the registration of a birth, if within the required time; after forty-two days 2s. 6d. to superintendent registrar, and 5s. to register.

OBSERVATIONS.

By the New Registration Act, the parent of every child born after June 1837, may obtain for it the advantage of a legal registry of its birth, without payment of any fee, provided it be registered by the registrar of the district in which the child was born, within six weeks after the birth. A birth may be registered at any time within six months after the birth; but after six weeks, the expense of registering it will be 7s. 6d., and after six months it cannot be registered at all. The New Register of Births is the only legal register which is evidence of the time of a birth, and consequently of the precise age of the child, and which is also evidence of the place where the birth occurred. It is of importance to all classes of persons to be able to prove when and where they were born—which may be done in future by means of the register of births. To the wealthier classes, such a register is especially useful for proof of pedigree, and for various legal purposes connected with the disposition of property, and for settlement of claims thereto, and also for life insurance. To the poorer classes it is useful for the same purposes, and for others also, particularly such as apprenticeship, employment in factories, and admission to endowed schools and charities. There are many schools, societies, and asylums, and other charitable institutions very desirable for the children of the poorer classes, for which a proof of the age is required 'before the child can be admitted. Many trading companies will not take an apprentice without a certificate of the age; and this is also sometimes necessary, in order to obtain employment in the Dock Yards, and other public establishments. Those who live in manufacturing districts, know how desirable it is to be able to prove the age of children seeking to be employed in factories. Registration is also of great importance to all members of friendly or benefit societies. The new system of Registration not only gives a register of the age, which could not be obtained before, but makes it easier to obtain the proof when wanted. Persons in the country may obtain a certified copy of any entry of a birth, or death, registered in the district, from the registrar or the superintendent registrar. Or by applying at the General Register Office, in Somerset-place, London, or causing a friend or agent to apply for them, they may have a certified copy of any birth, death, or marriage, that has been registered in any part of England or Wales; and this certified copy will be sufficient evidence, without requiring an affidavit that the entry is correctly copied, which is often required for the confirmation of extracts given from church registers.

The difference between the new registers of births and the church registers of baptisms, and the effect of the registration act, having been much misunderstood, it is right to explain—that the one is not a substitute for the other, but that they are entirely different, the new register being a register only of births, the church register being a register only of baptisms; that registry of birth does not warrant neglect of the sacred rite of baptism, nor is the fact that the child has been baptised a sufficient reason for neglecting to register the birth; that the church register of baptisms is not affected by the new act, but remains as before, a legal record of the baptisms, but not of births; for though births are sometimes entered in the church registers, it has been decided by judges in courts of law, "that an entry of a birth made by a clergyman in the register of baptisms is not evidence of the time or place of birth."

By an Act of 4 William IV. cap. 36, a Central Criminal Court is constituted for London and Middlesex, and certain parts of Essex, Kent, and Surrey, the Sessions of which are to be holden in London or the suburbs at least twelve times in every year. The Judges are the Lord Mayor, the Lord Chancellor, the Judges, the Aldermen, Recorder, and Common Serjeant of London, and such others as her Majesty may appoint. The jurisdiction of this Court extends to all treasons, murders, felonies, and misdemeanors, including all places within ten miles of St. Paul's Cathedral. 40	Poles.....	1 Furlong
8	Furlongs.....	1 Mile

An Inch is the smallest lineal measure to which a name is given, but subdivisions are used for many purposes. Among mechanics the Inch is commonly divided into eighths. By the officers of the Revenue, and by scientific persons, it is divided into tenths, hundredths, &c. Formerly, it was made to consist of 12 parts, called lines.

3.—MEASURES OF SOLIDITY AND CAPACITY.

Division I.—Solidity.

1728 Cubic Inches 1 Cubic Foot
27 Cubic Feet 1 Cubic Yard

Division II.

Imperial Measure of Capacity for all liquids, and for all dry goods, except such as are comprised in the third Division.

4 Gills 1 Pint 32 $\frac{1}{2}$ cubic inches nearly 2 Pints 1 Quart 69 $\frac{1}{2}$
4 Quarts 1 Gallon 277 $\frac{1}{2}$
4 Gallons 1 Peck 55 $\frac{1}{2}$
8 Gallons 1 Bushel 2218 $\frac{1}{2}$
8 Bushels 1 Quarter 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ cubic feet nearly 5 Quarters 1 Load 51 $\frac{1}{2}$

The four last denominations are used for dry goods only. For liquids, several denominations have been heretofore adopted, viz.:—For Beer, the Firkin of 9 gallons, the Kilderkin of 18, the Barrel of 36, the Hogshead of 54, and the Butt of 108 gallons. These will probably continue to be used in practice. For Wine and Spirits, there are, the Anker, Runlet, Tierce, Hogshead, Puncheon, Pipe, Butt, and Tun; but these may be considered rather as the names of the casks in which such commodities are imported, than as expressing any definite number of gallons. It is the practice to gauge all such vessels, and to charge them according to their actual content.

Flour is sold, nominally, by measure, but actually by weight, reckoned at 7lb. avoirdupois to a Gallon.

Division III.

Imperial Measure of Capacity, for Potatoes, Fruit, and other goods.

2 Gallons 1 Peck 704 $\frac{1}{2}$ } cubic inches nearly
8 Gallons 1 Bushel 281 $\frac{1}{2}$
3 Bushels 1 Sack 843 $\frac{1}{2}$ } cubic feet nearly 12 Sacks 1 Chaldron 56 $\frac{1}{2}$

The Imperial Gallon contains exactly 10lbs. Avoirdupois of pure water; consequently the pint will hold 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., and the bushel 80lbs.

4.—MEASURE OF WEIGHT.

Division I.—Avoirdupois Weight.

27 $\frac{1}{2}$ Grains 1 Dram 27 $\frac{1}{2}$ Grains
16 Drams 1 Ounce 437 $\frac{1}{2}$ Grains
16 Ounces 1 Pound (lb.) 7000 Grains
29 Pounds 1 Quarter (qr.)
4 Quarters 1 Hundred weight (cwt.)
20 Cwt. 1 Ton.

This weight is used in almost all commercial transactions, and in the common dealings of life.

Particular weights belonging to this Division:

2 Stone 1 Tod 0 1 0 } in the 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ Tod 1 Wey 2 14 } Wool

Division II.—Troy Weight.

24 Gr. ins. 1 Pennyweight 24 grains
20 Pennyweights 1 Ounce 480
12 Ounces 1 Pound 5760

These are the denominations of Troy weight when used for weighing gold, silver, and precious stones (except diamonds). But Troy weight is also used by Apothecaries in compounding medicines, and by them the ounce is divided into 8 drams, and the dram into 3 scruples, so that the latter is equal to 20 grains.

For scientific purposes the grain only is used; and sets of weights are constructed in decimal progression, from 10,000 grains downwards to $\frac{1}{100}$ of a grain.

By comparing the number of grains in the Avoirdupois and Troy pound and ounce respectively, it appears that the Troy pound is less than the Avoirdupois, in the proportion of 14 to 17 nearly; but the Troy ounce is greater than the avoirdupois, in the proportion of 70 to 72 nearly.

The carat used for weighing diamonds, is $3\frac{1}{8}$ grain.

The term, however, when used to express the fineness of gold, has a relative meaning only. Every mass of alloyed gold is supposed to be divided into 24 equal parts; the standard for coin is 22 carats fine, that is, it consists of 22 parts of pure gold, and 2 parts of alloy. What is called the new standard, used for watch cases, &c., is 19 carats fine.

5. ANGULAR MEASURE;

OR, DIVISIONS OF THE CIRCLE.

60 Seconds 1 Minute
60 Minutes 1 Degree
30 Degrees 1 Sign
90 Degrees 1 Quadrant
60 Degrees, or 12 Signs 1 Circumference

Formerly, the subdivisions were carried on by sixties thus, the second was divided into 60 thirds, the third into 60 fourths, &c. At present the second is more generally divided decimally into 10ths, 100ths, &c. The degree frequently so divided.

6. MEASURE OF TIME.

60 Seconds 1 Minute
60 Minutes 1 Hour
24 Hours 1 Day
7 Days 1 Week
28 Days 1 Lunar Month
28, 29, 30, or 31 Days 1 Calendar Month
12 Calendar Months 1 Year
365 Days 1 Common Year
366 Days 1 Leap Year

In 400 years, 97 are leap years, and 303 common.

The same remark, as in the case of angular measure, applies to the mode of subdividing the second of time.

RIGHT OF VOTING.

COUNTIES.

Freeholders.—[See 18th sec. of 2 Wm. IV. c. 45.]

Of inheritance of the yearly value of 40s. above rents and charges. } Occupied or not

Freeholds for life may be acquired in right of a benefice or an office; as clergymen, parish clerks, dissenting ministers, &c., with salaries derived from lands, the freehold of which is in the voter, or in other parties subject to a trust, in writing, entitling the voter to receive the salary either for life, or for an indefinite period; they may also arise from titles, rent-charges, &c.

2. Copyholders.—[See 19th sec. of Act, supra.]

For life or larger estate of copyhold, or any other tenure except freehold, of the yearly value of 10l. above rents and charges.

3. Leaseholders.—[See 20th sec.]

Lessee of 10l. clear yearly value, above rents and charges for not less than sixty years, occupied or not.

Lessee of 50l. clear yearly value, above rents and charges, for not less than twenty years. } Occupied or not

Sub-lessee, or his Assignee, of such terms; if occupying Tenant actually occupying lands, &c. at a yearly rent not less than 50l.

Freeholders and copyholders must have been in possession or in receipt of their profits for six calendar months, and leaseholders for twelve months; and tenants must have occupied twelve months, before the last day of July in each year; except in cases of descent, devise, marriage or promotion.

CITIES AND BOROUGHES.

[See sec. 27.]

1. Owners or tenants actually occupying any house, shop, &c., of 10l. yearly value; or of such value, together with land of which they are owners, or which they hold under the same landlord; or of premises held in immediate succession.

at occupiers of such premises, and of such value, as give 10*l.* yearly to each occupier. If premises must be occupied for twelve calendar months, and the voter have resided for six months before the first day of July, in the borough, or within seven miles, must have been rated for the poor during such twelve months, and must have paid the rates due to the 6th of July preceding on or before the 20th of July. If persons whose names are not rated, a claim may be made by the overseers to put their names on the rate; and upon, and on payment or tender of the rates, they shall be deemed rated from the date of the then existing rate. Should they be again omitted in the next rate, the claim must be repeated.

Freemen made after the 1st of March, 1831, if by other right than birth or servitude, are not to be rated; nor in right of birth, unless it was derived from a freeman entitled before that time, or thereafter using a freeman by servitude. [See sec. 32.]

A saving of the rights of persons otherwise entitled to on the 7th June, 1832 (the passing of the Act).

CITIES AND TOWNS.

Counties of themselves.

Freeholders.—As for the Counties.

Burgage tenants in possession of rents and profits twelve months (unless qualified by descent, marriage or promotion), and resident for six months before the first day of July within the city or seven miles thereof. [See sec. 31.]

Occupiers and Freemen as in other cities and boroughs.

REGISTRATION.

Counties.

By sec. 37 the overseers are required, on the 20th of July, to give notice to persons entitled to vote to send in their claims, according to a form in schedule II.—but after the expiration of the register no person shall be required to make any claim while he retains the same qualification and remains in the same abode.

By sec. 39, every person registered, or who has so qualified, may object to any other person as not entitled the last day of July preceding; but he must give notice on or before the 25th August, according to schedule II, to the like effect (see Companion for 1833, supra, p. 113), to the overseers, and also give to the person objected to or leave at his abode, a notice, according to schedule II, to the like effect.

Notice.—Each person, upon sending in his claim, is to state (see sec. 36). The form in the notice is the preference to be adopted; but any notice in writing, sufficiently descriptive of the property and abode of the person claiming, to enable the overseers to make out their list will satisfy the statute.

Cities and Boroughs.

Persons omitted are to give notice on or before the 25th August to the overseers, according to the form No. 4, in schedule I, (see Companion for 1833, p. 113), or to the like effect; and persons registered may object to others, not entitled on the last day of July preceding, giving notice as before.—(See sec. 47.)

London.

Every person omitted in the lists, and claiming to be entitled, as entitled on the last day of July preceding, on or before the 25th of August, give notice, according to No. 1 in schedule K, or to the like effect, to the returning officer, and the clerk of that company in whose name the claims to be inserted; and any person objecting to any other, as not entitled on the last day of July preceding, shall give to such person, or leave at his abode, notice, according to No. 3 in schedule K.—(See sec. 48.) Notice.—Borough electors, whilst on the register, are liable to pay 1*s.* annually to the overseers. (Sec. 50)

AN ACT for the Relief and Support of Sick, Maimed, and Disabled Seamen, and the Widows and Children of such as shall be Killed, Slain, or Drowned in the Merchant Service.

4 & 5 Will. iv. cap. 52.

To provide for such seamen as shall be rendered incapable of service by sickness, or accident, or worn out by age, and to relieve the widows and children of such as shall be killed or drowned.

Every master shall pay two shillings per month, and every seaman, pilot, or other person shall pay one shilling per month, but not to extend to any person who shall be employed in the fisheries on the coast, nor to vessels that trade within any river.

The master is to deduct out of the wages the said monthly duty, and pay the same to the appointed collectors.

Every master of any vessel, or such person as shall have the care thereof, shall keep a book by way of muster roll, in which shall be entered his own christian and surname, and the christian and surnames of all other persons employed in such ship or vessel; and in case any such master or other person shall neglect to keep such muster roll, shall forfeit the sum of five pounds.

The masters shall pay all monies due before any vessel shall be cleared inwards by the officers of the customs; or the whole of the duties under this act may be paid to the collector, by half-yearly payments.

Duplicates of the muster roll to be delivered to the collectors.

No seaman shall be entitled to any benefit unless liable to the duty, and shall pay the same.

6 & 7 William iv. cap. 60.—Goods that are legally exported and are afterwards re-imported, may, if the proprietor thereof be resident abroad, be entered by Bill of Store, on the proprietor subscribing a declaration as to the identity of the goods, and that they did and do belong to him, and have not been sold or disposed of to any other person—such declaration to be subscribed before the British Consul.

ABSTRACT OF THE WILLS ACT.

[1 Victoria, c. 26.]

Operation of the Act.—1. The act does not extend to Scotland; neither does it affect the wills of soldiers or sailors on actual service, nor wills made before the commencement of 1838. But all wills, with the exception of those of soldiers and sailors, made after the commencement of 1838, come under the provisions of the act.

What kind of Property may be bequeathed by Will.—It is lawful for every person to devise, bequeath, or dispose of, by his will executed in the manner directed by the act, all real estate, and all personal estate which he shall be entitled to either at law or in equity, at the time of his death.

[All property may thus be bequeathed by will. "Real estate" extends to manors, advowsons, messuages, lands, tithes, rents, and hereditaments, whether freehold, customary freehold, tenant right, customary or copyhold, or of any other tenure, and whether corporeal, incorporeal, or personal, and to all future and contingent interests therein. "Personal estate" extends to leasehold estates, and other chattels real, and also to money, shares of government and other funds, securities for money (not being real estate), debts, rights, credits, goods, &c.]

How a Will should be made.—A will can only be made in WRITING; and it must be signed at the foot or end by the testator himself; or, if he is unable to do it, by some person for him, in his presence, and by his direction; and the testator must either make or acknowledge his signature in the presence of two or more persons, who are to be present at the same time, and who are to sign their names as attesting witnesses, in the presence of the testator. No particular form of attestation is necessary.

[The above mode must be observed by all persons, male or female, in making their wills. If any person is drawing up his will, or having it drawn up for him, without legal assistance, the best mode of expression will be the simplest and plainest that can be used. Care must be taken not to bequeath legacies to attesting witnesses, or even to the wife or husband of an attesting witness, as all legacies so bequeathed are void in law. The object of this enactment seems to be, to prevent any will from being disputed or nullified on account of any alleged undue interest on the part of an attesting witness. If, therefore, a testator wishes to give anything to an attesting witness, he must do it in some other way than by a legacy. But creditors and executors can be attesting witnesses.]

Who cannot make a valid Will.—Persons under twenty-one years of age cannot make a valid will. Neither can married women in the lifetime of their husbands, except where they have property settled on them with a power of devising, &c.

What of itself Revokes a Will.—Any man or woman, having made a will, and marrying afterwards, the act of marriage revokes the will, "unless made in exercise of a power of appointment, when the estate thereby appointed would not in default pass to his or her heir, customary heir, executor, or administrator, or the person entitled as his or her next of kin, under the statute of distributions."

How a Will may be Revoked or Altered.—A will can only be revoked by being destroyed, or by the execution of a new will. Alterations must be made in the same way as a will.

[Persons making any alterations in their wills must therefore be careful that the alterations are witnessed and signed in the same way as the wills.]

How a Will is to be hereafter Constructed.—Wills are to be construed as if made immediately before the death of the testator, unless a contrary intention appears from the terms of a will itself.

A residuary devise shall include the estates bequeathed by lapsed and void devises, unless a contrary intention shall appear.

A general devise of the testator's land shall include copyhold and leasehold, as well as freehold lands, unless a contrary intention shall appear.

A general gift shall include estates over which the testator has a general power of appointment, unless a contrary intention shall appear.

A devise without any words of limitation shall be construed to pass the fee, unless a contrary intention shall appear.

The words "die without issue," or "die without leaving issue," shall be construed to mean die without issue living at the death of the person, and not an indefinite failure of his issue, unless a contrary intention shall appear by the will, by reason of such person having a prior estate tail, or of a preceding gift, being, without any implication arising from such words, a limitation of an estate tail to such person or issue, or otherwise; but this Act shall not extend to cases where such words import if no issue described in a preceding gift shall be born, or if there shall be no issue who shall live to attain the age or otherwise answer the description required for obtaining a vested estate by a preceding gift to such issue.

[The preceding abstract gives the main points of this important Act, which tends to simplify the law of wills, and prevent the litigation so often arising from the disposal of property by bequest.]

It is, however, advisable to have a will drawn up by those whose profession it is; consequently, a proctor is the proper person, but such a party is not at hand then a solicitor. It may here be impressed on the public mind the absurdity of a prevalent system of deferring this most important duty, the neglect of which amercs the family in heavy penalties by the imposition of additional probate duty on the survivors, as may be seen by reference to the table of stamps, page 1 of the Almanack.

DR. KITCHENER'S

GINGER LOZENGES.

THESE Lozenges, faithfully prepared from a Receipt of the late Dr. Kitchener, so celebrated for his writings on Domestic Economy, are the strongest preparation of Ginger in a solid form extant, and will be found extremely beneficial in cases of Nervous and Hypochondriacal Affections arising from Flatulence attended with Cholice, Cramp, Spasm, Wind on the Stomach, &c., and they will be found a most valuable acquisition to Travellers; a few of these Lozenges taken occasionally will sustain nature a much longer period again to the effect of cold than any other stimulant.

The efficacy of Ginger being so well known, it is unnecessary to expatiate on its properties further than by observing that it is not productive of any of the ill effects consequent on the use of those spices whose virtues reside in an acrid oil.

In Boxes, price 1s. 11d. each.

ADDRESS.

HANNAY AND DIETRICHSEN again avail themselves of the opportunity, on presenting a new Catalogue to the Public, to return their sincere thanks to their numerous patrons for the continued and distinguished patronage they have so long enjoyed, and they beg to assure their customers that the undeviating system hitherto pursued of selling none but genuine Patent Medicines, procured direct from the Original Makers, will always be adhered to, and that the Public may rely, with confidence, upon every preparation sold at this establishment; and, in consequence of the large sale H. & D. have for such articles, they may always be depended upon as being quite fresh from the various makers.

To their patrons residing in the Country, their gratitude is particularly due; and HANNAY AND DIETRICHSEN assure them that the utmost punctuality will always continue to be used in executing their orders. HANNAY AND DIETRICHSEN beg particularly to point out the increased facility offered by THE POST-OFFICE, since their last Catalogue was printed, for the safe transmission of money. Thus parties residing in localities, where H. & D. have not any Agents, and desirous of obtaining a supply of any article of light and convenient package, can transmit them any sum under £2 without risk, for the trifling charge of fourpence, from any part of the Kingdom, the Channel Isles, and the Isle of Man inclusive; and any parcel, under two ounces in weight, may be returned in like manner for the same charge—under 3 ounces, for sixpence—under 4 ounces (or a quarter of a pound), for eightpence, and so on (2d. for each succeeding ounce), up to 1 pound.

The advantages of the Post-Office arrangement of the present day may be briefly illustrated by any one of the numerous domestic incidents of hourly occurrence in every home-stead of the kingdom. Take the instance of a person, in a remote locality, suffering from a bilious attack, indigestion, &c., and desirous of testing the efficacy of Dyson's Pills (see Catalogue, p. 12); observing that the posted price of a small box is 1s. 4d., or preferring the larger size, 3s. 1d., he proceeds to the post office of his neighbourhood, and mentions that he wishes to pay this amount to Hannay and Dietrichsen, 63, Oxford Street, London, upon which he is requested by the post-master to hand him the money, when he is furnished with a sheet of paper, for which he is charged threepence. At the top of this appears a "Money Order," which, after giving the number of the order, its value in figures, the place whence it is sent, and the date, proceeds—

"Credit the person named in my Letter of Advice the sum of Three Shillings and One Penny, and debit the same to this Office."

POST MASTER.

To the Post Office, Old Cavendish Street.

He has now only to write beneath this order for the article he desires, state the address to which it is to be sent, make his sheet up into a letter, direct it, and return it again to the post master, either with one penny or with a postage stamp affixed, and, by return of post, he will have delivered to him, free of any further expense, the medicine for which he has written, and this, with little more trouble, inconvenience or delay than he would experience if residing in the vicinity of H. & D.'s Establishment, though his home be in the farthest corner of the United Kingdom.

Parties consulting H. & D.'s Catalogue will find, in many instances, the posted price of the article, following the ordinary retail price; and, it must be borne in mind, that whenever a money order is forwarded for an article, unless the posted price be remitted, and the letter pre-paid, the postage is invariably charged double; the penny postage becoming twopence; the twopenny, fourpence; the fourpenny, eightpence; the sixpenny, one shilling; the eightpenny, one shilling and fourpence; and so on.

HANNAY AND DIETRICHSEN beg to inform their Patrons and Friends, that the entire management of the business will in future be in the hands of Mr. DIETRICHSEN, and that the same attention to their commands which has hitherto met with such general approval may continue to be relied upon; and that having now completed the re-building of their extensive premises, theirs is the Largest Establishment in London for the sale of Drugs, Chemicals, Patent Medicines and Perfumery.

To prevent mistakes, HANNAY AND DIETRICHSEN request particular instructions may be given to Porters or Servants sent to their Shop, that it is Number 63, Oxford Street

APPROVED ARTICLES FOR THE TOILET.

HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN'S

RONDELETIA,

ORIGINALLY PREPARED FOR THE EXPRESS USE OF HER

Most Gracious Majesty and the Royal Family,

AND NOW ADOPTED AT EVERY EUROPEAN COURT.

An entirely new, elegant, and refreshing perfume for the Toilet or Handkerchief, superior to any article previously offered for public patronage, retaining its delightful fragrance for days (and even after being washed), without smelling faint or unpleasant, the universal complaint against all other Essences, five drops of which are equal in power to half an ounce of Lavender.

The lovers of elegant perfumes are solicited to call (when in London), and try this article on their handkerchiefs, for which purpose a bottle is always open free, and to which handkerchiefs so perfumed, the combined fragrance of the choicest conservatory must yield precedence.

CAUTION:

The great satisfaction HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN'S RONDELETIA has given those who have made use of it, and the consequent large sale it obtains, has produced a host of counterfeits. Perfumers, whose appearance of respectability would induce a belief that they would not sell a counterfeited article, are even guilty of it. Hannay and Dietrichsen, therefore, beg to inform their customers, that their RONDELETIA cannot be obtained genuine in London anywhere but at their own shop (63, Oxford-street); but it may be obtained in the Country of most respectable Perfumers, care being taken to observe that it has the name and address of HANNAY & CO., 63, OXFORD STREET, on the Bottle, the Label, and on the Seal.

Sold in Bottles at 3s. 6d., 7s. and 15s. each.

And in handsome Cut Glass Toilet Bottles, as supplied for the use of the Royal Family, 16s.

FOR CHAPPED HANDS,

HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN'S SUPERIOR COLD CREAM,The most efficacious and delightful Cosmetic ever offered to the Public.

THE admirable qualities of this elegant Article, in clearing, softening, and preserving the Skin, and in rendering the Complexion delicately fair and beautiful, have occasioned it to supersede all others. Experience has increased its character—opposition more clearly shows its superiority. Its cooling balsamic qualities render it excellent for Infants, as it keeps the Skin soft, cool, and free from dryness. It is highly recommended for the above purposes by most Families and Personages of distinction, who have experienced its pleasing and beneficial effects.

HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN'S

Hannay & Co.'s New Vegetable Soap.

To those Ladies whose refined tastes value the appearance of delicacy and health, Messrs. HANNAY & CO., Perfumers to the Queen and Royal Family, beg to recommend their NEW SOAP, prepared entirely from Vegetable Oils, as a most invaluable improvement in Toilet Soaps; it possesses all the detergent properties of the common Alkaline Soaps heretofore in use, without any of their injurious properties; it renders the Skin beautifully soft, smooth, and delicately white; removes all Redness, Freckles, Tan, and Sunburn, and justly ranks as the most agreeable, efficient, and harmless improver of the complexion in present use, and retains its agreeable perfume to the last.

HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN'S

Oriental Oil,

UNEQUALLED FOR PROMOTING THE GROWTH OF THE HAIR,

Preserving it from decay, and restoring it if injured or destroyed, rendering it of a fine soft silk appearance, and sustaining it in curl under the different varieties of atmosphere.

PREPARED BY

HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN,

Perfumers to Her Majesty the Queen and the Royal Family,
No. 63, OXFORD STREET, LONDON.

ALTHOUGH long possessed of the secret, Messrs. HANNAY and Co. were precluded from submitting this invaluable addition to the Toilet for public patronage during the lifetime of the individual who divulged it to them, or whose head would inevitably have paid the forfeit of its disclosure, the parties successively employed in its preparation being bound under the most solemn oaths of secrecy; and it has been kept inviolate upwards of three centuries.

A fine Head of Hair has, from the remotest ages, been esteemed the greatest ornament of Female Beauty, and in the rudest and most uncivilised countries great value is set upon a fine Head of Hair. The great care is proverbial that is paid to the cultivation of the luxuriant tresses of the fair captives of the Harem, and art is there well known to succeed in out-rivalling even the far-famed beauties of Circassia.

The ORIENTAL OIL has been employed for the purpose during the period of three centuries, and has been found undeviatingly successful in producing that object of all desires, a fine, long, soft, and silky Head of Hair.

Messrs. HANNAY and Co. do not profess (as is done in some instances) that the properties of the ORIENTAL OIL will produce Hair upon cast-iron; it will do no such thing; but if regularly applied it will re-produce the Hair where nature ordained its existence, if lost from causes to which baldness is referable; it will promote the growth of the Hair generally, sustain it in curl, render it fine and soft as silk, and impart a brilliant lustre for which it has no equal.

PREVENT ITS FALLING OFF,

The ORIENTAL OIL is a pure,

LIMPID, WHITE, VEGETABLE SUBSTANCE,

unsophisticated with the deleterious articles usually employed to dye Oils red, which are equally injurious to the Skin as to the Hair, and, although an oily substance, the

ORIENTAL OIL DOES NOT RENDER THE HAIR GREASY,

and is therefore free from the general complaint against every other article in present use for the same purpose, including those filthy substances misnamed Bear's Grease, which in many instances are neither more nor less than a composition of Hog's Lard and Whale Oil, submitted to various manipulations to clove them of the fetid animal smell.

The laws of nature throughout creation exhibit one uniform principle; vegetation, it is well known, derives from the dews of the atmosphere a great portion of its support, and deprive it of which, it soon withers and dies; so the Hair, unless properly nourished, becomes weak and gradually drops off, for, minute as a single Hair appears, if examined with a microscope, the human Hair will be found a perfectly hollow tube, with the surface covered with minute and innumerable pores resembling the Skin, and which if allowed to absorb any thing of an injurious tendency the Hair is destroyed thereby: thus it will be observed that those persons subject to profuse perspiration become bald early in life, which is merely caused by the acid caustic nature of the perspiration settling on the Hair and being absorbed, which entirely destroys it; but if the ORIENTAL OIL be daily applied, it will prevent this taking place, and preserve the Hair free from injury; and if regularly applied to the heads of Infants, it entirely removes the scurf, without the assistance of the dandruff combs, an operation so distressing to the heads of Children.

Price 3s. 6d. in $\frac{1}{2}$ -pints, 6s. 6d. in $\frac{1}{4}$ -pints, and in pint Bottles, with Glass Stoppers, 12s. each.

* * * HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN'S ORIENTAL OIL is particularly recommended to the notice of Merchants and Shippers, as well as families proceeding to the East, being the only article in use for the Hair that will sustain a voyage across the Equator, without becoming rancid.

HANNAY & CO.'S IMPROVED STICKING PLAISTER.

This useful article is a great improvement on the old Court Plaister, as it will adhere until a cut is healed up, and does not come off when washing the hands.

Price Sixpence.

HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN'S IMPERIAL LIP SALVE,

In China Boxes at One Shilling, is much approved, and will keep good for a great length of time.

SIR CHARLES SCARBOROUGH'S LOTION

FOR

BEAUTIFYING and PRESERVING the SKIN and COMPLEXION.

MESSRS. HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN

Congratulate themselves upon having rescued from oblivion, and being enabled again to lay before the World of Fashion, that inestimable treasure, the LOTION FOR THE COMPLEXION, as prepared by that eminent Physician, the late Sir CHARLES SCARBOROUGH*, in days of yore.

Having lately purchased of his descendants the whole of the valuable manuscripts left by the learned Doctor, HANNAY AND DIETRICHSEN were delighted at discovering the recipe by which Sir Charles prepared the unrivalled charm so justly celebrated by contemporary Poets, as adding such brilliance to the

PEERLESS BEAUTIES OF KING CHARLES'S COURT;

But which, after the death of his first Royal Master, Sir Charles could not again be prevailed upon to make up, when the

SURPASSING LUSTRE OF ENGLAND'S GRACES

SENSIBLY DIMINISHED.

By a few applications of this valued Lotion, those personal Disfigurements, Eruptions, Blotches, and Pimples on the Skin, are quickly banished, and the "human face divine" again shines forth in all its native loveliness.

The Lotion is Sold in Bottles at 2s. 9d., at HANNAY AND DIETRICHSEN'S Drug, Chemical, and Patent Medicine Warehouse, 63, Oxford Street, London.

HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN'S

VEGETABLE ASTRINGENT ANTISEPTIC TOOTH POWDER

WILL be found superior to and more agreeable in use than any other Dentifrice, for Beautifying and Preserving the Teeth and Gums, its detersive qualities removing those Tartarous Substances which adhere to the interstices of the Teeth without injuring the Enamel, and restoring them, however much discoloured by neglect, to a beautiful Transparent and Pearly appearance; and, by operating as an Anti-scorbutic, gives a firmness and healthy appearance to the Gums, imparting the sweetest fragrance to the Breath, and by a continued use will preserve the Teeth firm and entire, prevent their decay, and fix them in the socket to the latest period.

Ladies and Gentlemen who had been previously much subject to Tooth-Ache, find that by the continued use of HANNAY'S TOOTH POWDER they become entirely free from it.

HANNAY AND DIETRICHSEN'S VEGETABLE ANTISEPTIC TOOTH POWDER not containing either Mineral or Vegetable Acid, and being perfectly impalpable, renders the Teeth beautifully transparent, smooth, and highly polished.

The very distinguished Patronage bestowed upon this truly elegant Dentific preparation has so established its reputation that it is now considered an indispensable requisite at the Toilet of every Lady of Rank and Fashion.

Price 2s. 9d., each Box.

* Sir Charles Scarborough was Court Physician to King Charles the Second, and to the two succeeding Monarchs; he was eminent as a Physician, as an Astronomer, and celebrated for his graces as a Courtier; he discovered the Star of Caroli, so denominated in memory of our Charles the First, and having attained the reputation of the ablest Physician of his day, died in 1693, and was buried at Cranford.

MOUNTJOY'S COUGH DROPS.

An approved and effectual Remedy for Asthmatic and Pulmonary Affections, Coughs, Colds, Pectoral Ailments, Debility of the Lungs, Hooping Cough, Difficulty of Breathing, Hoarseness, Influenza, &c., heretofore prepared by Mr. MOUNTJOY, Surgeon, of Cheltenham, but now by who have purchased of Mr. Mountjoy the Recelpe and sole right of preparing the same; and as a security to themselves and the public, the Honourable Her Majesty's Commissioners of Stamps have granted them the privilege to have their names engraved in the Government Stamp, or Duty Label, which will be affixed in future to each bottle of these Cough Drops, and without which they will not be genuine.

HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN, 63, Oxford Street, London,

So decided was the success that had attended Mr. Mountjoy in the administration of these Drops, in an extensive practice as a Surgeon and Apothecary, and so highly and generally had they been approved of by several of the most eminent Members of the Faculty, who had witnessed the relief they afforded even in the most critical cases, which induced Mr. Mountjoy to offer them to the Public with perfect confidence, as the most efficacious means of allaying and removing those complaints which may but too justly be considered the source of the most serious and oftentimes fatal maladies to which the human frame is subject, and the demand for them since their public introduction exceeded his most sanguine expectations.

In Asthmatic affections and Influenza, they operate most beneficially by strengthening the mucus membrane, and promoting a free circulation; and in Pulmonary complaints they generally succeed in restoring health after the inflammatory action is subdued.

In cases of recent Cold, Cough, Hoarseness, &c., a few drops taken at stated intervals during the day, are generally found to produce the desired effect in an incredibly short time. Their efficacy renders these Drops a most important appendage to the Family Medicine Chest, and they are composed of Ingredients so innocent, that they may be administered to an Infant of a few months old with perfect safety and success.

To the Senator, the Preacher, the Barrister, the Public Speaker, the Lecturer, the Vocalist, and the Teacher of Elocution, the use of this excellent specific will be found peculiarly valuable, as invigorating the lungs, and enabling the voice to endure more than ordinary exertion with comparative ease, whilst it harmonises the Infonation, and renders the articulation clear, powerful and melodious.

Mountjoy's Cough Drops are strongly recommended by

The Rev. FRANCIS CLOSE, Incumbent Minister of Cheltenham,

The Rev. THOMAS PAGE, Incumbent Minister of Christ Church, Egham, and by numerous other Clergymen, but whose letters, forwarded to Mr. Mountjoy, do not contain a permission to publish their names.

WEIR'S DIGESTION POWDERS,

FOR THE CURE OF

Indigestion in all its Forms, Bilious and Stomach Complaints, Headache, Heartburn, Flatulency, and all other Consequences of Indigestion.

INDIGESTION is one of the most common diseases to which persons are liable. It consists in a want of appetite, flatulency, heartburn, pain in the region of the stomach, and several nervous symptoms which vary much in different cases. The restoration of tone to the stomach and the general system, and the immediate removal of the painful symptoms of the disease, are therefore the objects to be sought in its cure. These Powders, which have had an extensive and most successful trial, are confidently recommended for these purposes; they mix and assimilate with the food, and may be taken in any quantity without injury, as they contain no Calomel or other preparation of Mercury, Antimony, or any noxious material.

Sold in Packets at 1s. 1½d., and Bottles at 10s. each, by Hannay & Dietrichsen, 63, Oxford Street, who have purchased from the Inventor the sole right of making this Powder; every Packet will, therefore, be authenticated by having their name and address printed in the Government Stamp affixed to each.

CONGREVE'S GOLDEN BALM, FOR CHILDREN CUTTING THEIR TEETH.

This Golden Balm is a most pleasant and truly valuable Syrup, which, when gently rubbed on the gums with the finger two or three times a day, will prevent and remove the attendant pain (which is as acute as the most violent toothache), and the exquisite Irritation existing at this period, which, without a remedy, frequently brings on fits, convulsions, fever, and sudden death. The above remedy usually acts like a charm, both as a preventative and cure, and should be had recourse to without delay.

Parents and Nurses should be reminded, that, although some children outlive the violent sensations attendant on difficult teething, yet if they are suffered to continue without a check, they occasion so great a shock to the nerves, and the nervous system, that in after-life they become a prey to a high state of Irritability, or general nervousness, which frequently renders life almost insupportable. To neglect, therefore, the preventive and curative treatment above recommended is both criminal and cruel.

In bottles at 1s. 1½d. and 2s. 9d. each.

HEALTH RESTORED AND PRESERVED

BY

DYSON'S DIGESTIVE ANTIBILIOUS PILLS,

For the Prevention and Cure of Disorders of the Digestive Organs, and for Bilious and Nervous Diseases.

Nothing has stimulated the curiosity of man, nor tasked his intellectual faculties, more than the art of preserving health, and preventing disease. We have innumerable remedies for different disorders, but hitherto nothing has been discovered for their prevention, and for the removal of the cause when they make their attacks. It is well known that all maladies spring from indigestion, but even Abernethy, the great demonstrator of the fact, was unsuccessful in his endeavours to find an effectual remedy for it. Nebens, the ancestor of Hippocrates, confessed, that if an antidote could be compounded to the first cause of illness, the skill of the Physician would seldom be required, and his grandson made the same admission. It was a saying also of the Emperor Marcus Aurelius to Galen, that medical men satisfied themselves with lopping off the branches, and then the trunk of a disease, but never went to its root. This complaint has been reiterated in our own times, but fortunately for the suffering world, the invention of Dyson's Antibilious Digestive Pills has at once remedied the evil. It is the most beneficial discovery for mankind that was ever made; one or two of these pills taken three times a week will nerve the frame against every complaint to which it is liable, and those whose constitutions are already impaired by indigestion, will find in it a panacea which will restore them to the blessings of health, until the decay of nature alone puts a termination to their lives. What renders them more valuable is the fact, that they may be taken without hindrance of business, or fear of exposing the body to the liability of taking cold while under their influence; they are aperient it is true, but so gentle as not to produce inconvenience. Head-aches, Nervous Debility, Giddiness, Nausea, Bilious Affections, Flatulency, Costiveness, Eruptions on the Skin, Scorbute Affections, Loss of Appetite, Acidity of the Stomach, Cough, Shortness of Breath, Palpitation of the Heart, Fevers, General Debility, Derangement of the System, and all the train of attendant calamities, yield to the wonderful healing powers of these pills. The spleen owes to them the permission of gratifying his appetite without danger of incurring Apoplexy, or any of the usual results of over-eating. Another remarkable feature possessed by this medicine is, that in addition to preventing and removing disorders, it strengthens the body; all other medicines produce debility, for it is well known that the poison of disease only becomes eradicated by the introduction of a stronger poison, but Dyson's Antibilious Digestive Pills are healthy agents, and combine a two-fold operation in their wonder-working powers; they are purgative and tonic at the same time, and only operate to strengthen; just as we melt the brittle ore previous to hardening it in the same furnace. The most friable constitutions become repaired and fortified by them. All, therefore, that need now be added, is a recommendation to every family to possess themselves of it, for were such to be done, the whole country would be free from disorders of every description, Dyson's Antibilious Digestive Pills are adapted to all ages and both sexes, the most delicate females may take them under any circumstances.

The three following Testimonials are selected from a numerous List:—

Sirs, London, 29th Dec., 1847.

I have for a long time suffered great inconvenience from sick head-ache and indigestion. Having heard of the great cures performed by your Digestive Pills, I was induced to try them, and from the use of which I have found the greatest benefit, and I trust soon to experience a complete cure. If this communication will be of any service to you, you are at liberty to publish it, as I consider them a public benefit, and on those grounds should be publicly known. Families ought never to be without them, so that in case of sickness, they might have a remedy at hand.

I am, Sirs, your obedient servant,
H. celes Buildings, H. NASH.

East of England Bank,
Donham, Norfolk, 20th Jan. 1848.
To Messrs. Dyson & Co.

Gentlemen,
I feel it my duty to add my testimony to the beneficial results experienced from taking your Antibilious Digestive Pills. My family have used them some time: they fully substantiate the truth of your advertisement. I am persuaded it is a very valuable discovery, and deserves to be patronised. You have my permission to make my sentiments public.

I remain, Gentlemen,
Your most obedient servant,
CHARLES MUMFORD.

To Messrs. Dyson.

I had been for seven years troubled with indigestion and bilious attacks, also with a severe Cough and shortness of breath after walking, when you advised me to try your Antibilious Digestive Pills. After taking two or three boxes, I found myself quite cured, and now enjoy sound health. I wish you to make my case known, for the benefit of others. I will at all times recommend them, and shall think of you with gratitude.

I am, Sirs, your humble servant,
JOHN GROVES,
East Peckham Kent. Carman to Mr. Simmons.

THE FRIEND IN NEED OINTMENT,

SOLD BY

HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN, 63, OXFORD STREET.

Sanctioned and Recommended by the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, and Numerous Eminent Medical Gentlemen.

THIS Invaluable Ointment, the discovery of that able and Scientific Surgeon, William Carpenter, Esq., of Bristol, is extensively used by the faculty and families, as the most certain remedy for the Cure of Ulcerated Sore Legs, Chilblains, breaking out in Children's Heads and behind their Ears, Sore or Inflamed Eyes, Burns and Scalds, Sore Lips, Chapped Hands, Eruptions of every description, Cancerous, Scrofulous, or Indolent Tumours, Enlargement of the Glands, White Swellings, Bruises, Ringworm, Scurvy, &c. &c.

The advantage possessed by this Ointment over all others is, that it will not heal up the surface of a wound, leaving it full of matter; but it will first bring all the matter to the surface, and finally heal it, without its breaking out again.

The following certificates, selected from some hundreds, will satisfy every one of its decided superiority.

"Dr. Clarke has used the FRIEND IN NEED OINTMENT in about thirty-five cases that have come under his care, and is of opinion it will cure those Complaints for which it is recommended sooner and with more certainty than any application he has ever tried or heard of; he can therefore confidently recommend it.

"London, Feb. 1837."

"Sir,

"I shall feel obliged by your sending me half a dozen pots of the Friend in Need Ointment; my little girl has received great benefit from it. The Scorbatic Humour, which she has been so long afflicted with, has entirely left her. I should certainly recommend you, as an act of justice to yourself and the public, to make it generally known, and as a cure for those terrible complaints the Ringworm and Scorbatic Humours.

"I am, yours, &c.

"Carlisle Place, Lambeth."

"EDWARD DAY.

"Sir,

"From the great relief I have found in using your Friend in Need Ointment to my feet, which have been for some considerable time in a bad inflamed state, so much so as to prevent my walking, I am in duty bound to thus acknowledge it, and say it is the only thing that has given me relief out of the many applications I have tried.

"I am, Sir, yours, &c.

"High Street, Hoxerton."

"P. DAVIS.

"Mrs. Wear was afflicted with a severe wound in her ankle from an accident, attended with great pain for about three months. Having used various applications without success, she made a trial of the Friend in Need Ointment, which in a short time completely healed it. It has since that time remained in a sound state.

"5, Rosemary Street, Bristol."

The Proprietors feel convinced the above are sufficient to satisfy the most incredulous of its extreme healing powers, even when other remedies have failed, and will induce private families to keep a stock of the Friend in Need by them.

The Friend in Need Ointment is sold only in Pots with covers, at 1s. 1½d. and 2s. 9d. each; but from the reputation the remedy has acquired, it is imitated in various ways, it is therefore requested to observe, that unless it has the words "Hannay and Dietrichsen, 63, Oxford Street," printed in white letters in the Government Duty Stamp pasted on each Pot, it is not genuine.

RAMSBOTTOM'S

CORN & BUNION SOLVENT.

By the use of this valuable remedy, immediate relief from pain is obtained, and by its successive application for a short period, the most obstinate Corns are removed, without recourse to the dangerous operations of cutting or filing. The proprietor pledges himself that it does not contain caustic or any other article that will inflame the skin; being white, it will not stain the stocking; and the advantage it has over plaster is manifest, and fully appreciated, as the very high recommendation bestowed upon it by every individual that has used it testifies. Price 1s. 1½d. and 2s.

The various counterfeits that are attempted to be imposed upon the public, in lieu of this invaluable remedy, render it imperatively necessary for purchasers to ask for S. Ramsbottom's Corn and Bunlon Solvent, and to see that it has the signature of "S. Ramsbottom" written upon the label that is pasted on the outside of the wrapper of every genuine bottle in addition to the name of the article, and the words, Sold by HANNAY & Co. 63, Oxford Street, being the name and address of the proprietor's wholesale agents.

The following letter from John Winfield, Esq., the Churchwarden of Birmingham, is one of many hundreds of the same tenor:

GENTLEMEN, Birmingham, August 6, 1836.

Having read an advertisement in a Birmingham paper, I was induced to purchase from your agents Mr. Mayer, a bottle of Ramsbottom's Corn and Bunlon Solvent; after a week's application I found it had the desired effect; I have since recommended it to many of my friends; you are at liberty to make any use you please of this communication.

Your obedient Servant,

To Messrs. Hannay & Co., JOHN WINFIELD.
63, Oxford-street, London.

MR. PHIP of Westbourn Road, Paddington Green, writes he had been so severe a sufferer from Corns, as to be quite a cripple, requiring the aid of a stick to walk with for many months, until he was recommended to try Ramsbottom's Corn Solvent, which entirely cured him, and that he has not been troubled with them since, and will be most happy to answer any personal inquiries as to its efficacy.

ALSO FROM DR. GRENVILLE.

DR. GRENVILLE presents his compliments to Messrs. HANNAY & Co. and begs to add his testimony (publicly) to the efficacy of Ramsbottom's Corn Solvent, which he purchased at their Shop, when in London last season. It completely answers the purpose, the danger possible to arise by cutting them too deep is avoided, and it is far more agreeable than plaster.

To ensure Ramsbottom's Corn Solvent being genuine, observe that it has the words "Hannay & Dietrichsen, 63, Oxford Street," engraved in and printed upon the Government Stamp affixed to each bottle.

Hypochondria and Hysterical Disorders,

HANNAY AND DIETRICHSEN'S

OPHTHALMIC OINTMENT,

For the Cure of Sore Eye-lids and Specks on the Cornea.

This invaluable Ointment generally succeeds in effectually curing, in a short period, those diseases of the Eye attended with Sore Eye-lids, and loss of the Eye-lash (frequently the effects of the measles), when other remedies have failed, and after eminent Oculists have declared a cure hopeless.

HANNAY and DIETRICHSEN strongly recommend this Ointment to their Customers as the best remedy for complaints of the Eye that has ever been discovered, and it possesses the advantage peculiar to itself, that it does not cause any smarting or other uneasiness, not even at the moment of application. If children who are subject to Styes on the Eye-lid have a little of this Ointment applied to the Eye for a few days, it will entirely remove the Stye, and the patient will not be subject to their return. It is sold in Pots at 2s. 9d. each.

CONGREVE'S BALSAMIC ELIXIR.

This valuable compound is patronised by highly respectable members of Society, who have proved its specific properties in Coughs, Asthma, Hooping Cough, and Pulmonary Consumption.

In inveterate Coughs, Colds, Harshness, Difficulty of Breathing, and diseases of the chest and lungs, this Balsam exerts a sovereign power. Many hundreds of individuals, who have been afflicted with these symptoms, have experienced from it substantial relief, in a shorter time than by other medicines.

In all the stages of Hooping Cough, to which children are subjected, this Elixir has performed radical cures, when the complaint has been invincibly proof against the customary means employed to subdue it. In some instances, it has effectually succeeded in mitigating its paroxysms in a few days.

In the most obstinate Asthma, which have threatened speedy dissolution, when the afflicted, from the violent emotions produced by excessive coughing, has laboured dreadfully for breath, with an acuteness of agony not to be described, this inestimable Balsam has restored the patient to health, after the medical practitioner had abandoned the usual means in despair.

In Pulmonary Consumption, a certain antidote is offered, in this Balsamic Elixir, as most unquestionable testimonials will prove. It has been successfully prescribed in consumptive cases in a great variety of instances. Price, in Bottles, 22s., 11s., 4s. 6d., 2s. 9d., and 1s. 1½d.

SPAIN'S ANODYNE RESTORATIVE OIL,

For Rheumatic Pain, Bruises, Sprains, Dislocations, Stiffness of the Joints, Contractions of the Muscles, Tenons, Cramp, Chilblains, &c., &c., and, in short, for every kind of Violence to the Bones, Muscles, and Nerves.

The excellence and efficacy of the above remedy, have been established by a benevolent practice for upwards of thirty years; and the most unequivocal and convincing testimonies have, unsolicited, been sent to the proprietor by persons who have experienced its rapid and benign effects.

The Rheumatism being, in a great measure, one of the prevailing diseases of this country, any discovery which can be deemed of superior efficacy in the relief of that violent excruciating pain, will be found to merit the notice of all persons and all ages. This Oil will be found to possess superior virtue in the removal of all Rheumatic Pains, Bruises, Sprains, &c., arising from whatever cause, and its established efficacy in healing Bruises, removing Swellings, and resolving all Muscular Contractions, has proved its wonderful excellence beyond any external application hitherto discovered, by the immediate relief it affords to the persons who apply it; and were the proprietor to make known to the public the many instances of its wonderful and salutary effects, they would prove too tedious to enumerate. In two cases of Cancer, where the knife was deemed necessary, the patients refusing to submit to the operation, recourse was had to this Oil, and they were both cured.

MR. HILL'S ORMSKIRK MEDICINE,

Prepared by HANNAY & Co., 63, Oxford Street,

For Hydrophobia and other Symptoms of Canine Madness.

This Medicine is the only one that has ever been known to cure these truly dreadful complaints, and if administered immediately after being bitten by an animal, or to one animal after being bit by another, it is possible that this dreadful malady might be entirely prevented: it is suggested to the owners of animals and proprietors of Cattle the advisability of always having this remedy by them in case of accident. Messrs. Hannay and Co., the now proprietors of Mr. Hill's Ormskirk Medicine, who purchased the recipe of the late proprietor from philanthropic motives, sincerely hope that no human being may hereafter be suffered to fall a sacrifice to this dreadful disease, without every effort being made to save them, and for which purpose this Medicine can alone be tried, as the whole of the Faculty are unable to offer any other remedy that has ever succeeded, and there is no excuse for its not being tried, as Messrs. Hannay & Co. will present it gratis to the relatives of any individual suffering from an attack of the complaint, rather than any effort should be left untried; the following case of its success is among those formerly published by Mr. Hill, the whole of which may be had:—

The Honourable Lady Primrose caused it to be administered to a servant of Mr. Nunn, one of the keepers of Windsor Forest, who had been bitten some time before by a mad dog, but being then attacked most violently with all the appearances of Hydrophobia, was on the point of falling a sacrifice to the old cruel practice of smothering, when by her Ladyship's interposition, with a few doses of this medicine, he was fortunately restored.

The Ormskirk Medicine is sold in Packets at 8s. 6d., and for Puppies in Packets at 8s.

In cases where it is discovered that a dog, supposed to be rabid, has bitten other dogs in a Pack, Hannay & Co. suggest to their Sporting Friends the advisability of administering the Ormskirk Medicines to the entire pack, to prevent the possibility of the disease spreading and the probable destruction of the pack in a case of this description. Hannay & Co. will have great pleasure in supplying the Medicine at the bare cost out of pocket.

DR. SIMS'S NERVOUS PILLS, Sold by HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN, 63, Oxford Street,

Have produced such astonishing and almost miraculous effects, that an eminent Physician declared them to be the most judicious combination of medicine for the relief of neuralgic disorders that he had ever prescribed. They have been found very serviceable in Tic-Douloureux, Nervous Rheumatism (neuralgia-rheumatica) Tremor of the Extremities, constant and periodical Head-aches, aching palms along the course of the spinal column, &c.

Many patients have received the most wonderful and decided relief (from their excruciating torments), by taking only a few boxes of these excellent pills. A noble lady derived so much benefit from them, after suffering years of agony from nervous pains of the head and face (after trying almost every remedy known, without any beneficial result), that out of gratitude to the Proprietor, and a benevolent desire to benefit her distressed fellow creatures, she sent him a very handsome present, and purchased several boxes of the pills to distribute to needy patients similarly afflicted as herself.

The wonderful efficacy of these invaluable pills has been amply tested in the most distressing cases of nervous deafness, attended by weakness of the eyes—abundant proof could be furnished of the triumphant cures effected by them in the above cases, when all other remedies had failed in making any impression on the disorder.

They may be taken without any inconvenience, and do not require any restraint of diet; they are excellent for persons affected with irregularity of the heart's action; everyone having the least knowledge of these disorders is well aware, that nervous palpitations of the heart, if not checked at their commencement, will, in due course, cause so much constitutional disturbance, which re-acting on this important organ, favors materially the formation of the various diseases to which the central circulation is so constantly liable.

In cases of feminine weakness, they act most beneficially, in keeping, within due proportions, any excess of the natural secretions, and very sensibly mitigate the irritation of the mucous surfaces.

Dr. Sims's Nervous Pills are sold in boxes, with instructions for use, at 11s. each, by Hannay and Dietrichsen, 63, Oxford Street, London, who are appointed the sole agents, and they cannot be obtained at any other shop. Parties in the country desirous of procuring them, ordering them by post, and enclosing a sovereign or five pound note (which will go for double postage), will have the change returned, in the package with the medicine.

Every box will have printed in white letters on the Government Stamp or Duty Label attached, the words, "Hannay & Dietrichsen, 63, Oxford Street," without which they will not be genuine.

Dr. Denman's Tonic Pills,

For immoderate secretions and female weaknesses, prepared from a prescription of the late Dr. Denman, an eminent physician, accoucheur, and obstetric professor, need only a fair trial to convince the most sceptical of their efficacy in combating these formidable diseases, which, if not arrested as soon as the premonitory symptoms supervene, lay the foundation of that fatal malady Consumption, so truly considered the "Obstinatum Ans Mithridati."

Dr. Denman's Pills are a safe and elegant preparation, they give tone and vigour to the extremities of the secreting vessels; they do not require confinement during their administration, or restraint of living; on the contrary, the patient's diet should be generous, but not stimulating, all vinous and fermented drinks being avoided.

It is universally acknowledged that immoderate secretions prove as injurious to the female constitution as permanent obstructions, consequently in cases which have not had early attention, and where there is great prostration of strength, combined with general emaciation of the body, nothing has proved so efficacious in giving speedy relief to these distressing complaints as Dr. Denman's Tonic Pills, and numerous instances might be given (by permission), but it is thought unnecessary to publish them. The symptoms usually attending these formidable complaints, are weakness and pain at the small of the back, attended with a paleness of the face, with, sometimes, a greenish tinge of the complexion, loss of appetite, indigestion, nausea, fainting, palpitation of the heart, and disturbed respiration, the eyelids becoming swelled and tumid.

This invaluable medicine may be administered to females of any age with perfect security, it allays all local irritation, gives tone and vigour to the constitution, purifies the system, and is particularly applicable in all cases of relaxation and debility of the system.

They are sold in boxes at 2s. 9d. each, and in bottles, for taking abroad, at 11s. and 22s., and no lady should think of proceeding to a tropical climate without, at least, one bottle of this invaluable medicine.

Messrs. Hannay and Dietrichsen, 63, Oxford Street, London, are appointed the exclusive Agents for the sale of Dr. Denman's Tonic Pills, purchasers will therefore please to observe, that each packet has the words, "Hannay & Dietrichsen, 63, Oxford Street," engraved and printed in white letters in the Government Stamp attached to each packet.

HANNAY AND DIETRICHSEN'S COLLYRIUM,

For Weakness of Sight and Inflammation of the Eyes, is strongly recommended from the experience of many years, as the best Remedy for Curing Weakness of Sight, Inflammation of the Eyes, Blight, Redness occasioned by Cold, &c.

To Captains of Vessels, and all persons going abroad, this Collyrium is invaluable as a safe and most effectual remedy against the painful irritation and consequent inflammation caused by the Wind and Dust, and intensity of the sun in warm climates, and the no less injurious effects of the Ice and Snow in the more northern parts of the world; it need no family ought to be without it, for its excellent properties, not only in preserving the sight, but also in removing Ophthalmia in its early stages.

The Loss of Sight is a misfortune so justly to be deplored, is attended in general with so much painful suffering, and accompanied by so many privations of the various comforts and enjoyments of life, that every improved and successful mode of treatment, which holds out a fair prospect of preventing so great and extensive a calamity, ought to obtain a fair trial.

The effects produced by this Collyrium are almost miraculous, immediately relieving the uneasiness and removing the inflammation in a short space of time, without producing any of those violent effects which are caused by the applications usually adopted by Oculists. It is sold in Bottles at 2s. 9d. each.

HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN beg to inform their customers, that their Collyrium cannot be purchased in London anywhere but at their own shop; and that if purchased in the country, to insure its being genuine, it will be requisite to observe that it has the words, "Hannay and Dietrichsen, 63, Oxford Street," engraved in and printed as a part of the Government Stamp or Duty to be attached to each bottle, a privilege that has been granted to them to distinguish the authenticities of their Medicines.

C. S. CHEDDON'S FAMED HERBAL TONIC PILLS, FOR THE CURE OF

Scrofula, Scurvy, Lepre y, Scorbatic Affections, Eruptions and Pimples on the Face, Swellings or Ulceration in the Neck, Sore Breasts, and all disorders attended with painful Swellings, or with Morbid and irritating Eruptions of the Skin, Open Wounds, and Sores, as well as the most inveterate forms of Gout and Rheumatism.

The daily increasing celebrity of CHEDDON'S PILLS is the most positive proof of their efficacy, and they are now adopted by the first Practitioners for the Cure of the above Disorders, which are well known to have baffled the most consummate Medical Skill, and which have hitherto always been considered incurable.

Of all diseases which affect the human body, there are none more severe, more dangerous, or more painful, than those of Scrofula, Scurvy, Leprosy, and Scorbatic Affections, with the endless variety of morbid and irritating eruptions of the skin concomitant thereto; indeed, there is scarcely a family in the universe, either rich or poor, that is not directly or indirectly affected with Scrofula, or where its latent effects are not occasionally visible, being apparently the visitation denounced against succeeding generations, and for which the faculty have hitherto considered there were no means of cure, and its increase to the present alarming extent is the consequence. Look around you and see how many individuals, in the prime of life, are daily falling victims to this complaint: who might have been so easily cured by our medicine, and by that medicine alone, namely, C. S. CHEDDON'S FAMED HERBAL TONIC PILLS, which have been the means of restoring hundreds to perfect health, after many of the most Scientific Medical Men in London, and elsewhere, have said nothing more could be done for them, and who were left to drag on a miserable existence from day to day until death should terminate their sufferings; many of these persons have been discharged from the Public Hospitals, and some from Her Majesty's service, as incurable, and in a short space of time have been entirely cured by this Invaluable Medicine.

How many individuals there are seen daily with Scrofulous Tumours on different parts of the Body, Eruptions in the Skin, and Scrofulous Sores, which, to every eye, is a great disfigurement; for the complaints the most eminent of the Faculty have tried nearly every remedy, without success, as a last resource, they recommend the sea side, which frequently increases the violence of the disease; if it does otherwise, it only allays its progress for a short time, when it generally breaks out in a much more malignant form than it had previously appeared, and death ensues as the inevitable consequence!

The extraordinary efficacy of C. S. CHEDDON'S Invaluable PILLS have been repeatedly proved in the most inveterate cases of Scrofula and Cutaneous Diseases, after many eminent Physicians and Surgeons had pronounced them incurable, and after numerous Surgical Operations had been performed without success, and, in many instances, after life was despaired of by the medical attendants.

To individuals suffering under attacks of GOUT, RHEUMATISM, or LUMBAGO, CHEDDON'S PILLS will be found to afford almost immediate and permanent relief, and those who are constitutionally predisposed to suffer from these tormenting complaints will find that by having occasional recourse to their use they will ward off their frequent attack; for it has been found that persons previously subject to four, five, or more attacks yearly, have, by the use of this medicine, reduced them to two, and to one, and feel assured that by persevering they will eventually remove it entirely from the constitution.

Mr CHEDDON, feeling convinced of the importance of this Medicine to the interest and welfare of society, recommends no family to be without it, and assures them that there is not any ingredient of an injurious nature in their composition, and that their use cannot be detrimental in the slightest degree to the most delicate constitution, and Children of the most tender age may take it in half the usual quantity. It is not requisite to make any alteration in Diet during their use, or for the Patient to neglect his usual occupation.

Mr CHEDDON submits for Public Inspection the following Copies of Letters received by him from eminent Physicians and Surgeons, who are in the habit of prescribing his Pills; also from individuals who have derived relief and cure from this valuable Medicine, the peculiar properties of which are, that it expels disease from the human frame, without having any visible action on the body, or purging in the slightest degree, but by its benign and certain influence, increases the Appetite, invigorates the Constitution, re-establishes Good Health, and literally creates the animal economy anew. They may be taken under any circumstances by the most delicate individual, without the slightest apprehension from taking cold, or the least necessity for the Patient to refrain from pursuing his usual avocations, nor is the slightest alteration in diet requisite, only observing to adopt that which the palate relishes.

They are sold in Boxes at 1s. 1d., 2s. 1d., 4s. 1d., and 11s. each, Wholesale and Retail, at HANNAV and DUNNIBEN'S General Patent Medicine Warehouse, 63, Oxford Street, London, whose name and address will, in future, be printed in the government stamp affixed to each Box, without which they will not be genuine; persons in the country who experience any difficulty in obtaining them, can procure them direct by writing to the above address, by post, and enclosing the amount post free, and the quantity of one pound's worth, or upwards, will be returned free of carriage.

"To Mr. CHEDDON,
"SIR, "Bond Street, Feb. 10, 1831.

"I return you my sincere thanks for the cure your Medicine has lately performed upon me. I had been suffering from severe pains in my back and loins and left side for many months, and had become much emaciated; apparently my whole frame was entirely worn out; from having been above fifteen stone I had sunk down to nine and a half, when I began to take your Pills, which I found relief from after taking a few days, and by continuing them they restored me to perfect health. I consider my life was entirely saved by your Medicine; three Medical Gentlemen, whom I had the greatest confidence in, rather advised me not to trouble myself with Medicine, as they considered it perfectly useless. You are at liberty to make what use you think proper of this.

"I remain, your obedient servant,
"SAMUEL LAWSON."

"To C. S. CHEDDON, Esq. "May 8, 1835.

"Gratitude impels me to address you, my dear Sir, for, through the blessing of the Almighty have you cured me of that which did embitter my existence. The earliest recollection I have is connected with misery; even my childhood was not exempt from pain. At once, to elucidate this, I must inform you that a dreadful scorbutic eruption completely covered my face; my parents kindly placed me at school, and hard indeed was it to meet the scorn and sarcasm that my unhappy appearance produced; frequently have I turned from my school-fellows and wept in agony. As years passed away I left school, and thankful I am to tell you with a calm spirit, and I resolved patiently to endure that lot, which one far above me had selected for me. Three months since, a relation of mine, observing in the paper the numerous and highly respectable signatures affixed to your advertisement, immediately procured a box of your HERBAL TONIC PILLS, and presented them to me, with an earnest wish that I would take them. Reluctantly I consented, for my spirits were literally broken; still I took them, and now, blessed for ever be a kind Providence, and you, my dear Sir, my skin is as clear as the fairest beneath the sun. Tavistock is where I live. I am now staying in London, and have availed myself of this circumstance to tell you all I feel.

"Ever respectfully, yours,

"GRACE HORNCASTLE."

"Miss ELLEN GRIFFITHS returns her best thanks to Mr CHEDDON, and informs him that his celebrated Pills have lately cured her of a bad breast (supposed to be cancer), after every other remedy had failed.

"Newport Pagnell, Northampton, Sept. 21, 1833."

HARRIET WOOLLEN, of Church Street, Taunton, was seized with a violent chill in June, 1827, which brought on an abscess in the snail of her back that gradually increased to the size of a man's two fists, and was labouring under the most violent pains both day and night. The parochial Surgeon attended her, and applied all kinds of plasters, poultices, &c., to reduce the abscess, but without producing any effect. He consulted another eminent Surgeon of Taunton on the case, who advised it to be cut with a knife. This afforded her some slight relief, but the abscess again formed and was again cut. Nevertheless, these repeated cuttings did not succeed in curing the disease, for in a short time the humours which had caused her such excruciating pain settled in her left knee and produced most violent pain, inflammation taking place, and swelling to a great extent. She now became a patient in the Taunton Hospital, where she had for four months the best surgical assistance, but without deriving any benefit, and, despairing of meeting with any relief, had resigned herself to the will of her Creator, after having been confined to her bed upwards of two years. About this time a gentleman called to see her in her distressed situation, and recommended her to try C. S. CHEDDON'S FAMED HERBAL TONIC PILLS, which he had frequently known cure individuals of the same complaint as her's. She consented to try them (every other remedy previously tried having failed), and very soon experienced great relief from their use by the rapid amendment of her complaint; indeed her friends and those who had seen her in her previous state considered it a miraculous recovery. After taking CHEDDON'S Pills a few days, the pains became less and less, until they entirely left her; the abscess and great swelling in the knee completely healed, and nothing; but the scars from the operations of the knife were visible; by continuing them for a short time her health entirely recovered, and she has not had the least appearance of a return of her distressing complaint.

"SIR. "Atherstone, Sept. 3, 1833.

"Having been suffering alternately from Gout and Rheumatism for many years, having five or six attacks in the year, I have been under the care of a whole host of the faculty, both in town and country, without deriving benefit. I was induced to try your celebrated Pills, ten months ago, and have had no return of my complaints since that period, which I attribute to occasionally taking your valuable Pills.

"I am, Sir, with great respect,
"To Mr. CHEDDON. "EDWARD PUGH."

"To C. CHEDDON, Esq.

"SIR, "From a child I have been most dreadfully disfigured with eruptions and pimples on my face and forehead, so much so, that I have frequently been ashamed to go out of the house, and had tried almost every medicine and lotion I had ever heard of without benefit. A friend (who had also been cured by your Pills) advised me to try them, and after taking them a short time, I was perfectly cured.

"Yours, &c.,

"LOUISA BERESFORD."

"St. Albans, Sept. 28, 1833."

"Sloane-street, Sept. 1, 1833.

"Miss SNEY has lately been cured of a severe Scrofulous Affection of both her legs, by Mr. CHEDDON'S HERBAL PILLS, that had baffled every remedy that had been previously applied to."

AGNESS BARTNELL, of Taunton, wife to Sir THOMAS LITBRIDGE'S Joiner, had been suffering for a long time under a most violent Scrofulous complaint which attacked her left hand and arm; her fingers were raw with running sores, after having taken various medicines without deriving any benefit, was induced to try C. S. CHEDDON'S PILLS, and was entirely cured.

A Nobleman, who had been confined to the house for several years with Rheumatism and Gout, after taking CHEDDON'S HERBAL TONIC PILLS regularly for Two Months, could walk half a mile, and by continuing them for a short time was entirely cured, and has not had any relapse of the complaint.

"To Mr. CHEDDON.

"SIR, "Leeds, August 30, 1833.

"I had been lying upon a sofa constantly for two years and a half, had been attended by many of the first Surgeons for a Spinal Complaint, and never expected to be relieved of my distressing complaint, until a friend, who heard of some wonderful cures performed by your Pills, persuaded me to try them, which I did, and it gives me great pleasure to inform you, that after I had taken them six weeks, I could walk about the room, and by continuing them some time longer was entirely cured. The Medical Gentleman who attended me considered my cure quite miraculous, and immediately procured a quantity of your Pills for other patients. "I am, Sir, with many thanks,

"Yours, &c.,

"ANN BRITTON."

"To Mr. CHEDDON.

"SIR, "Manchester, Sept. 7, 1833.

"I have had Ulcers in my legs for many years, arising, the Doctors said, from impurities in my blood which they could not remove; it is unnecessary for me to say how troublesome and painful these constant sores must be; I had been attended by many of the most eminent Surgeons, but no one cured me; hearing of your celebrated Pills, I took them for a short time with considerable relief, and by continuing them a few weeks I was perfectly cured, indeed, I might say that your Pills did more for me in one month than all the Surgeons who attended me ever did.

"Allow me to subscribe myself, with many thanks,

"Your obedient servant,

"AMELIA BROOK."

"Sir, "Liverpool, Sept. 19, 1833.

"For a very long period I had been suffering from an eruption in my face, which ultimately terminated in sores, and baffled the skill of every Medical Gentleman who attended me; hearing of your Pills, I made trial of them, and am very happy that I did, for, with the blessing of God, they soon restored me to perfect health, which I had not enjoyed for years.

"I am yours respectfully,

"To Mr. CHEDDON, JEMIMA YATES."

"Mr. JOHN EVANS begs to inform Mr. CHEDDON that he has lately been cured by taking a few boxes of CHEDDON'S HERBAL TONIC PILLS (after every other medicine had failed) of an eruption in different parts of his body, which he had been troubled with for many years.

"Lutterworth, Leicester, August 20, 1833."

A Young Lady, in St. James's Street, who had been confined to the sofa four years with a Spinal Complaint (which is Scrofulous), had never been down-stairs except when carried; after taking four large boxes of CHEDDON'S FAMED HERBAL TONIC PILLS, could walk down stairs without assistance, and by continuing their use for two months could walk as well as any one need wish, and is now in perfect health.

"Sir, "Newmarket, August 30, 1833.

"For many years I have been labouring under a Scorbatic Rash about different parts of my body, and have taken all kinds of medicine, and been to the sea frequently, but was always worse afterwards, my complaint having increased much the last two years; seeing your Pills advertised some time ago, I procured a box, and after I had taken them, procured three more, which entirely cured me.

"Allow me to subscribe myself,

"Yours, obliged,

"ANN BURTON."

From Dr. Bell.

"Dear Sir, "July 30, 1833.

"As Scrofula and Scorbatic Affections appear to be daily increasing (for, in my opinion, there is scarcely a family whose constitution is not tainted with it), I think our profession and the public are deeply indebted to you for so valuable a discovery. From the cases in which I have given your Pills, I am enabled to say they have cured many individuals whose death previously might have been hourly expected, and I feel no hesitation in saying, that if your Pills were occasionally taken, they would prevent any malignant disease from taking place, and I think they are particularly applicable to delicate individuals.

"I am, dear Sir, yours very faithfully,

"SAMUEL BELL, M.D."

"To C. S. CHEDDON, Esq."

From Dr. Browne.

"Dear Sir, "August 15, 1833.

"From the numerous cases of Scrofula and Scorbatic Affections which have come under my care, I have been endeavouring, for a long period, to find out some medicine that would cure these dreadful complaints; in fact, I have tried almost every medicine I ever heard of, without finding one successful, until I was induced to try your Pills. After receiving your letter, I determined upon giving them a fair trial—therefore, gave them regularly to fifteen patients labouring under the worst forms of Scrofula and Scorbatic Affections, and in six weeks, to my astonishment, they were all entirely cured. I have continued prescribing these truly valuable Pills ever since, with the greatest success.

"I am, dear Sir, yours, very truly,

"R. BROWNE, M.D."

"To C. S. CHEDDON, Esq."

From the late Dr. Darwall, of Birmingham.

"Dear Sir, "Birmingham, April 10, 1833.

"I have for several months been prescribing your Pills, in all cases of Scrofula and Scorbatic Affections, with the greatest possible success. As these complaints are greatly upon the increase, there being scarcely a family free from them, I consider your medicine the most valuable ever discovered. I have also prescribed them in Gout and Rheumatism, as well as other complaints, in which I found them equally successful.

"Believe me, dear Sir, yours very sincerely,

"JOHN DARWALL, M.D."

"To C. S. CHEDDON, Esq."

Extract of a Letter from Dr. THOS. DRAPE, New Ross Island.

"I should have mentioned that one young lad, who has been a martyr to Scrofula, has been wholly cured by CHEDDON'S HERBAL TONIC PILLS."

"To C. S. CHEDDON, Esq."

"Honoured Sir, "Great Dalby, Feb. 11, 1836.

"I return you my most sincere thanks for the wonderful cure your Medicine has performed on me. I had been from my childhood much subjected to Scorbatic Eruptions, which rendered me miserable; the medical man who attended me, after having tried many different medicines, pronounced me incurable; having seen many highly-respectable signatures attached to the advertisement of your Herbal Tonic Pills, I resolved to try them. After taking them a short time, I was greatly relieved, and by persevering in their use for a short time, I am happy to say, I am entirely cured.

"I am, Sir,

"Your obliged and humble servant,

"JAMES JENKINSON,

"Farmer and Grazier."

"To Mr. CHEDDON."

"Sir, "Coventry, Sept. 1, 1833.

"I hope you will not consider me intruding when I inform you of the wonderful cure your valuable Pills have performed upon me. I caught a severe cold some years ago, which settled in my left arm, and it became so contracted that I could not open my hand; the Surgeon who attended me said it was a Scrofulous Affection, and, as it was extremely painful, advised me to have it taken off, which was the opinion of every one who saw it. I was very unwilling to submit to the operation, and was recommended to try your FAMED HERBAL PILLS, which I took regularly for a short time, when I was entirely restored to perfect health.

"Allow me to subscribe myself, with esteem,

"Yours, faithfully,

"MARY FORBES."

MARIA GEORGE, of East Street, Manchester Square, London, was afflicted with a severe Scrofulous Complaint in all her limbs, her fingers were so contracted that she was unable to open her hands; after taking CHEDDON'S FAMED HERBAL TONIC PILLS a short time, she was entirely cured, recovered the complete use of her hands, and has remained perfectly well ever since.

"To Mr. CHEDDON."

"Sir, "Buckingham, August 20, 1833.

"In the year 1829 I was taken ill with a very large swelling on the right side of my neck, and was attended by many Medical Gentlemen both in the country and in London, but did not receive the least benefit, and suffered the most acute pains, and my frame became much emaciated; hearing of your celebrated Pills, I was induced to take them, and, after continuing them about two months, was restored to perfect health.

"I am, Sir, yours, respectfully,

"THOMAS SNOWDEN."

A Gentleman in Regent Street, who had been regularly attacked with Gout four and five times a year for the last eleven years, has now been taking CHEDDON'S PILLS at intervals for two years, during which period he has not had the least symptoms of Gout, and now walks and rides in perfect health, which he had not previously been able to do for years.

A Gentleman in the neighbourhood of Portman Square, who had been confined to his house for two years from having fractured his leg, was unable to get from his bed to the sofa without assistance until he had taken a few boxes of CHEDDON'S FAMED HERBAL TONIC PILLS; after taking them one month he walked down-stairs; after taking them two months he walked round Portman Square; and by continuing them a short time longer was entirely cured, and is now in perfect health.

"To Mr. CHEDDON,"
"Sir," Liverpool, Sept. 20, 1833.

"Allow me to inform you of the wonderful cure your Pills have performed upon me, after every other remedy had failed. Some years ago I received a severe blow on my right breast which was very painful, and leeches and other applications were applied without any avail, my breast broke, and every thing that was done to it seemed to make it worse; in this way I went on for years with a sore, when, hearing of your Pills, I made trial of them, and was very soon perfectly cured.

"Yours, &c.

"SOPHIA TISDALE."

"To Mr. C. S. CHEDDON,"
"Sir," Leeds, Sept. 10, 1833.

"I had been labouring under a swelling in my right knee for a long time, which was three times as large as it ought to be, had had numerous blisters, issues, and everything the Surgeons recommended, until at length they said it was incurable; I was thus left suffering most acute pain, from which my whole body became emaciated. I commenced taking your Pills on the 10th of April, 1833, and on the 8th of July my knees were both of the same size, perfectly healthy, and I am now walking about quite well.

"Your obedient servant,

"JANE HICKS."

"Mr. CHEDDON," St. James's Square, Bath.
"Sir," Sept. 5, 1833.

"Three years and a half ago, as I was getting into my carriage, the horses moved, and I was thrown down and both my legs were very much injured; a Surgeon attended me a long time, when he advised me to have another from London, which I had, and after several operations had been performed on my legs, I was left in a very deplorable state, being totally unable to move about. In May, 1833, I began to take your Pills (which I had heard a great deal about), and am thankful to be able to inform you, that in a short time I was restored to perfect health.

"I am, with grateful acknowledgments,

"Yours, &c.,

"MARY HARRISON."

From Surgeon Browne.

"Sir," September 1, 1833.

"From the numerous instances of the efficacy of your Pills related to me, I have been induced to try them in several severe Cases of Scrofula and Scorbatic Affections, and in obstinate Cutaneous Diseases, in Consumption, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, and in Gout and Rheumatism, and am able to bear testimony of their great utility; indeed it was a Medicine much wanted, and, in my opinion, stands unrivalled.

"Your obedient servant,

"ROBERT BROWNE, M.R.C.S."

"To C. S. CHEDDON, Esq."

From an Eminent Surgeon in London

"Sir," July 25, 1833.

"I have administered your HERBAL TONIC PILLS in the various forms of Scrofula and Senry that have come under my care for some time past, and their invariable success enables me to say that they are unequalled in the whole Materia Medica for the cure of Scrofula and Scorbatic complaints. I have also tried them in several cases of Gout and Rheumatism, and found their success equally satisfactory; and, I assure you, you may recommend them with confidence to the world as a most safe, efficient, and, I may add, the only cure for the above distressing complaints.

"I am, Sir,

"Yours, &c.

"To C. S. CHEDDON, Esq."

From Dr. Thompson.

"Sir," Sept. 4, 1833.

"As you have asked me to try and give my opinion of your Pills, I will do so, and at the same time return you my most cordial thanks for having discovered so truly valuable a medicine. As you were kind enough to supply me with large quantities of them, I have been able to prescribe them very extensively in cases of Scrofula and Scorbatic Affections, in Gout, Rheumatism, and obstinate Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder; and in every instance they performed a cure in an incredibly short period, after every remedy previously tried had failed.

"I beg to remain your obedient servant,

"JOHN THOMPSON, M.D."

"To Mr. CHEDDON."

"Mr. C. S. CHEDDON,"

"Sir," Beverly, August 8, 1835.

"I am bound in gratitude to express to you my heartfelt thanks for the wonderful cure which your excellent Pills have effected on me; I was dreadfully afflicted for the last ten months with the Scrofula, and after having in vain consulted three Surgeons in this neighbourhood, and all their remedies having proved ineffectual, I was induced from the recommendations contained in the York Paper of the efficacy of your Pills to try them, and after having taken three 2s. 9d. Boxes, was completely cured in the short space of five weeks.

"Hoping that you will make this known for the benefit of my fellow-sufferers,

"I remain, Sir,

"Your very obedient servant,

"W. F. DANBY."

A Young Lady, in the neighbourhood of Grosvenor Square, was dreadfully afflicted with Scrofulous Sores upon her feet and back; in this state she was confined to her bed upwards of two years and a half, during which time she was attended by several Medical Gentlemen without deriving any relief, when she was induced to try C. S. CHEDDON'S FAMED HERBAL TONIC PILLS; and after taking four or five of the large-sized boxes, was so restored to health, that she could walk as well as before her illness, and has not had the slightest return of the complaint, which is now about a year and a half.

From Dr. Palmer.

"To Mr. CHEDDON," Surrey, Feb. 27, 1831.

"Sir,"

"Among the numerous Medicines now before the Public, I know of none so efficacious as your Pills in restoring individuals to health who are suffering under Scrofulous and Cutaneous Affections, or Glandular Swellings generally, particularly of the breasts and neck, as also Gout or Rheumatism, or where the system is predisposed to disease. This is the result of my experience with them; having been supplied largely, I have been enabled to give them extensively, and with the greatest success.

"I am, Sir, yours &c.,

"JOHN PALMER, M.D."

"To Mr. CHEDDON.

"SIR, Coventry, Sept. 13, 1833.
 "I feel it a duty I owe to you and the public to inform you of the wonderful efficacy I have received from your celebrated HERNIAL PILLS. I had a Tumour the size of a small orange in my left breast, which was extremely painful, and the Medical Gentleman who attended me said it must be removed with a knife; this I was unwilling to have done, and he proposed another Surgeon should see me; I therefore sent to Birmingham for one of the best Surgeons, who said nothing but removing the breast would save my life; I was still unwilling to part with it, and went up to London to be under the care of a celebrated Surgeon, who also proposed removing it for me; I was still unwilling to submit to an operation, and my nurse advised me to try your valuable Pills, which I took regularly for two months; at the end of that time the Tumour had entirely disappeared, and the Surgeon who first saw me could not make out which breast it had been in.

"I beg to remain, Sir,

"Your obedient servant,

"SARAH DAWSON."

"Mr. CHEDDON,

"SIR, Tamworth, August, 12, 1833.
 "I had been labouring under a Scrofulous Affection of my leg for several years, had suffered the most acute pain night and day, and frequently had it laid open by a Surgeon; I had been to the sea side several times, without deriving any benefit. A friend, who had been cured of another complaint by your celebrated Pills, advised me to try them, which I did, and after having taken them a short time, I was entirely cured, and have remained perfectly well ever since.

"Your obedient servant,

"JOHN NICHOLLS."

"Manchester, Sept. 20, 1833.

"MISS LETITIA SMALLWOOD is happy to inform Mr. Cheddon that she has been entirely cured of a bad breast, which she had been suffering from for a long period, by taking a few boxes of his celebrated Pills."

"To Mr. C. S. CHEDDON,

"SIR, Lichfield, Sept. 4, 1833.
 "Some years ago, when travelling, I was thrown out of my gig and broke my leg, which the Surgeon called a compound fracture; he attended me for ten months, when I could scarcely move; I had then a large wound on my shin, which continued ever since. I had applied to numbers of the faculty without benefit: in May, 1833, I heard of your celebrated Pills, which I was determined to try, and am very thankful I did, for in nine weeks I was perfectly cured, and remained so ever since.

"I beg to remain,

"Your obedient servant,

"W. SMITH."

ANN ALIEN, Church Lane, Taunton, was afflicted for a length of time with upwards of Twelve Scrofula Ulcers, which so undermined her constitution, that her parents placed her in the Taunton Hospital, to be under the care of the most eminent and skilful doctors who attended; as she continued to get worse under their treatment, her parents took her home again, expecting death would soon terminate her sufferings; she lingered on in a wretched state, suffering the most acute and incessant pain; in this state she commenced taking CHEDDON'S FEMER HERNIAL TONIC PILLS; after taking them two months, all her Ulcers healed, she recovered her appetite, gained strength, had refreshing rest, and lost all pain, and very shortly was quite recovered, and has continued perfectly well ever since.

"To Mr. CHEDDON."

"SIR,

"Leeds, July 19, 1833.

"For many years I had had open Ulcers upon my left leg, extending from the foot nearly to the knee. I had taken great quantities of medicine, and used almost every ointment and plaster, none of which did me the least good; hearing of your Pills, I procured some, and am happy to say, after I had taken them a few days my leg was much improved, and by continuing them a little time I was cured, and my leg is now perfectly sound.

"I remain, your obedient servant,

"LOUISA HOPPE."

"To Mr. CHEDDON.

"SIR,

"Newmarket, Sept. 20, 1833.

"It gives me much pleasure to bear testimony to the efficacy of your Pills, they having lately cured me of a severe Disease in the Kidneys, of very long standing, after every other remedy had failed.

"Your obedient servant,

"AMELIA FENTON."

"To Mr. CHEDDON,

"Sept. 1, 1833.

"SAMUEL RICE, of Newport, Salep, had been afflicted for a very long period with enlargement of the Glands in the Neck and Groin, and never derived the least benefit from any medicine he ever took except CHEDDON'S FEMER HERNIAL TONIC PILLS, which entirely cured him in a short time.

"SIR,

"Alpha Road, Regent's Park.

"Your Medicine has lately relieved me very much from Gout, attacks of which came on frequently, and I have received more benefit from taking a few boxes of your Pills than from anything I have formerly tried.

"Yours &c,

"Jan. 31, 1834"

"W. SAFTE."

GRAHAM'S

ANTI-CONSUMPTIVE LINIMENT!

The advantages of counter-irritant and other applications in PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, &c., have long been admitted on the Continent, and are now acknowledged by the most eminent medical men in England, but in consequence of the inconvenience and danger produced by their sudden and unequal action, giving rise to extensive inflammation, they could not be used for a sufficient period to afford permanent benefit—for, just as the patients experience some relief, the parts become too tender to continue the application, and thus all their expectations blighted, and they return to their former state. The Anti-Consumptive Liniment has none of these objections—it excites the skin, without causing the least tenderness or other inconvenience; relieves specially and permanently all diseases of the Lungs, more especially that sadly fatal one CONSUMPTION, which it not only removes, but by timely application will prevent in those persons who are predisposed thereto. The chest, spine, &c. being rubbed with it, its astonishing powers are evinced by the relief of the most distressing symptoms, such as the difficulty of breathing, cough, pain, &c., also by Healing the Soreness and Restoring Strength to the Lungs and whole System; it requires no confinement or the least restraint, is perfectly safe, and may be used by the most delicate of either sex—indeed, for the more delicate patients, this remedy is peculiarly adapted, quickly relieving that irritable Affection of the Stomach, and the various Affections of the Liver, Stomach, and Lungs, to which they are more especially subject.

SIR SAMUEL HANNAY'S PREVENTIVE SPECIFIC.

UPWARDS of seventy years' experience in every part of the world having established the infallible properties of HANNAY'S SPECIFIC WASH, its universal adoption throughout all the Camps and Garrisons during the Continental war, and its undiminished celebrity to the present period, renders it unnecessary to make any observation on its beneficial properties. It is sold in bottles at 11s. and 9s. each. The same allowance to Merchants and Captains for Exportation as heretofore. Gentlemen can obtain a detailed prospectus on application to the proprietors.

ASHLEY COOPER'S

BOTANICAL PURIFYING PILLS,

Established by thirty years' experience, are prescribed by most of the eminent Physicians and Surgeons in London, and are always administered at several public Hospitals, as the only certain remedy for those complaints for which Mercury, Copaiba, and Cubebs are so frequently, injudiciously, and fatally administered, curing in a few days, by one small pill for a dose, with ease, secrecy, and safety. Their operation is imperceptible; they do not require the slightest confinement, or any alteration of diet beverage, or exercise. They do not disagree with the stomach, or cause any offensive smell to the breath, as is the case with all other medicines in use for these complaints, and after a cure effected by the use of these Pills, the party will not experience any return of the complaint, as generally occurs after taking Cubebs, Balsam of Copaiba, and other drugs of the like nature, which only possessing a local action, merely suppress the complaint for a time without eradicating it from the constitution, and the patients, on undergoing a little more fatigue than ordinary, find all the symptoms return, and that they are suffering under the complaint as much as at first, and are at last constrained to have recourse to these Pills, as the only certain cure. They are likewise a most efficient remedy for Pimples, Faces, Scurf, Scrofulic Affections, and all Eruptions of the Skin. Captains of vessels should make a point of always taking them to sea, their unrivalled efficacy in curing Scurvy being known throughout the world.

The following letter, selected from numerous other professional recommendations forwarded to the proprietor when he first offered these Pills to the Public, may be considered interesting.

From that eminent Surgeon, the late Joshua Brookes, Esq., F.R.S., Professor of Anatomy, &c. &c.

"Theatre of Anatomy, Blenheim-st.

"DEAR COOPER,

"I HAVE tried your Pills in numerous instances, and my candid opinion is, that they are a most improved system of treatment for those peculiar complaints for which you recommend them, curing with rapidity, and with a certainty that I had never before witnessed; but what I consider their most invaluable property is, that they entirely eradicate the complaint, and never leave those distressing secondary symptoms (that harass the patient for life) which usually arise after the use of those uncertain remedies, Mercury and Copaiba. I think you can not fail to have a very large sale for them.

"Believe me,

"Yours very truly,

"JOSHUA BROOKES."

Dr. Borrogran presents his compliments to Messrs. Hannay and Co., and writes to say, that having for some years prescribed Ashley Cooper's Pills to his patients with the most successful results, he feels called upon to add his testimony to their great efficacy in curing sexual diseases, and that they deserve well of the public, and the profession. The Purifying Drops are also a most valuable Antiscrofulic medicine. Dr. B. has found them to be a decided specific for those eruptions of the skin, which frequently appear at the rise and fall of the year.

MULREADDY'S COUGH ELIXIR.

One dose is sufficient to convince the most scrupulous of the invaluable and unfailing efficacy of MULREADDY'S COUGH ELIXIR, for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Shortness of Breath, Asthma, Difficulty of Breathing, Huskiness, and unpleasant Tickling in the Throat, Night Cough, with pain on the Chest, &c.

The paramount superiority of this Elixir over every other medicine in use, for the cure of the above complaints, only requires to be known to prove the passport to its being ere long universally made use of for the cure of every description of Pulmonary Affection.

To those who are unacquainted with the invaluable properties of MULREADDY'S COUGH ELIXIR, the following letters will exhibit its efficacy. It is sold in Bottles at 1s. 1d., 2s. 3d., and 4s. 6d.

MY DEAR SIR, Liverpool, Dec. 1834.

You most assuredly deserve the thanks of society for presenting it with such an invaluable cure for Coughs; for years past, during the winter months, and always on foggy days, have I heretofore been compelled to confine myself a close and solitary prisoner in my library, to prevent the possibility of being tempted to join in conversation, the excitement of which always produced such violent paroxysms of Coughing, that I have been in constant dread of sudden dissolution by the bursting of a blood-vessel, at the commencement of the present season, by your kind liberality, I commenced taking the medicine you sent, and have taken twelve bottles; after I had taken three I could breathe as vigorously as in the early part of life, and I now believe that I was then perfectly cured (a cure not to have been expected at my advanced age, 80 years), but I persevered in taking it until I had consumed the whole twelve bottles. Your situation in life I know places you beyond the necessity of preparing an article of the kind for sale, but it must and shall be done, and if you neglect to do it, my sincere wish is, that you may be absolutely lugged out of your retirement and compelled to provide it in quantities equal to the boundless waters, and you may rely upon it that I, a locomotive proof of its wonderful power, will spare neither time nor trouble to promulgate its efficacy, until you will find your cottage attacked by myriads of my former fellow sufferers, for a share of your bounty, and I myself now apply for the first, trusting that your goodness will not suffer you to refuse me a pretty considerable quantity, and I promise to distribute it most usefully; whenever you have made up for sale send me one thousand bottles.

Ever your sincere well-wisher,
T. MULREADDY, Esq. W. HUGHES.

ESTEEMED FRIEND, Chester, 12th mo. 1831.

Thou hast my sincere thanks for thy Samaritan present, thy Medicine has had the promised effect, and completely cured my trying Cough, if thou wilt let me have a quantity in a large bottle, I will in return enter thy name to any Charitable Institution thou wilt fix on.

Thine,
T. MULREADDY, Esq. JACOB ROBERTS

SIR, Golden Lion Hotel, Liverpool.

To my astonishment the other day I had a visit from my old and esteemed friend, Mr Hughes, who I had not seen for many years on a rainy day, and still more so was I, when finding that I had a severe Cough, he drew forth from his pocket a phial, a portion of the contents of which he insisted on my swallowing instantly, and left me the remainder, which I also took, and in the course of twenty-four hours, found myself quite free from even any tendency towards Coughing; he now tells me that you are his oracle of Health, I therefore beg leave to present my report at head quarters, with many thanks, and trust that I may be able to prevail on you to let me have half or a whole pint of the medicine to stow in my sea chest, as I sail again for America, in about ten days, and if I can in return afford you any service on the other side of the Atlantic, I am at your command, T. W. BUCIANAN, Master of the Brig, Nancy of Orleans.

THOS. MULREADDY, Esq.

Mr. MULREADDY begs to observe that to publish copies of the whole of the letters he has received of the above tenor, would require several volumes; the selection here presented he considers quite sufficient, but begs to say that upon trial of his COUGH ELIXIR, it will give itself the best recommendation.

Mr. MULREADDY desires to return his thanks to the numerous medical gentlemen who having tried his Elixir, recommended it to their patients as the best remedy for the lingering and troublesome Cough that was so prevalent during the winter of 1838, with all those who had suffered from Influenza; but more especially to those gentlemen who, with great liberality, have forwarded him certificates with permission to publish them, but which, in deference to the general wish of the profession, he refrains from doing.

SIR, Post-office, Bangor, Feb. 20, 1839.

Your very excellent Cough Elixir has lately found its way into this remote part of the country; and I must say, that during my experience as a retailer of Patent Medicines, I have never known a Medicine to effect such extraordinary cures, and request you will send me a supply direct.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

ROBERT PRITCHARD, Chemist.
T. MULREADDY, Esq.

KIND SIR, Birkenhead, Jan. 1835.

The bottle of Medicine you left for me the other day has greatly relieved the wheezing I have been so long subject to; and I do not now find the cold produce the sensation it used previous to taking your Medicine; it used formerly to nip me on going out, and I seemed as though I had a string run through my body, and the breast and back bones were drawn together; if you will be so good as to give me another bottle, I am sure it will work a perfect cure.

I am, Sir, your most obedient servant,
T. MULREADDY, Esq. NICHOLAS BROWN.

DEAR SIR, Manchester, Jan. 2, 1835.

The Cough Medicine you sent me is certainly a most surprising remedy; six days ago I was unable to breathe unless with great difficulty, attended with much coughing, which always kept my soft palate relaxed, and in a state of irritation, and the more I coughed the worse it was, and it, in its own turn, produced a constant excitement of coughing. I am now about, to the wonder of my friends and neighbours, entirely free from Cough; one small phial of your inestimable medicine, ten years back, would have saved me not less than £3000, in medical fees; but it would have done more, it would have saved my having had to swallow from time to time upwards of a hog'shead of their nauseous, and as they all proved, useless drugs. The agreeable flavour of the medicine is a great recommendation; I think you ought to put it up and sell it to the public, and if any one should doubt its efficacy, refer them to me; I shall have the pleasure of being with you in a few days, when I shall press on your consideration the propriety of making it up for sale, it would prove an enormous fortune for your grand-children. If you make up your mind to do so, as I am what the world style an idle man, you may enlist me in your service in any way that you think would be useful. But I should advise you to place the management in the hands of one of the great medicine houses in London;—Hannay's, in Oxford Street, are being advertised in all the papers here as wholesale agents for Ramsbottom's Corn Solvent (which, by the bye, my girls all say is really a cure) and many other medicines. I should say this would be a very good house, Oxford Street being one of the most public situations in London. All join me in kind remembrance to yourself and Mrs. M.

Believe me,

Yours, very truly,

T. MULREADDY, Esq. ROBERT GRANT.

DR. DE. SANCTIS'S Rheumatic and Gout Pills,

PREPARED BY BARTHOLOMEW DE SANCTIS, M.D.

LICENTIATE of the ROYAL COLLEGE of PHYSICIANS, LONDON.

The unfailling efficacy of Dr De Sanctis's Pills for the cure of Gout and Rheumatism, has been tried in an extensive Practice, and their uniform success fully warrants Dr De Sanctis in offering them for general use, as a specific, and the only one, for the cure of Gout, Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout, Lumbago, &c.

Suffice it to say that these Pills do not contain Colchicum or any other deleterious Drug; they are perfectly innocent, and may be administered to the most delicate individuals. The Dose is one Pill every eight hours until cured, the first dose will begin to mitigate the most violent attack within four hours of its administration; and a Patient writhing under the most inlignant attack of Gout or Rheumatism, may rely on its removal within forty-eight hours.

Dr De Sanctis lays before the Public the following letters from some of his Patients, which speak a higher enlogium of the efficacy of the Medicine than any representation he could make himself.

Dear Sir,

Cheltenham.

When your name was mentioned to me by a friend, I certainly was sceptical of your being able to afford me any more relief than such as I had before obtained; but your most invaluable Pills have certainly cured me, and had I not obtained them, I am certainly should have been before this a corpse. I have been for five and forty years a martyr to the horrid complaint of Gout, which in sufferings must be equal to the torments of hell, and during this long period I have tried every Remedy that money could procure or the most eminent Medical talent could suggest. I have taken Colchicum in every form, and in very large doses, both with and without Opium, but unfortunately found the more medicine I took the more frequently the attacks returned, increasing in violence every time, and each attack becoming of longer duration (frequently of late from six weeks to two months), the most powerful remedies having at last failed to exert any influence on the complaint. The delay that occurred in consequence of my having to write to you ere I could obtain the Pills, allowed the complaint to increase more than it had ever done before, for both my legs, which of late years have been attacked simultaneously, and swelled to the size of my head, on the last occasion swelled up my thighs, and but for the timely arrival of your Pills no doubt would have got into my Stomach, and then, as our immortal poet says: "In a coffin I'd pop'd off," instead of being here to return you my most grateful, sincere, and heartfelt thanks; the effect produced by your most inestimable Pills was wonderful; in a short time after taking the first dose I fancied myself easier, but made up my mind to refer it only to a false confidence: but my astonishment was excessive when at the end of six hours I found the swelling begin to diminish, and in a few days I found myself completely cured, and without any of those symptoms of lassitude and debility being left behind, which have always lasted for many days after every previous attack for the last ten years.

I am, Dear Sir,

Your most sincere Well wisher,

And Resuscitated Patient,

WM. LAMBERT.

To Dr. De Sanctis.

Sir,

Sir,

Dublin.

I think that, without a single exception, I have suffered more from Gout than any other individual ever endured, the pain has been so intense (without the slightest diminution) for three and four weeks at a time, that I have frequently been obliged to have a nurse by me day and night, striking my foot with a stick, to moderate the pain, inflicting another, until I have sometimes had my foot so black that it has not recovered its colour for months; at the commencement of the last attack I procured some of your Pills, and to my very great satisfaction they immediately relieved me and prevented its further incroad, and have now been free from it for eighteen months.

I am, yours very truly,

FRANCIS HEATH.

To Dr. De Sanctis.

Sir,

Brighton.

The wonderful efficacy of your wonderful-working medicines almost incredible; fifteen years ago I was attacked with acute Rheumatism, from having slept in a damp bed while travelling inlanders, the torture arising from which has been the most agonising description, for although at intervals I have been free from pain (had it been incessant I must have put an end to my existence) have been more or less subject to it ever since, and when the attacks came on, I felt as though I was being torn asunder. In fifteen hours from the first dose of your Pills (but mind I took two of them) I was materially relieved, and at the expiration of a week I had not the slightest trace of my enemy left; as you decline to let me have the description in consequence of your intention of producing it as a Patent Medicine, you are free to publish this communication if you think proper, as the Pills deserve to be generally known.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

W. WEST.

To Dr. De Sanctis.

Your Rheumatic and Gout Pills are certainly a most efficacious Medicine; I have been a severe sufferer from Cold Rheumatism, which the Faculty have told me was always difficult of cure; it certainly has been difficult with me, for, for fifteen years, I have fluctuated from bad to worse and worse to better, I have placed myself in the hands of twenty-five Medical Men who pursued as many different modes of treatment without any permanent effect; a fortunate circumstance introduced some of your Pills to me a few months since, which entirely cured me, and thank God I have not had a relapse since. I therefore think it but justice to you, to offer you my testimony of their efficacy, and I recommend all Gouty and Rheumatic subjects never to be without them.

Yours, &c.

To Dr. De Sanctis.

JACOB JOHNSON.

Liverpool.

Mr. Wentworth presents his compliments to Dr De Sanctis and writes to say that he considers his Pills a harmless but most efficacious remedy, and shall have great pleasure in recommending them to the notice of his friends; the particular complaint Mr. Wentworth took them for was Rheumatic Gout in the right hand, which he is very subject to, but which he finds Dr. De Sanctis's Pills immediately remove.

Miss Wilkins has been entirely cured of a Rheumatic affection in the hip, which Miss W. had long been a sufferer from, by the use of Dr. De Sanctis's Pills, after several other remedies she tried had failed.

Mr. Smith's compliments to Dr. De Sanctis and begs to communicate to him that he found the most speedy relief from the use of his Pills, and was entirely cured in three days.

Dr. DE SANCTIS'S PILLS are Sold in Boxes at 2s, 9d, each,

HANNAY AND DIETRICHSEN, Chemists and Druggists, 63, Oxford Street, are appointed sole Agents in London, for supplying the Trade with

SIR JAMES MURRAY'S FLUID MAGNESIA.

It has long been known that the most serious consequences have frequently resulted from the use of Solid Magnesia, which has been proved by Mr. Brande and many other eminent chemists, to form concretions in the bowels, endangering and in some instances destroying life.

Numerous well-founded objections are also urged against the use of the Carbonates of Soda and Potash. Magondie demonstrated that "they liquify the blood, cause infiltration of the lungs, effusion of water in the chest, and induce most serious disorders."—Lancet, 13th October, 1838, and 5th January, 1839.

Dr. James Johnson says they have "a tendency to reduction of flesh and strength."—(See Medico-Chirurgical Review).

The great advantages of this elegant preparation are, that, possessing all the properties of Magnesia in general use, it is not liable to form those "dangerous concretions in the bowels" alluded to. It corrects acidity, and relieves heartburn effectually, without "injuring the coats of the stomach," or producing any of those lamentable evils resulting from the use of the Carbonate of Soda and Potash: it prevents the food of infants turning sour upon the stomach: it is very useful in all complaints of the bladder: it tends to regulate the action of the bowels, and is peculiarly adapted for females.

SIR JAMES MURRAY'S FLUID MAGNESIA contains in every fluid ounce, when evaporated, eighteen grains of the Carbonate, which may be easily ascertained by simply putting a small quantity into a spoon, and evaporating it over a lamp. The Magnesia left in the spoon cannot be re-dissolved by the addition of any quantity of water.

Extract from the Medico-Chirurgical Review, for April, 1839, edited by Dr. James Johnson Physician-extraordinary to the late King, &c. &c. :—

"PELLUCID SOLUTION OF MAGNESIA.—This very useful and elegant preparation we have been trying for some months, as an Aperient Antacid in Dyspeptic complaints, attended with Acidity and Constipation, and with very great benefit. It has the advantage over common Magnesia in being dissolved, and therefore not liable to accumulate in the bowels. It is decidedly superior to Soda and Potash, on account of its aperient quality, and of its having no tendency to reduction of flesh and strength which the two Carbonates above mentioned certainly tend to, when long continued and taken in considerable quantities. We hope Sir James Murray, the discoverer of the process for preparing this medicine, will take the trouble to make it more generally accessible to the public in this metropolis there being only one or two authorised agents here."

SIR HUMPHREY DAVY testified, that this Solution forms soluble combinations with uric acid salts, cases of Gout and Gravel, thereby counteracting their injurious tendency when other alkalies and even Magnesia itself had failed.

In the seventh Report of the Medical Section of the British Association, it is set forth by SIR JAMES MURRAY, that the majority of cutaneous diseases arise from acid and saline impregnations in the fluid of the body, which are neutralised by the FLUID MAGNESIA; and that Neuralgia, Spasms, Nervous Pains and Irritations, as well as Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, are frequently owing to Crystalline irritants deposited on the nervous membranes, which saline particles this antacid Solution effectually dissolves.

The superiority of the CONDENSED SOLUTION OF MAGNESIA, compared with Potash and Soda, as an alkaline remedy, has been long admitted.

The following official REPORT of its merits is founded upon twenty years' experience, by Dr. COMBES, Inspector of Army Hospitals, communicated to the discoverer, SIR JAMES MURRAY :—

"The Solution of Magnesia is found particularly beneficial as a pleasant sedative and aperient, in cases of Irritation or Acidity of the Stomach, particularly during Pregnancy, Febrile Complaints, Infantile Disorders, or Sea-sickness."

"An ounce or two of the Solution speedily removes heartburn, Acid Eructations, Sourness, Irregular digestion of Females and Children."

"In the Army and Navy, it has been found to compose the Stomach in a few minutes, after a excess or hard drinking."

"The Solution of itself is an agreeable aperient, but its laxative properties can be much augmented by taking with it, or directly after it, a little lemon juice mixed with sugar and water, or even Cream Tartar Tea; in this manner a very agreeable effervescent draught can be safely taken at any time during Fever or Thirst."

"The antiseptic qualities of this Solution, owing to the presence of so much Carbonic Acid, has been found very valuable in Putrid and other Fevers. As a Lotion for the mouth, it sweetens the breath, and the Magnesia cleans the teeth from tartar."

"For preventing the evolution or deposition of Uric Acid, in Gout or Gravel, the efficacy of the dissolved Magnesia was long since authenticated by Drs. Mc'Donnell and Richardson."

"The Solution has almost invariably succeeded in removing the Fits, Spasms, Headaches, and Gas Coughs, to which delicate persons are subject from Acids and Crudities of the Stomach and Bowels."

In addition to the above Report, Professor DUNCAN, of Edinburgh, in his extensive practice, established its efficacy for removing acidities, allaying irritation of the stomach or urinary organs, and dissolving lithic concretions and uric salts, and consequently as the best remedy for Gravel and Gout. He also recommends the SOLUTION OF MAGNESIA as the best fluid for preparing cold Infusions.

says in his Lectures.—

"The alkaline quality of this Liquid covers the taste, and extracts the medicinal properties of Bitters, Aromatics, Vegetable Tonics, Seeds and Roots, such as Valerian, Sarsaparilla, &c., &c. The fluids do not spoil or become sour by keeping."

"This solution likewise forms a valuable vehicle for Rhubarb and Camphor Mixtures; and Syrup, Draughts, Tinctures, or Cordials, &c., &c."

TESTIMONIALS:—

"Sir,—I am very much obliged by your prompt attention, in sending me the bottle of Anti-Doloric Oil, I have suffered so much for the last sixteen years, and have spent upwards of six hundred pounds without finding a remedy, that I can assure you I am truly grateful for the relief I have received from your medicine, and do sincerely recommend it to all persons alike afflicted.

"For years, until I applied your Oil, I could scarcely rest at night, but now I sleep sound as possible, and am altogether very much improved in my health. You may give whatever publicity you please to my case.

"I am yours, truly obliged,
"THOMAS ROLFE."

"10, Great St. Helens."

"Sir,—After eleven years' affliction, my hands and joints being all drawn up and nearly strengthless, night after night in agony and pain from what they call the hot rheumatism, having tried almost everything, but finding nothing to do me good, you need not wonder at my being so thankful, which I really am for your Oil, which has made so wonderful a cure of me. My hands and joints are not only straight and comfortable, but very strong, and I have had no pain whatever since I used your Oil. My landlady, Mrs. Walker, a young woman, was afflicted in all her joints, and could get no rest, but from a few times using your Oil, she is perfectly recovered. My husband was much troubled with rheumatism, and a few weeks since his head and neck were set fast, but upon the use of your Oil, he was soon relieved. I have given small portions of your Oil to several ladies, all of whom (receiving so much benefit) regret very much they cannot buy it, therefore, Sir, I hope you will make it for sale. I shall feel great pleasure in making known the virtues of your Oil to any one that may apply to me.

"I am, sincerely yours, much obliged,
"MARY ADAMS."

"25, Broad Street, Golden Square.

"Dear Sir,—I am happy to understand that you have made up your mind to bring out your ANTI-DOLORIC OIL for sale, as it really will be a blessing to the public; for of all the things I ever met with in my life, I never experienced so much comfort as from it; I should think but few have suffered from gout more than myself; my hands and fingers are quite crippled from it, often confined to my bed and room for months; but upon my last attack, having the Oil you gave me, I applied it, and with such astonishing success, that instead of being detained from business months, I was out in a few days. Many hundreds of pounds would have been in my pocket had I known of your Oil some years past, but I am happy in having found so great a comfort at last, and sincerely recommending it to all persons afflicted with the gout or rheumatism.

"I remain, dear Sir, yours truly,
"J. VAN EYNDHOVER."

"26, Lambeth Hill, Upper Thames Street.

"Dear Sir—On the 2nd of March, Mr. Henley, our town collector, received a material injury in his foot and leg, as he descended from a coach, and from that time up to the 13th of July, being a period of four months, he could not leave his house; notwithstanding, having the best of medical attention and advice, but to no avail, when on July the 10th I took him a bottle of your Oil, and to our astonishment, in the course of a few days after, he walked into our counting house, re-commenced business, and has continued to it ever since. As this fact ought really to be known for public benefit, you have our authority to give publicity to it. We also beg to hand you Mr. Henley's letter of acknowledgment.

"We are Sir, yours truly,
"J. & F. HUDSON."

"Kensington Common.

"Gentlemen.—With feelings of gratitude do I return you my sincere thanks for your valuable present of Mr. Cabburn's Oil; it had the wonderful effect in only two days of relieving me from all pain, and restoring me to my wonted strength in a surprising manner. You know the distance I have to traverse, and are witnesses as to what ease I can now perform it. Before I had that sad accident my legs were weak, often swelling at night from my daily exertion, but upon feeling the least fatigue in my legs, I at night just apply the Oil, and in the morning am as fresh for walking as ever. I am, Gentlemen, for yours and Mr. Cabburn's kindness,

"Yours, much obliged,
"J. A. HENLEY."

"Sir,—In May, 1837, I had a very serious attack of apoplexy, which eventually produced paralysis, affecting the whole of my right side, rendering me totally helpless as regarded my hand, leg, and foot, and my speech was affected in a great degree. I procured the best medical advice in London, but obtained little relief. I was an in-patient of "The General Hospital," at Bath; where I went through the usual treatment practised in that highly valuable Institution; but after remaining there fifteen weeks, returned much worse than I went; in fact I was in so helpless a state, I was obliged to be lifted from the coach to be conveyed home. Despairing of ever obtaining the use of my limbs, I resigned myself into the hands of an all-seeing Providence, who, I feel convinced, placed your specific within my reach. I grasped at it as drowning men do at straws, not anticipating any benefit, but thanks be to God, I am another man. I have used your Anti-Doloric Oil five weeks, and the result is, I am enabled to walk a distance of five or six miles without fatigue, which I do daily, and I feel assured within my own mind I shall perfectly recover and be a living miracle of your invaluable Oil. I am, Sir, with the utmost gratitude for your kindness.

"Yours,
"BENJAMIN HAKEN,
"74, Pearson Street, Kingsland Road, Shoreditch."

"Sir,—I have to return you my sincere thanks for the Oil you sent me. I have been many years troubled with rheumatic palsy; my arms and limbs are, at times, quite set fast, which has been a very great hindrance to my business, being a whitesmith, and many years a resident of King's Cross. Returning home about two months back, I was suddenly seized with a dreadful contracting pain throughout my right side, which was drawn altogether; I was conveyed home, put to bed, and the doctor recommended hot water to be applied immediately. When hearing of it, you kindly sent me a bottle of Oil, and I declare solemnly, as they applied it, the pain was so soothed, that I got a good night's rest, and by the blessing of God, in four days I was at my work again and have been so comfortable in my limbs ever since, that if it was the last mousie I had, I would not be without it. I hope you will make it for sale, as then every one that pleases may be able to get it. You must let me have another bottle, and I will pay you whatever you charge, for I have given a little to one and another, so that I am nearly without any myself. I can assure you every one that has used it finds wonderful relief.

"I am yours most respectfully,
"JOHN BASSETT."

"17, Cumberland Row, King's Cross."

"To Mr. CABBURN.

"Sir,—About six weeks since my wife was taken very ill with the Rheumatic Gout. She had the best medical attention possible, but continued getting so bad that every moment we were looking to be her last. She was reduced to a mere shadow, having lost the entire use of her hands, legs, and the whole person, lying in bed helpless, in such constant pain, and so tender, as scarcely able to bear the clothes upon her—when, fortunately, Mr. Henley presented us with a bottle of your Oil, so strongly recommending it, that I determined on trying it, although my dear wife was opposed to it, observing, she was too far gone for anything to do her good. However, it was applied in the first instance very gently with a feather, and upon the second application she was as much in favour of it, having found extraordinary relief. Such was the happy effect, that in three days my wife began to use her hands, before the week was out got up, and can now walk about, attending to her domestic duties with comfort. That, dear Sir, in behalf of my wife, family, and self, I return you my most grateful thanks.

"Remaining yours, very much obliged,
"JAMES MATHEWSON."

"Mr. Thomas Churney, Draper, 13, Albion Place, King's Cross.

"Mr. John Brown, Sadler, 4, Albion Place, King's Cross.

"Mr. John Brewer, Timber Merchant, 7, Batchelor Place, King's Cross."

"Northumberland Arms, Bagnigge Wells Road.

"My dear Sir,—I have to express myself in the strongest terms of gratitude for the benefit I have received from your Oil; I was lying in a dreadful state,—had no rest for three days and nights, and was almost frantic with pain, when a friend of mine providentially introduced the medicine, and in the course of a few minutes after it was applied, the relief from pain was so great that I fell into a sleep, and got a charming night's rest. In the course of a few days, to the astonishment of myself and friends, I am now so recovered as to be able in the morning to proceed to Boulogne, and having a brother residing there quite a martyr to the rheumatic gout, I shall feel obliged in your letting me have a bottle for him, feeling confident it will do him good.

"I am, dear Sir, yours truly,
"WM. GREENWOOD."

"Dear Sir—For the benefit of those who may be afflicted with the gout, I can tell them (from experience) that a remedy has discovered. I was troubled for years with this dreadful malady, but hearing, from several friends of mine, the peculiar good effects this medicine had upon them, I sent my servant for a bottle, and although my leg had swelled until the skin was cracked, and I had been unable to move for weeks, yet upon the very first application, I found immediate relief. Only those who witnessed the fact would believe how rapidly the swelling abated. In a few days I was enabled to pal on my easy shoe, and in a short time was perfectly cured, and am now, thank God, quite well.

"I do not wonder at persons being prejudiced against any advertised article for the gout, as I, from having tried everything without any success, at one time believed nothing would cure it, but, with the Anti-Doloric Oil, I found myself happily mistaken; therefore should this meet the eye of any sufferers, the blame will rest with themselves if they continue in agony.

"I am, dear Sir, yours much obliged,
"EDWARD JONES,
"Lion Brewery, Copple Row, Clerkenwell."

"P.S.—Being afflicted in so frightful a degree that my leg swelled until it had burst, my friends persuaded me (as I persisted in using your Oil) to have advice about it, accordingly I was driven to St. Bartholomew's Hospital, where the gentlemen inspected my leg; I frankly told them what I was using, and they generously owned it was doing well, and as I felt such extraordinary ease, by a means to continue the application, as it certainly agreed with me, but should any relapse take place, to apply immediately to them, but at all events they should like to see me again; accordingly I went again to show them I was perfectly cured."

"Pindar of Wakefield Inn, Gray's Inn Road.

"Dear Sir—After being a martyr to the rheumatic gout these fifteen years, I little thought of finding anything to do me good, having spent pounds to no use. No one can tell the sufferings I have undergone; my hands and limbs contracted with dreadful pain; many a night I have been obliged to rise, have a fire made, and sit for hours to rub away the pain. My great toes were set fast for years, and I never expected to move them again, but I have not only found great relief in my hands, arms, legs, and feet, from your Oil, but I have actually recovered the use of my toes. Indeed it is a valuable Oil, and so great a comfort will it be found to the afflicted, that I hope you will make it for public sale, as a few shillings laid out for it will save many pounds, for however urgent my business, I was a dead letter whenever I was attacked with the rheumatism, until I knew of your Oil.

"I have the pleasure to subscribe myself,
"Yours, truly obliged,
"WILLIAM REEVE."

"Sir,—I do not know how to express myself in terms of gratitude strong enough for your kindness.

"I am one of those unfortunate persons who have seen better days, being at one time a master tailor, with many men in my employ, but from a variety of circumstances, now so reduced as to have my sole dependence on my own personal exertions, as a tailor, having the honor to work for several highly respectable families, but for years I have been troubled with the rheumatic gout, and when you saw me I was in deep distress, having lost the total use of my hands, with no prospect of a subsistence; you gave me a bottle of your Oil, I had it applied as you directed, and in three days (thanks be to God) I recovered the perfect use of my hands, and have continued to work ever since with pleasure. I have also done good to several of my friends with it. Considering you have restored me from pain and distress to comfort and my employ, I beg to tender you my most sincere thanks.

"Remaining yours, ever much obliged,
"JAMES GORMAN,
"Church Hill Old St Pancras."

LADY HUNTINGDON'S FEMALE PILLS.

ARE esteemed the choicest Family Medicine ever submitted for public patronage, and during the seventy-five years that they have been in daily use, are well known to have rescued many thousand young persons from an early grave, and never failed materially to lengthen the life of every one who occasionally took this Medicine.

They will be found particularly efficacious in cases of General Debility of the Constitution, in creating appetite, by strengthening the system, removing obstructions, giving relief to those troubled with fainting fits, nervous giddiness, palus in the head, &c., and are peculiarly beneficial in cases of Cholera and Shortness of Breath, by strengthening the Organs of the Stomach and correcting Impaired Digestion, giving a lively complexion to the most pale and sickly countenance, and restoring to its natural standard that peculiar appearance so intimately connected with the constitutional welfare of the Female Sex.

A learned Physician very justly observes, that the health of females depending on circumstances more complicated and uncertain than that of the other sex, it is the duty of persons entrusted with their care to instruct them in the course they ought to pursue at those periods of life which require the utmost attention to prevent consequences that may render them sickly, infirm, and miserable for the remainder of their existence. These Pills being solely directed to those complaints of which females are susceptible, will be found a most invaluable Family Medicine, and may be taken with the fullest assurance that they do not contain any one ingredient prejudicial to nature, or the slightest particle of any mineral substance whatever.

The late religious and charitable Lady whose name they bear, was in the daily habit of giving these Pills to her friends and the poor, with a success highly pleasing to her benevolent mind, and with no less advantage to the numerous individuals who received them at her hands, all of whom invariably experienced the sought-for relief, and it is well known prolonged her own amiable existence, by the blessing of God, to a very advanced period of life, exclusively by the use of these Pills.

They continue to be made from the original Recipe in the hand-writing of her Ladyship, by whom it was presented to the present Proprietress shortly before her lamented decease, and sold in Boxes at 11s., 4s. 6d., 2s. 9d., & 1s. 1 1/2d. each, by Hannay and Dietrichsen, Chemists & Druggists, 63, Oxford-street, London.

BY

BYSON'S

DIGESTIVE ANTIBILIOUS PILLS.

A Specific for the Prevention and cure of Disorders of the Digestive Organs, (with the train of Calamities attending thereon,) for Bilious and Nervous Diseases.

It is an established fact, that almost all the diseases to which the human frame is subject, owe their origin to some derangements of those parts of the body usually denominated "Digestive Organs." These consist of the Stomach, Liver, and Bowels, and their duty is respectively to receive the food, to prepare it for its especial purpose—a supply of new blood to nourish the system—and when this is effected, to carry off the useless residue. It must therefore be evident to the most ordinary mind, that if any of these operations be impeded, derangement of function must take place; there will either be Sickness of Stomach, accompanied with an inordinate secretion of Bile, Relaxation of the Bowels, or Costiveness; these give rise to Head-aches, Palpitation of the Heart, Cough, and Difficulty of Breathing, General Fever, and a long catalogue of diseases not usually described, but well known under the expressive terms "Billous" and "Nervous." To prevent the occurrence of these maladies is an undoubted desideratum, but to cure them when existing, is a matter of much greater importance. Both, however, may be effected by remedies that will stimulate the organs to a proper performance of their functions—thus: to give tone to the Stomach; to excite the Liver to a healthy secretion of Bile; and to regulate the action of the Bowels. It is allowed by all that "Prevention is better than cure;" to preserve the Digestive Organs, therefore, in a healthy working condition, is a sure way to prevent disease. To effect this, a dose of the Digestive Pills, taken once or twice a week, is all that is necessary; and when disease has already set in, the more frequent use of them will perform a cure.

Dyson's Digestive Pills are adapted to all ages and both sexes. The most delicate females may take them under any circumstances.

The following Testimonials are selected from a numerous List.

SIRS,

London, 29th of December, 1837

I have for a long time suffered great inconvenience from sick head-ache and indigestion. Having heard of the great cures performed by Dyson's Digestive Pills, I was induced to try them, and from the use of which I have found the greatest benefit, and I trust soon to experience a complete cure. If this communication will be of any service to you, you are at liberty to publish it, as I consider them a public benefit, and on those grounds should be publicly known. Families ought never to be without them, so that in case of sickness they might have a remedy at hand.

I am, Sirs, your obedient Servant,

H. NASH

Hercules Buildings,

East of England Bank,

GENTLEMEN,

Downham, Norfolk, 20th of January, 1838.

I feel it my duty to add my testimony to the beneficial results experienced from taking Dyson's Universal Digestive Pills. My family have used them some time, they fully substantiate the truth of your advertisement. I am persuaded it is a very valuable discovery, and deserves to be patronised. You have my permission to make my sentiments public.

I remain, Gentlemen,

Your most Obedient Servant,

CHARLES MUMFORD.

SIR,

I had been for seven years troubled with indigestion and bilious attacks, also with a severe Cough and shortness of breath after walking, when you advised me to try your Digestive Antibilious Pills. After taking two or three boxes, I found myself quite cured, and now enjoy sound health. I wish you to make my case known, for the benefit of others. I will at all times recommend them, and shall think of you with gratitude.

I am, Sir, your humble servant,

JOHN GROVES,

Carman to Mr. Shumons.

TOOTH BRUSHES.

THESE Tooth Brushes are manufactured on an improved method, which enables H. and Co. to undertake that the hairs will not come out (an evil so generally complained of), and if in any instance it should occur, it is occasioned by some neglect of the workmen, and it would be a favour conferred on H. and Co. by their customer returning it and selecting a perfect one instead, for which no charge will be made. H. and Co.'s assortment of Tooth Brushes is of a very extensive description—and they will be happy to make for inspection any other variety that can be suggested.

ALBERT RAU'S CELEBRATED GERMAN OINTMENT

FOR

GOUT AND RHEUMATISM.

OF the various diseases which afflict the human body none are more distressing or difficult to cure than the Rheumatism and Gout; and the medical profession and others have in vain essayed to discover a curative process which shall subdue those painful maladies without making inroads on the constitution. The want of success in these essays is to be attributed principally to the mistaken notions formed as the cause of the diseases, but at last the celebrated Albert Rau, of Germany, adopting the opinion of some of the most eminent professional men of his native country, invented an Ointment which rarely fails to eradicate both Rheumatism and Gout. The opinion alluded to is, that the diseases are produced by coagulated blood, occasioned by various causes, and which, having to pass through the small veins near the bony parts of the human frame, creates partial obstructions; and swelling and pain, varying in intensity, are the melancholy consequences. The internal use of the colchicum and other powerful drugs does sometimes effect cures, but taken in such a form they must get into the system before they can act on the particular seat of disease, and the effects are too frequently of a very serious nature. Rau's Ointment, which has long been in general use throughout Germany, and is now gaining great celebrity in Great Britain, is composed of the most harmless ingredients, and the mode of using it is simple and effectual, as it at once attacks the part affected without interfering with the stomach or intestines. The Ointment is introduced by being rubbed in externally on the seat of pain and goes directly to remove the evil by dissolving the obstruction, and with the assistance of any mild aperient* effecting a cure in a very short time, one or two pots being frequently sufficient to produce the desired effect. Numberless testimonials of the efficacy of the remedy could be given, among which are the following:—

"Writtle, near Chelmsford, 15th June, 1839.

"Sir,—For a number of years past I have suffered from Rheumatism to that degree that I have been frequently confined to my bed, and hardly ever able to attend to my business. I have tried almost everything without any beneficial result. On Sunday morning last, I sent for a pot of your Ointment, and applied it on the same day, and in the afternoon of that day I found such relief that I was utterly astonished, and was able to walk up stairs, which I had not been able to do without pain for many months. I have since continued the application and am able to attend to my work, and in fact I am not only relieved from pain in my limbs but I feel much better in my constitution; and I do with gratitude tell you that I am entirely relieved, and feel anxious in giving the greatest publicity to this fact, that the world generally may be benefitted in the way that I have been, as it is the most astonishing cure that can possibly be communicated, my having used the ointment only two days.

"I am, Sir, yours very gratefully,

"W. STOKER."

"Union Yard, Conduit-street, Chelmsford, 18th June, 1839.

"Sir,—After an affliction of five years with that dreadful disease the Rheumatic Gout, during which period I tried everything, the intended to me without effect, and as I grew older the disease increased till I was incapable of following my occupation, and at last a fortnight since I was totally unable to move my feet from the chair without assistance. In this state I was advised to try your German Ointment, and not being very sanguine that I ever should discover a cure, I was astonished to find that in two days I got better, and have continued to improve daily; and have now the happiness to say that I am able to attend to my business as usual, and I feel so much indebted to you for being instrumental in my recovery, that I am bound by every tie of gratitude to offer my most sincere thanks and best wishes for your future welfare.—I am, Sir, your obedient and very grateful Servant,

"To Mr. ALBERT RAU."

"W. NEWCOMB, Carpenter."

"Chelmsford, June 22nd, 1839.

"Sir,—I am induced to address you upon the subject of your truly valuable German Ointment, the efficacy of which I have so recently experienced. I have now been afflicted with that distressing complaint the Rheumatism for upwards of 18 months, and consequently incapable of work; I have also sought and obtained the advice of several medical men, but unfortunately without relief. Having been recommended to make trial of your Ointment, I was induced to use two pots, which have so far effected a cure as to admit of my resuming my avocation. I feel bound, Sir, to make this acknowledgement of the virtues of your Ointment and to subscribe myself,

"To Mr. ALBERT RAU."

"Your grateful Servant,

"FREDERICK PRENTICE."

"St. Alban's, 22nd April, 1839.

"Sir,—I feel it a duty to myself and to mankind to certify the virtues of Albert Rau's celebrated German Remedy, for the cure of Gout and Rheumatism. My niece, Miss Maria Wilkins, was a fortnight ago dreadfully afflicted with a Rheumatic Fever, so that we were obliged to carry her up and down stairs; yes, she was not able to move a limb till the use of your Ointment has entirely restored her, and she is quite cured now. Incredible is it to myself the benefit which resulted in such a short time. Three days ago I had a fit of the Gout which obliged me to go to bed; I only applied the Ointment once and I declare not to have had the least suffering since. I will be most happy to contribute as much as is in my power to give publicity to the above, that other sufferers may be enabled to be relieved of their complaints.

"I remain, &c

"To Mr. ALBERT RAU."

"C. BENNETT, Landlord of the Red Lion, St. Albans."

"Redburn, 25th January, 1839.

"Sir,—I hasten to express my gratitude for your kind assistance in relieving me of the dreadful pain I was suffering for several years, after trying both medical advice and many medicines for Rheumatism. On the first application of your Ointment I found great relief, and am now quite relieved of the sufferings I had before endured. As I used the pot you gave me, and allowed me to apply it as often as I should meet with persons afflicted with Rheumatism, I pray you be so kind as to send me another pot; there is a poor man here who has lost entirely the use of his limbs, and I hope the use of your Ointment may do him as much good as it did to myself.

"I remain, &c.

"To Mr. ALBERT RAU."

"JOSEPH NELSON WARNER."

* Dyson's Digestive Pills are the best adjunct to use in conjunction with this Ointment.

"Sir,—Some days past I was not able to continue my work, by a most violent Rheumatism in the joints, so much that I could not get up stairs, and only once did I rub my limbs with your Ointment, when I found instant relief, and have since not had the least pain. You may make such use as you think proper of this testimonial.

"Harpenden, January 25th, 1839.

"I remain, &c.

"To Mr. ALBERT RAU."

"THOMAS PLUMER."

"Sir,—For four years I have been a sufferer from Rheumatism and Rheumatic Gout, and was totally unable to perform any work during that period. I have had the advice of several medical men in Portsmouth, but I experienced no relief from them. I was some time in the Hospital at Colchester, from which place I was discharged as incurable. Having been recommended to try your German Ointment, I procured a pot, from which I experienced much benefit, and in the course of eight days I was able to return to my employment, and have continued well ever since. I am now able to procure my regular sleep at night, which blessing I have been for a long time deprived of, and for which I feel myself indebted to your valuable Remedy.

"Portsmouth, September 11th, 1839

"I remain, Sir, your obliged servant,

"THOMAS OVENHALL."

HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN having purchased the sole and entire property in, and the exclusive right to make and sell, ALBERT RAU'S CELEBRATED GERMAN OINTMENT, beg to caution the Public against the attempts of unprincipled persons who have endeavoured to sell spurious imitations of this valuable Ointment, and to observe that it is not sold anywhere in London but at 63, Oxford Street, and that if purchased in the Country it will not be genuine unless it has the words "HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN, 63, OXFORD STREET," printed in white letters, in the Government Stamp or duty label affixed to each Pot. Sold in Pots at 2s. 9d. each, duty included.

YOLAND'S SPECIFIC SOLUTION OF COPAIBA.

This preparation is the most agreeable, and at the same time efficacious form in which this valuable medicine has yet been prepared, and will be found the most effectual remedy for those complaints, for which the faculty are in the habit of administering copaiba. It is combined with other approved remedies; and possesses the two-fold properties of allaying inflammation, and checking discharge from the mucous membrane; and its administration is not accompanied by the unpleasant effects resulting from the use of copaiba in every other form, as it does not nauseate the stomach; in fact, on the contrary, the general health is improved by its administration.

Yoland's Specific Solution of Copaiba is also a most effectual remedy in cases of gravel:—a very extraordinary cure of stone was effected by the use of this medicine, after several unsuccessful operations had been attempted. The figure at the bottom of this page represents a urinary calculus, that was voided by the assistance of this remedy, weighing one ounce and a half, three inches and a half in length, and four inches and a half in circumference; the calculus may be seen at the agents, and medical men referred to the patient, who has remained free from any return of the complaint since October 1838.

The following certificate (selected from an immense number) from a highly respectable Surgeon, whose practice is very extensive in the Complaints for which this medicine is recommended, will satisfy every mind of the superiority of the Medicine, and the advantage derived from taking it.

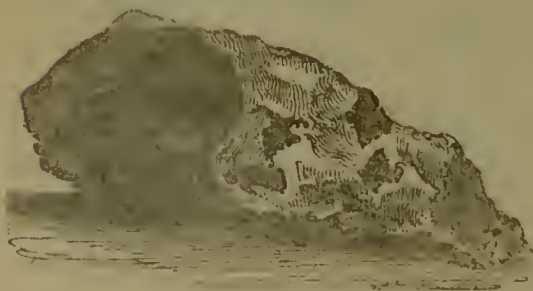

"To Mr. YOLAND,

"Sir,—I have given your Medicine very extensively in my own practice for the complaints you recommend it, and have had frequent opportunities of seeing its effects in hospital practice, and have never seen it fail in a single instance of performing a cure in an incredibly short period, or had the least reason to regret prescribing it; on the contrary, I give it daily, as it is the only medicine I place any reliance on for these complaints.

"Yours, &c.

"RICHARD BRIGHT,
"Surgeon."

"South Audley Street, Grosvenor Square."

Yoland's Specific Solution of Copaiba is sold in bottles at 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each, by Hannay and Dietrichsen, Chemists and Druggists, 63, Oxford-street, London, who will forward it securely packed to any part of the kingdom, in return for a draft or post-office order.

GENUINE RUSSIAN BEAR'S GREASE.

Bear's Grease being supposed to possess the properties of nourishing and preserving the Hair, has induced numerous articles to be sold under the denomination of Bear's Grease, which are neither more nor less than hog's lard and whale oil, submitted to various manipulations to divest them of their offensive smell, whereby purchasers are perpetually disappointed and disgusted with the nauseous effluvia emitted from their hair when the whale oil becomes warm by the parties taking exercise. Messrs. HANNAY and Co., convinced that, if there is any efficacy in the use of Bear's Grease, it must be preferable when procured from the animal in its natural state, and having relations resident at Petersburg, are enabled to import it direct from Russia (where it can alone be obtained in any considerable quantity), and they warrant that the Bear's Grease sold by them is exactly in the same state they receive it from abroad without the addition of any article whatever, but a little perfume to render it more agreeable. It is put up for sale in pots at 1s., 2s. 6d., and 5s., and for exportation to warm climates, in glass jars with stoppers, at 4s. and 8s. each.

HANNAY AND DIETRICHSEN'S POMADE,

For embellishing the appearance, and promoting the growth of the Hair.

This Pomade is recommended as possessing all the properties that are essential to the elegant appearance of the Hair, it renders it beautifully soft and glossy, and surprisingly encourages its growth, it will not prevent the Hair falling off, as that is a provision of nature which takes place annually, but it will promote a more rapid growth of the new hair, than any other article offered to the Public for sale. HANNAY & Co., however, do not recommend its use to ladies with auburn or light hair, as the application of this Pomade tends to darken the colour.

In pots at 1s., 2s. 6d., and 5s.

THE TRUE POMADE DIVINE.

As prepared for many years for the use of her late Majesty Queen Charlotte.

The great usefulness of this excellent remedy is so well known to all who have ever applied it, that no encomium is necessary; and to those who are unacquainted with its virtues, a trial in the following case will be its best recommendation:

It is useful in all sorts of Swellings and Bruises, occasioned by Falls or otherwise, and will prevent the many bad consequences of such accidents. For a Cancer before it is broke, and for sore Breasts, particularly in Lying-in. For a stiff neck, and for swellings occasioned by the Evil. For the Piles, and will prevent a Fistula. For Gangrene, melting a little into the wound. For pains in the Stomach, rubbing in before the fire. If a little be well rubbed in for a few minutes on a Bruise or Pinch, it will prevent all blackness. Will also cure Scalds and Burns, applied directly.

If Gentlemen whose chins are tender, or after being exposed to the wind in riding or hunting, were to rub their chins with a little of this Pomade, they would be able to shave in the course of a quarter of an hour afterwards with the greatest ease.

Price 2s. 9d. the Glass.

. As there are numerous counterfeits of this valuable Pomade in circulation, it is requisite to observe that this, which is the only genuine preparation, prepared from the original recipe, has the words "Hannay and Dietrichsen, 63, Oxford Street," engraved in and printed on the Government Stamp attached to each glass.

COTTLE'S GRANULES;

DISCOVERED BY

J. M. COTTLE, Esq.,

OF LEAMINGTON,

(Member of the Royal Physical Society of Scotland, and of the Royal College of Surgeons, London.)

FIRST INTENTION, FOR CHILDREN.

As a remedy for children, they possess the following extraordinary properties, which entitle them in this application to stand first for consideration. By daily mixture in their food, which at all ages of the child offers a most convenient method for taking them, and to which they impart a pleasant spicy taste, they insure a daily and unfailling action on the bowels, without the immediate or consequent ill attending the use of every purgative hitherto employed; and thus supply a vacancy in the pharmacopœia of children. They allay the turbulent scenes of the nursery, occasioned by forcing physic down their throats, and relieve the practitioner from the bad expedient to which he is now driven, of opposing the medical axiom, that an extra-action on the bowels is followed by a corresponding in-action. Excepting their salutary and daily aperient effect, a quality depending solely on their angular form, these granules possess no medicinal property, and are harmless if taken in the largest quantity. The want of such a remedy is acknowledged by medical men, and felt by the public. In all cases of continued constipation, the health of the child is impaired, either indirectly as the cause, or directly as the result of it, and that the following is a striking feature in the pathology of such cases, every medical eye will discern:—that with all the sluggish propensity, there is an aptness for over-action when purging is once set up, and that such over-action is invariably followed by increased torpidity of the bowels. The treatment of such cases alike baffles the present resources of the practitioner and distresses the parent and child; an aperient is given which proves insufficient; a stronger is sought for, which acts too much; the Pharmacopœia is in vain canvassed for an aperient possessing the exact ratio of strength, and reproach falls on the remedies, which is due alone to the nervous function of the bowels; tonics and change of air are resorted to, the benefit of which, is frustrated by the continued under or over-action of the bowels; the child looks emaciated, and the physician begins to hint at the existence of organic disease. It is whenever an aperient is required that the granules are applicable, but they stand alone, and are loudly called for in the above cases. The following are important facts: that the granules resist decomposition in water, at a temperature of 90 degrees, for 20 days; that the evacuations of the child in the state above described, smell strongly of decayed eggs; and that the granules, in restoring the regular movement, restore also immediately the natural characteristic of smell, and without employing the aid of doubtful metaphysical reasoning to claim for them the properties of an antiseptic, it is evident that the above results are open to direct experimental proof, and will be acknowledged by all engaged in the management of children. It is well known that the bowels of an infant sustained by its mother's milk move every six or eight hours; when the milk is innutritious, the bowels are generally confined, and the granules should be thickly added to the artificial food that then becomes necessary. The bowels of a child brought up by hand, include on the average a space of between twelve and twenty-four hours between each movement; and here we may date the origin of the bowel complaints, so destructive amongst them. That the puny appearance so common to this portion of the population, is not chargeable to defective sustenance, the practice of the profession will confirm, who judiciously deteriorate the cow's milk that usually enters into their food, by abstracting a portion of its curd, or substitute a poorer obtained from asses, for the purpose of reducing the nutritive matter of the food to the standard level of the mother's milk; their ill-favoured looks and the bowel complaints to which they are so liable, may be fairly attributed to the contents of the bowels exceeding the limits that nature has enjoined for its removal, and exciting by its presence a reflex injurious effect on every function of the body; the evil is however submitted to, rather than encounter the ill's consequent on the use of the common aperients; but now a simple remedy is offered, and the only one that enables us closely to copy nature in this important point, by producing that salutary and timely action on the bowels, which she makes indispensable, and requires for maintaining the health and vigour of the child. The medical gentleman who has discovered this remedy, during many years' practice never met (as far as he recollects) a case among children uncombined with organic change, in which it was inadequate to insure the daily action of the bowels, and restore the health; and under this conviction, he has availed himself of the ready co-operation of scientific parties in erecting a large apparatus and machinery for conducting the manufacture and offering them extensively to the public; and in doing so is confident of the approval of the medical profession, and of an acquittal from blame for concealing the secrets of their preparation, on the following grounds:—

1. The bare simplicity and easy demonstration of its qualities.

11. That it possesses none of the mysteries of empiric medicines, and

LASTLY. That it is too incompatible and too much a domestic remedy to enter into their formulas.

SECOND INTENTION, FOR ADULTS.

The Aperient quality of the granules is mechanical, and resides solely in their angular form; excepting their salutary and daily aperient effect, they possess no medicinal property, and are harmless if taken in the largest quantity; but as an aperient of this nature, they much excel in efficacy the one usually employed by the public—brown or bran bread; for besides being a stronger aperient, they resist decomposition and acid fermentation for 20 days in water, at a temperature of 90 degrees, and are not liable to the decomposition that takes place in the bran, in the stomach and bowels: a consideration of value to all, and more so to the flatulent and dyspeptic. The discoverer of this remedy, reflecting on the objections so commonly urged against bran bread, the sense of weight, distension and flatulency, that it so often occasions, was led at length to examine its properties; the most prominent result of his experiments is—its ready tendency to form acetic acid; by subjecting raw bran or bran bread to a steady temperature of 90 degrees Fahr. for 24 hours, they both become sharply acid, whereas common bread, in the same situation, will not change the color of litmus paper. The commonest variation of the stomach secretion from its healthy condition, is decidedly to acidity; even under a careful attention to diet it is prone to this change, which is indicated by a restless uncomfortable feeling in the stomach, and heartburn; the impropriety of admitting such an article as bran bread as an aliment, cannot therefore be doubted. If the same experiment is continued for 24 hours longer, both the bran and bran bread become strikingly offensive, yielding a gas composed mostly of hydrogen, while common bread comparatively retains its sweetness. It needs not that the individual should be dyspeptic for such a gas to become noxious in the bowels; when the digestive process is in healthy force, it is necessary that the upper or small intestines should be distended to the natural size of their calibre, and their whole extent occupied; the Creator has arranged a mixture of solid matter to secure by a fit distension the presentation of nutritious matter to the whole surface. In the large or lower bowels, where digestion has nearly ceased, and where their contents are more or less separated, it is necessary also that an equal distension be kept up between the separated portions, to secure their uniform and anti-spasmodic movement; and this is wisely done by a natural formation of air; and while we may infer from this representation that the bulk taken of the granules, added to the contents of either division, can do no harm, it is plain that any air in the small intestines must prevent nutrition in that portion of the bowel which it occupies, and disturbs its function by an irregular distension of the tube. The presence of too much air in the large intestines is also found to confine their action, and produce a spasmodic tendency. The gas which is liberated from bran bread in the early state of decomposition, to which it so soon arrives, is of a most hurtful nature, in contact with the sulphur it meets with in the bile, it forms sulphuretted hydrogen gas, and the consciousness of every eater of bran bread will more or less respond to this truth, that a most offensive gas is produced by it. The importance then of a remedy more aperient than bran-bread and that undergoes no change when taken—must be manifest. The strong action of aperient is the infraction of a physical law, which in harmony with all other natural laws, has a penalty attached to its non-observance, the penalty is a direct injury to the mucous lining of the bowels, but to suit the exigencies of human nature; the injury is not sustained when extraordinary circumstances justify their use, but of this necessity none but a medical observer can judge. The aperient action of the granules does not infringe but imitates a law of nature by exciting the peristaltic movement, consequently their use may be continued with safety, till the constitution resumes its healthy operations. As the effect of these particles is confined to that portion of the bowel in which they are seated, it is evident they should be distributed through their whole extent before their full effect can be obtained, and this usually requires twenty four hours, and if in cases of great constipation they do not begin to act, the dose should be increased: and in some instances they require at the commencement, a single gentle dose of an aperient to put them in action, but they should not be hastily thrown aside, in such obstinate cases, for if their effect is once obtained, it will be continued without interruption.

THE POOR MAN'S PILL.

THESE Pills, now for the first time offered to the Public, have for years been extensively prescribed in private practice by a physician of great eminence and experience. It were to be regretted, for the benefit of humanity, that a medicine possessing such valuable properties should have remained so long a secret, or could be procured at a pecuniary sacrifice so considerable as to render it available only to the wealthy classes. Through the exercise of extraordinary interest, the original recipe has been procured; and the Pills now advertised are warranted to be prepared with the minutest exactness, according to the directions given. They are not put forth as a universal nostrum, calculated to cure all the diseases incident to humanity, but rather as the means of preventing them; at the same time, in certain chronic disorders, they will be found a remedy of unrivalled efficiency. It may be stated, without the slightest exaggeration, that nine-tenths of the most serious maladies arise from an unhealthy action of the stomach, bowels, or liver, inducing, as a natural consequence, indigestion and its results, such as head-ache, acidity upon the stomach, heartburn, flatulency, nausea, despondency or lowness of spirits, jaundice, and a whole catalogue of other complaints, which may be entirely obviated by conforming to the directions appended to each box of these Pills. It might be inferred from the above title that they are adapted exclusively for one sex; this is not intended: the most delicate female, when an aperient is required, may at all times have recourse to them, and they will act as a preventive against those nervous and hysterical affections which so frequently arise from constipation. The last symptom is almost universally a concomitant of pregnancy, and here they may be taken with the greatest safety and benefit. The most cogent objection to aperients in general, is from their containing some drastic drug, that they leave, after their operation has ceased, a torpidity of the stomach and bowels, producing consequences which their administration was intended to correct; such effects will not ensue after the action of these Pills. To individuals travelling, more particularly seafaring persons, when from change of habit and climate the liver and bowels become inactive, and constipation follows as an invariable result, they will prove of invaluable service.

WEBSTER'S INDIAN CEMENT.

This invaluable Composition needs only a trial, to convince every one of its superior utility to any thing of the kind ever offered to the Public. CHINA and GLASS of every description, which too often become the subject of accident or carelessness, and thereby necessarily laid aside, are, by means of this truly valuable Cement, rendered equally useful; and if struck on the broken pieces, will sound as clear as before. They have been found a second time to break in a new part, rather than in that cemented; nor will the application of boiling water produce the least injurious effect, if suffered to remain till perfectly dry. LAMES, who in the variety of their ornamental work, frequently prove the inefficacy of Gum Arable, Mueilage, or other substitutes, will find this incomparable preparation, now offered to their notice, to answer every purpose they can desire. ARTISTS will also find it eminently serviceable in setting pearls, jewels, hair, spars, &c.; and in every other part of their work where a cement is requisite, its efficacy stands unrivalled. Sold in Bottles, 1s. each, by appointment, by Hannay and Dietrichson, 63, Oxford-street.

BISSILL'S EMBROCATION.

This Embrocation is submitted to the test of public experience, in perfect confidence of its fully answering the most sanguine expectations; unprecedented success having hitherto attended its use, when applied according to the instructions. The proprietor abstains from saying more, lest by those who are unacquainted with its virtues, he should be considered guilty of exaggeration. By those persons who feel an antipathy to internal medicines, this discovery will be esteemed of no ordinary value. In Bottles 4s. 6d. each, duty included; or the quantity of three bottles for 11s.

COX'S PECTORAL COUGH LOZENGES.

This is decidedly the best preparation (in the form of Lozenges) that has ever been offered to the Public for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats, Hoarseness, and all other diseases arising from pulmonary affections. They are prepared from the prescription of an eminent Physician, who has prescribed them for several years past, and can affirm their utility in many cases; and since the present proprietor has had the receipt, he has had the pleasure of knowing several of his friends derive the greatest benefit from the use of them. Many well-authenticated cases can be given of their surprising efficacy in Asthma; and persons afflicted with that distressing disease will find them a most valuable preparation.

FLEMMING'S QUININE AND CAMPHOR PILLS.

These Pills are composed of Sulphate of Quinine combined with Camphor, and other choice tonics. As an invigorating stomachic remedy, it is a superior medicine, restoring tone to the Stomach, promoting its digestive powers, allaying febrile action, and procuring strength and vigour to those of weakly habits and debilitated constitutions. The Dyspeptic, and those who labour under symptoms of indigestion, characterised by debility of the digestive organs, and those who, by excessive indulgence or long residence in a tropical climate, have impaired their constitutions, and whose systems are giving way to the operations of time, or the dilapidation which often precedes a general breaking up of the constitution, will derive essential benefit from these Pills, as an invaluable tonic, the judicious use of which will prop up and prolong life for many years, by invigorating the digestive organs and keeping up, in the nervous and muscular systems, the required energy.

Sold, by appointment, by HANNAY and DIETRICHSEN, 63, Oxford Street.

“WHO has not suffered from sea-sickness! that remorseless fiend, who, sparing neither age nor sex, intelligence nor respectability, makes a point of setting at defiance all the decorums of etiquette, all the grace of attitude, all the claims of humanity. I have seen disgusted statesmen, lovely women, poets of the most romantic, and divines of the most spiritual cast of countenance, all huddled together at a ship's side with confusion truly humiliating; yellow as daffodils, and moaning as diamally as a north wind whistling through the key-hole of a back attic. Sea sickness! The very word is an emetic, and I heave while I write it.”—Blackwood.

GRANTLEY'S EFFICACIOUS REMEDY

TO REMOVE AND

PREVENT SEA SICKNESS.

THIS invaluable draught, prepared from the recipe of an eminent Physician, who has himself administered it with signal success in Sea Voyages, and also prescribed it with like success to persons who visited both the East and West Indies, effectually removes the morbid action of the Stomach in Sea Sickness, and speedily allays its irritability. Those persons who are acquainted with the motion of a vessel at sea, are aware it is the cause of the sickness, by spontaneously exciting a new and deranged action of the nervous system, consequently digestion instantly ceases; the contents of the stomach and alimentary canal are changed to a most powerful and exorbitant acid, producing violent excitement, and all the dreadful sufferings experienced in SEA SICKNESS. The STOMACH being the CENTRE of SYMPATHY of the system, produces great morbid effect upon the brain. The brain again sympathising with the stomach, increasing and keeping up the action which was first excited by the movement of the vessel; if, at this crisis, nature was not to exert sufficient energy in throwing off the contents of the Stomach, it would very soon prove fatal. The first step then to be taken is, to decompose that acid in the Stomach and Bowels, and at the same time to restore the tone and healthy action of that organ; which object is effectually accomplished by this invaluable effervescent draught. Its effect is as RAPIDLY ASTONISHING as the PLEASURE WHICH IT AFFORDS; and by a perseverance in the use of this remedy, as soon as the Stomach is relieved of this acid matter, by the tonic and restorative qualities which this draught possesses, nausea, and the whole train of distressing and overwhelming symptoms, subside; their recurrence is prevented, and the patient finds himself in a condition to make use of light food; the nervous system will then soon recover its harmony, although the motion of the vessel still continue the same. NATURE, when relieved, will accommodate herself to that action, and no unpleasant effects are again experienced during the voyage.

When it is considered what dreadful, and, in some instances, dangerous sufferings are attendant upon the malady of Sea Sickness, the INVALUABLE, SAFE, and EFFICACIOUS REMEDY now offered to public notice, may justly claim the attention of all who undertake sea voyages for the objects of business, health, or pleasure; and even to those who are robust during bad weather at sea, it will be found a most agreeable, salutary, and slightly aperient stomachic drink, combining a remedial efficacy with the qualities of a pleasing cordial and refreshing beverage.

The Stomach being the centre of sympathy of the whole system, a derangement in its functions immediately affects the mind, and indisposes it for business or recreation. The certain remedy now offered strikes at once at this derangement, so commonly experienced at sea, even in moderate weather, under the mitigated symptom qualmishness. By its use, the individual soon finds himself restored to a state of healthful sensation, and enabled to participate and enjoy the various scenes and circumstances of a sea voyage, which would otherwise, from the presence of nausea and sickness, remain a blank in his experience. Innocent in its nature, and certain in its effects, it may be taken with impunity in all climates, and under all circumstances in which debility of the Stomach is felt to prevail from the motion of the vessel.

It is admitted, that by the stimulus of moderate Sea Sickness, the organs of digestion which were before languid and feeble, are frequently excited to a new and healthful activity. The protraction, however, of violent Sea Sickness, mars and prevents this beneficial effect, and produces languor and debility in the powers of life, from a new cause,—namely, over excitement. How valuable an advantage, therefore, to be enabled to regulate this circumstance, by assisting nature to rally under the new excitement which she is experiencing, and preventing this excitement from degenerating into a morbid one! How gratifying to the sufferer to be enabled, by the use of this Remedy, to arrest the current of that violent action which, by overstraining, enfeebles the natural powers, defeats the intention, and frustrates the utility to health, which a voyage at sea is otherwise calculated to effect in favour of the delicate and nervous! Price, in Bottles, containing six draughts, 4s. 6d.

SUPERIOR AND USEFUL DISCOVERY.

CARSTAIRS'

PELLUCID AND ANTI-CORROSIVE WRITING FLUID,

Unequalled for Steel Pens, and Unchangeable in every Climate.

THIS Fluid, which is now presented to public notice, has been strictly investigated by scientific and highly-talented Chemists, and others, whose opinions alone would establish its superior character; but the makers rest their claims chiefly for the sanction and approval of its real merits to the respectable and enlightened public. Its anti-corrosive qualities will decidedly give it a transcendence over all the common Inks now in use, in preventing rust in Steel Pens, a desideratum highly requisite and useful, on account of their general adoption. In proportion to the acid contained in Ink, so it will have an injurious effect, more or less, not only on all metallic pens, but on every kind of writing paper, and more particularly so on parchment, causing the ink to run or spread on the paper, and too frequently to penetrate through it, which has a very disagreeable effect, especially when the paper is to be written upon both sides!

Steel Pens are often complained of by apparently producing thick strokes in writing, when the cause often arises from the imperfection of the ink. It is in the highest degree necessary that the ink used with steel pens should be free from acid; but vinegar, and other materials (many of which are of a much more acetous quality) and which have a constant tendency to corrode the pens, are too often employed in manufacturing ink, but they never enter into the composition of this ink. Its perfect fluidity, or limpidness, is another recommendation which it will fully justify on the very first trial. Its colour when first written with is light, and appears clear and soft to the eye, afterwards it changes, on the paper, to a beautiful blue-black.

Its superior qualities and properties having been minutely and critically tested, and as its pureness and freedom from acid may be numbered amongst its other evident characteristics, no other ink can be more suitable for writing with, whether the pen be made from goose-quill, &c., or metallic substances.

This Ink, therefore, will be highly appreciated and much esteemed by every Merchant and Gentleman of the Law, and be honoured with a preference in every Statesman's bureau.

Hannay and Dietrichsen, Chemists, Druggists, and Patent Medicine Dealers, 63, Oxford-street, London, are appointed the Sole Wholesale Agents for the sale of this Ink; by whom Stationers and Merchants are supplied, with the usual allowance; it is sold in bottles at 6d., 1s., 2s. 6d., and 5s. each.

NEW AND IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

ECONOMY, UTILITY, AND DISPATCH COMBINED.

Hickman's Washing & Bleaching Powders.

THE merit of this invaluable discovery no longer rests on the statement of the Proprietor, having gone through the most unerring of all tests, that of experience; and the immense and wonderfully-increasing demand which it continues daily to receive, together with the voluntary and highly-flattering testimonials in its favour from a candid and experienced public, must be the greatest possible proof of its intrinsic worth and utility: in short, from the very great saving both of time, labour, and soap, and from the very beautiful white and delicate colour given to Linen, &c., a single trial will be sufficient to convince every person of its unequalled value, and ensure a continuance of its use.

N.B.—A 3d. Packet used precisely according to the Directions, will wash considerably more Linen, &c. than a pound and half of best white Soap, in less than one quarter the time, and with less than half the usual labour, and produce an infinitely-superior colour than can possibly be obtained by the ordinary process of washing; and being an entire vegetable composition is warranted not to injure the fabric of the finest articles.

Hannay and Dietrichsen, Chemists and Druggists, 63, Oxford-street, London, are appointed the Sole Agents for the Sale of this useful article, by whom it is sold in packets, at 3d. and 6d. each; and in vanisters, at 2s. 6d. and 6s. 6d.

KINGSTOWN HARBOUR LIGHTS.

The Corporation for preserving and improving the Port of Dublin hereby give notice, that on the Evening of the 1st of October next, the appearance of the Light hitherto shewn from the East Pier Head of Kingstown Harbour will be altered from the present Revolving White Light to a Revolving Light, showing White and Red Lights alternately, and seen at shorter intervals of time. A small fixed Red Light will also be exhibited from the West Pier Head. The lights so to be shown will thenceforth be continued from sunset to sunrise.

Specification given of the appearance of the Tower, &c., by Mr. Halpin, the Inspector of Lighthouses.

The light at present shewn on the Kingstown East Pier Head is a Revolving White Light, showing once in each minute. That to be exhibited on the 1st of October next will also be a Revolving Light, presenting White and Red Lights alternately, attaining their greatest brilliancy at equal intervals of 30 seconds.

The light will be shewn from the present timber building (which is coloured brown), and will be open to the Harbour, and to Seaward, as heretofore. It is elevated 34 feet above the level of High Water Springs, and 40 feet above the mean level of the Sea.

A small fixed Red Light will, at the same time, be shewn from the Kingstown West Pier Head.

The Kingstown East Pier Lighthouse bears from the Kish Bank Floating Light, W. by N. $\frac{1}{4}$ N. distant $6\frac{1}{2}$ nautic miles from the Poolbeg Light, South, distant 235 nautic miles.

QUARANTINE REGULATIONS AT CADIZ.

1. A quarantine of observation of fifteen days will be imposed on vessels from the ports of America, within the gulf of Mexico, from the months of the Orinoko to the channel of Bahama, arriving from the middle to the end of June, and from the beginning to the middle of November, provided the crew are in perfect health.

2. From the 1st of July to the end of October, vessels from the aforesaid places will not be admitted, unless they have previously performed quarantine at the lazaretto of Mahon, or in the ports of Santander, Bilbao, Corunna, or Vigo.

3. Vessels sailing from the United States of America, from the 1st of June to the 30th of September, (excepting those ports within the gulf of Mexico already pointed out as inadmissible,) will be subjected to a quarantine of observation of eight days, if they bring clean bills of health, duly legalised by the Spanish consul. Vessels from Georgia and the two Carolinas, from the 31 to 36 deg. N. bringing similar bills of health, and having sailed within the aforesaid dates, will be considered as bringing suspected bills of health.

4. Vessels from the coast of Africa, on the Atlantic, under the Equator, in which latitude the yellow fever is endemic, will be subjected to the same regulations specified in the two first articles.

Vessels from the regencies of Tunis and Tripoli, the whole of Turkey in Asia and Europe, the ports which formerly belonged to the Ottoman Empire, and the Greek islands in the Archipelago, are always inadmissible, unless they shall have undergone quarantine in a foul lazaretto.

Eight days quarantine will be imposed on vessels from the ports of Morocco with suspectable goods; four days quarantine without such goods.

Aigiers, and other ports under French dominion, eight days quarantine.

Malta, Sicily, Corsica and Sardinia, four days.

From the Atlantic, eight days.

Ionian Islands, ports of Dalmatia, to Ragusa, and adjacent islands, fifteen days; if they bring a clean bill of health legalised by the Spanish consul.

MADRID, April 12, 1841.

It having been noticed with regret, that the Captains of foreign merchant vessels do not observe with due punctuality the established regulations and dispositions on their arrivals and clearances in Spanish ports; and it having recently occurred in Cadiz, that one of these vessels sailed by stealth, without having cleared at the Captain-ship of the port, (Capitanía de puerto); nor received the bill of health; omitting thereby to satisfy the admiralty fees; the provisional Regency of the kingdom have resolved through the financial department, as follows:—

"1. That vessels coming to a certain consignment, shall remain under the responsibility of the consignee, who shall be answerable for all infractions of the laws, and

"2. That the consuls, as agents and protectors of the trade of their country, shall guarantee, not as private individuals, but as such consuls, the punctual observance of the laws, and shall further offer the just vindication of their government against those who may infringe them, or who may evade the penalties by taking to flight,

"By order of the Regency,

"JOAQUIM MARIA DE FERRER."

LIGHTHOUSE AT HUDSON'S BAY, PORT PHILIP.

HARBOUR MASTER'S OFFICE, PORT PHILIP.

June 26, 1840.

A plain stationary light is shown from sunset to sunrise, from a lighthouse erected on the extremity of Gillibrand's Point, William's Town, and Hobson's Bay; visible five leagues in clear weather from any safe position to the Southward. The bearings by compass are as follows:—

From the north-end of the Western-channel, the anchorage at William's Town bears N. 14 deg. E.

From the north end of the Pinnacle-channel, the anchorage at William's Town bears N. 6 deg. W.

The courses indicated, will give vessels a fair berth from the shoal off Gillibrand's Point. Care must be taken, after bringing the light house to bear N. 22 deg. E. to N. 7 deg. E. $1\frac{1}{2}$ mile; after rounding the light, and bringing it to bear about S. 14 deg. W. 1 mile; the anchor may be dropped in four fathoms water, in good holding ground of stiff clay and mud.

N.B.—The South channel is unnavigable; its north-end being filled up, having but $2\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms water at half flood, and extremely narrow.

PORT PHILIP, NEW SOUTH WALES.

Captain Marryatt's code of signals having been ordered by her Majesty's government to be brought into use in this port, it is requested that all ships or vessels approaching William's Town, or Gillibrand Point, will henceforth show their number, in order that it may be notified to Melbourne, from the signal station on Gillibrand Point.

The following is a copy of a notice issued by the Portuguese Admiralty, respecting the soundings found in the River Douro and on its bar during the month of July, 1841:—

"SOUNDINGS ON THE BAR.

"By W., W.S.W., and W.N.W. of the 'Lages' above the 'Banco' the soundings are found 26 to 27 palmos at flood of Spring tides. E.W. with 'Filqueiras,' between the rock 'Bezerra' and the extreme point of the 'Banco' close to the 'Filqueiras,' soundings 29 palmos during Spring tides; but this channel is not navigable, by reason of its extreme narrowness. From the extreme point of the 'Cabodello' to the course of the channel which lies between the 'Labe d'Abro' and the rock 'Alagamanadas' the soundings are 26 palmos and over at low water.

"IN THE RIVER.

"From the 'Arrabida' mountain to the 'Lobeira do Ouro' there runs a narrow channel along the rocks on the northern side, of 17 palmos, and close to the 'Lobeira' of 18 palmos at low water, and this depth is found as far as the 'Lobeira do Sobreiras.'

Between the 'Arrabadoiro' and the 'Cruz de Ferro' the soundings are 18 palmos, and from thence to the extreme point of the 'Cabodello' 20, 22, and 30 palmos.

"The sand bank still exists close to 'Posta Nobre,' which runs over to the south side about a third of the width of the river."

Note—The Portuguese names are preserved as in the original, as when they are made use of by the natives they will be understood—"Lages," "Filqueiras," "Labe d'Abre," "Lobeira do Ouro," "Lobeira do Sobreiras," "Arrabadoiro," and "Cruz de Ferro" are rocks.

THE PORTABLE SECTOR, QUINTANT, AND POLYMETETER.

Surveyors, Civil Engineers, Architects, Travellers, and Officers of the Army and Navy, are informed that the Proprietor of the above, which comprises in itself the ordinary surveying Sextant (and measures an angle of 160 degrees), the Pocket Compass, Protractor, Approximate Level, &c., has appointed Mr. Jones, of Charing Cross, Sole Manufacturer of the Instrument. Its dimensions are—Length 7 inches; Width 2½; Thickness ¾. A book describing its various uses, and the Problems in Mensuration, Arithmetic &c., which may be performed Mechanically with it, accompanies the Instrument.

"I may here a-propos to simplicity, take occasion to mention, that the Rev. Fred. Glover, has been for some time past engaged in perfecting a Pocket Surveying Instrument, on an entirely new principle, which promises to be more general in its application, than any of those in use at present. Should it, when completed, come up to the expectations I formed of it a few months ago, I really think, that few Scientific men, whether Naval, Civil, or Military, will be without it."—Extract from "A Course of Military Surveying; by Major Basil Jackson, of the Royal Staff Corps, Professor of Military Surveying at Addiscombe, the Hon. ROBINSON'S PATENT BARLEY & PATENT GROATS

Recommended by the Faculty, patronised by the Queen and Royal Family. The attention of Families and Invalids is particularly called to the inestimable qualities of the above Patent Articles, being the purest Farinæ of the Barley and Oat ever produced, deprived of their fermentative properties by a steam process, whereby all crudities are removed and impurities rejected.

ROBINSON'S PATENT BARLEY is the only genuine article by which pure Barley Water can be made in ten minutes. It produces an excellent mucilaginous beverage, more palatable than that made from Pearl Barley. Mothers, during the anxious period of suckling, will find it cooling and nutritious. In constitutions when stimulant and fermented liquors are inadmissible, it is an ample and productive source of comfort both to the parent and infant. It is also strongly recommended for light suppers, food for Infants, and makes a most delicious custard pudding, for which purpose it has been used by families of the first distinction, and will be found suitable for the invalid or healthy, the infant or aged. It is also highly esteemed as an adjunct with new milk for the breakfast table.

ROBINSON'S PATENT GROATS possess the same advantages of purity as the Patent Barley. The delicate gruel made by this article very far surpasses any other. It is deprived of those pernicious qualities which common gruel generally contains, and which produce heartburn and acidity of the stomach. Children and those labouring under difficult digestion will be found highly benefited by its use, and the short time required for its preparation, makes it a most valuable acquisition for the sick chamber.

CAUTION.—As many spurious imitations, with similar wrappers, both in size, colour, and appearance, are being offered to the Public, the Patentees deem it necessary to call the attention of Families, and especially servants, to the circumstance; and to request they will observe that on each Genuine Packet are placed the Royal Arms, with the words, "By Royal Letters Patent," and the Signature of "MATTS. ROBINSON." ROBINSON AND BELLVILLE, Purveyors to the Queen, 64, Red Lion Street, Holborn.

CONGREVE'S

ALKALINE SYRUP OF ANISEED.

This inestimable remedy, will not only prevent the numerous disorders, to which children are liable, but remove a great majority of them, and all that arise from acidities in the stomach, &c., as before described; and, it is preferable to every remedy hitherto known for children, during the period of dentition, to counteract acidity, sickness at the stomach, &c.

This remedy is superior to Magnesia, Rhubarb, Manna, or even Castor Oil (the latter article soon becomes rancid, and in that case, proves most injurious.) As it contains neither calomel, poppy, or other noxious or stupefying ingredients, it may be safely given to the infant from the earliest period. By neutralising the prevailing acidity and regulating the bowels, it will assuredly prevent fits and convulsions, allay the griping pains, destroy worms, and prevent their re-accumulation in the system, carry off all acidity, flatulency, &c., and in fact, it is most peculiarly adapted to prevent all diseases incidental to Infants; and a most proper and useful medicine to the nurse herself, in increased doses, to convey to the secretion of milk, supplied to the babe, the requisite qualities before enumerated. On no account should constipation be permitted to exist even for a single day; and therefore this true palladium of health should be kept in the nursery, as an indispensable requisite therein, for immediate use.

In bottles at 1s. 1½d. each.

The LANGUAGE of FLOWERS.

One of the most elegant lady presents that can be made is THE LANGUAGE OF FLOWERS, of which a New Edition has recently been published, revised and enlarged by the Editor of "The Forget Me Not." The art which it teaches is very simple, extremely interesting, and capable of being endlessly diversified. Byron has well described this refined mode of communication.

"By all those token flowers which tell,

What words could never speak so well," and Lady M. W. Montague in her charming letter alludes also to this practice when she speaks of communicating thoughts and opinions "without even inking your fingers;" no fruit or flower being without its signification.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS IN 1841:

Being Personal Notices of its Members.

PRICE ONE SHILLING.

The following specimens are giving of this work to illustrate the nature of its contents :

BRUCE, Major Charles Lennox—Elgin and Nairn Counties.—The gallant member, whose patronymic is Cumming, he being the second son of Sir Alex. Penrose Cumming, Bart., of Attyre and Gordonstown, in the county of Moray, and brother of Sir William Cumming, Bart., assumed the additional name of Bruce on his marriage, in 1821, with Mary Elizabeth, only daughter of James Bruce, Esq., of Kinnauld, and grand-daughter of the celebrated Abyssinian traveller, with whom he acquired the valuable estates of this family. He sat in Parliament for the Inverness district of burghs from 1831 to 1837, and was first chosen to represent the combined counties in May, 1840. He has been distinguished for his zealous advocacy of the ecclesiastical establishments of Scotland.

FITZROY, Capt. Robt. R. N.—Durham—third son of the late Gen. Ld Chas Fitzroy, and grandson of the late Duke of Grafton, prime minister 1768-70. Capt. Fitzroy is well known to the literary world as the author of the "Narrative of the Surveying Voyages of His Majesty's Ships Adventure and Beagle." The gallant officer, who sits in his first Parliament, is returned for the city he represents through the interest of his noble relative the Marquis of Londonderry. He was born in June, 1805, and married, in December, 1836, Mary Henrietta, second daughter of Major-General Edwd Ja. O'Brien.

ROEBUCK, John Arthur, Esq.—Bath—son of E. Roebuck, Esq., and grandson of Dr John Roebuck, of Carron, honourably mentioned in Chalmers's Biographical Dictionary as "an eminent physician and great benefactor to Scotland." On the maternal side the hon. member is, we believe, descended from the poet Tickell, the friend of Addison, and his under Secretary of State. In 1832, Mr Roebuck was admitted a barrister of the Inner Temple, and the same year returned to Parliament for Bath, which important city he continued to represent until the general election of 1837, when he lost his seat. In 1835 the hon. and learned gentleman received the appointment of Parliamentary Agent to the House of Assembly of Lower Canada. He was born at Madras, December 28, 1802, accompanied his father-in-law to Canada while a mere boy, left that province only in 1821, and married, in 1833, Henrietta, daughter of the Rev. Dr. Falconer, the author of several learned works, and formerly Bampton Lecturer at Oxford.

ROUS, Hon. Henry John, Capt. R. N.—Westminster—who sits in his first Parliament, is brother and heir-presumptive of the Earl of Stradbroke. The family of Capt. Rous have been established in Suffolk from the time of the Heptarchy. The first baronet was created in 1660; in 1796 the hon. and gallant gentleman's father was elevated to the peerage, by the title of Baron Rous of Dennington; and in 1821, advanced to the superior titles now borne by his eldest son. The member for Westminster, who has been in the naval service of his country for 33 years, having entered it in 1808, served under the late Sir W. Hoste, and has been Commander of the Padagos, the Sappho, the Mosquito, the Hiad, the Rainbow, and the Pique. He was born Jan. 23, 1795, and married Jan. 2, 1836, Sophia, only surviving daughter of the late James Ramsey Cuthbert, Esq., of Grosvenor Square.

SHELburne, Earl of—Calne—youngest, and now only son of the Marquis of Lansdowne (Lord President of the Council in Viscount Melbourne's recent Cabinet), and his Marchioness, Lady Louisa Emma Fox Strangeways (late principal Lady of the Bedchamber to the Queen), and grandson of the Earl of Shelburne, the Prime Minister, who was displaced by the coalition of North and Fox, in 1783. Has represented the borough since 1837. Born Jan. 5, 1816.

TAYLOR, Capt. Thomas Edward—Dublin County—who has a troop in the carbineers, is nephew of the late Hon. Gen. Taylor, who bequeathed to him the great bulk of his immenso property, and son of the Hon. and Rev. Edward Taylor, of Ardgillan Castle. Capt. Taylor sits in his first Parliament. He has the reputation of being the most popular man in his regiment, both with his brother officers and the men under his command.

AIDA, the BRITISH CAPTIVE. By MISS AGNES STRICKLAND.
Author of "The Queens of England."

"Molière used to read his comedies to his old housekeeper, and many books may safely be referred to the report of an intelligent child. Now we have subjected Miss Strickland's delightful little volume to this ordeal, and have had our own opinion of its merits confirmed by a youthful critic of no ordinary intelligence, who, after reading it three times, declares that she wishes she had not read it at all, in order that she might again enjoy the gratification which attended its first perusal. This book is elegantly got up, and is admirably adapted for a birthday cadeau to a good and clever little girl."—United Service Gazette.

THE LIFE, TIMES, AND CHARACTERISTICS OF JOHN BUNYAN,
Author of "The Pilgrim's Progress."

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE.

"It is now twenty years since I began to study BUNYAN, and to collect materials for his Life; but during the first ten years my chief object was to illustrate his PILGRIM'S PROGRESS. Since then, the immense circulation of my EXPERIMENTAL GUIDES, both at home and abroad, and the correspondence they led to, rendered it my duty to try to explain the mysterious experience of Bunyan, and to solve the philosophy of his history. In attempting to do this, I discovered so much concerning him which was unknown or unnoticed, that my work took quite a new form. It is now written for the world, as well as for the church, under the full persuasion that its facts and documents will interest both.

THE PRACTICAL WORKS OF THE REV. RICHARD BAXTER. Reprinted without abridgment from the Original collected Edition. With an Engraved Portrait, by Edwards, and an Introductory Essay on the Genius and Writings of Baxter.

"It affords us sincere pleasure to call the attention of our readers to this republication of the Practical Works of Richard Baxter, the most famous of all the English Nonconformist Divines. As an author, Baxter was one of the most voluminous of his age; and though the edition just issued from the press embraces only what are called his 'Practical Works,' still it extends to four very large volumes. When we look to the immense superiority of Baxter's writings, considered in a mere literary point of view, and with reference to his genuine English diction, and his impressive English style—over the great mass of religious treatises which are daily coming from the press, we think that the republication now made of the best of these writings, will meet with an extensive circulation."—Berkeon Constitutional.

"Baxter wrote as in the view of eternity, but generally judicious, nervous, spiritual, and evangelical, though often charged with the contrary. He discovers a manly eloquence, and the most evident proofs of an amazing genius, with respect to which he may not improperly be called the English Deosthenes."—Doddridge's Lecture on Preaching.

Extract from a Letter by the Rev. John Harris, D.D. Author of "Mammon."

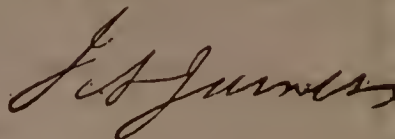

The conception and arrangement of the work are admirable; and, as far as I have had the opportunity of judging, the execution of it equals the plan. I have read various parts of it attentively; and while I have not met with anything which I could wish to have been omitted, most unfeignedly can I say that I have found much calculated to inspire and sustain devotion.

Epsom.

A superficial survey of it ("A Guide to Family Devotion") is sufficient to manifest that its plan is the most complete of any with which I am acquainted, embracing everything which the service of the family altar requires or admits of; while its execution is also such as to entitle it to commendation, and to secure for it the circulation and use which it deserves.

Birmingham.

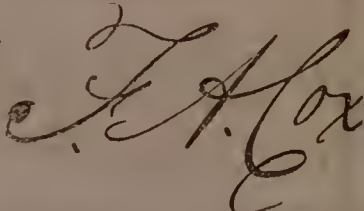

I feel it right to express my opinion, that the plan is excellent; and that the execution of the plan is judicious, and well adapted to its purpose, as an aid to the great duty and blessing of family, conjugal, and secret worship.

Homerton.

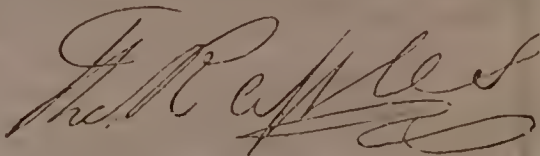

It is not till after a careful perusal that I give an opinion of Mr. Fletcher's "Guide to Family Devotion." This I now do with great pleasure; believing it to be a work eminently calculated for beneficial circulation in Christian families, to whom I would earnestly recommend it.

Hackney.

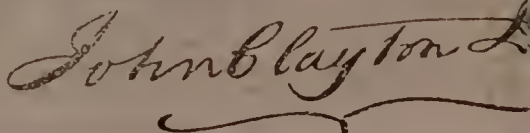

I am enabled to speak with propriety and confidence of the real worth and admirable adaptation and usefulness of your Work. You have rendered a most important service to Christian households by your labours, and I have no doubt that its circulation will be as extensive as your most sanguine expectations could anticipate.

Liverpool.

I highly prize your volume of "Family Devotion," and think it well adapted to secure the object to which you aspire. The Selections of Scripture are judicious; the Sacred Songs which you have introduced are appropriate and diversified; and as a whole, I think the work is likely to prove a valuable aid to the piety of households.

Hackney.

I consider it a vast advantage to persons who begin housekeeping, if unaccustomed to extemporaneous prayer, to have such a help to devotion as your work affords. Many, especially Females, have felt considerable difficulty in conducting family worship, for want of a selection of Scriptures adapted to family reading; this difficulty your work meets, and cannot but be appreciated by a large class of the Christian community. The work appears to me to be executed devotionally, which, in my opinion, is a strong recommendation of its excellence.

Swirey Chapel House.

I have been particularly pleased with the adaptation of the several Hymns, portions of Scripture, and Prayers, to each other. The general character of the whole is excellent; and I trust the work will be found eminently useful in the promotion of domestic piety. That result will doubtless be esteemed by you an ample reward for the labour you must have expended.

York.

On examination, I am much pleased with it, ("A Guide to Family Devotion,") and feel, when I am called to leave my family, that I leave for its use a good substitute behind me.

Weigh-House.

The evangelical strain of the Prayers gives them an advantage over most other forms which have been published for families: I mean not only the savour of evangelical feeling and motive with which they are imbued, but the frequent addresses which are intermingled to each Divine Person of the Triune Jehovah. I trust that your labours will lead many families to a practical use and enjoyment of the glorious privileges of the gospel.

Vicar of St. Stephen, Coleman Street.

Your Volume has, to my mind, several characteristic recommendations. The addition of Sacred Song, and especially of Scripture reading, to morning and evening prayer, I regard with great satisfaction. Your scripture selection also appears to be at once judicious and comprehensive. Allow me to add, that I have been delighted to find, at whatever page of your work I have opened, a strain thoroughly evangelical, the expression of repentance towards God, and faith in the great atonement, seems to me essential to every prayer.

Leeds.

In addition to the numerous Testimonials of English Ministers, nearly One Hundred of the most influential Clergymen of AMERICA—of all denominations—have testified, by letter, their high commendation of the excellence and great utility of the above Work.

FELIX BODIN'S SUMMARIES of the HISTORIES OF ENGLAND and FRANCE. Translated from the French by JONATHAN DUNCAN, B.A.

"M. Bodin has given a very accurate view of the constitutional History of England, the gradual growth and expansion of its representative government, and has grouped together with considerable skill the series of events which led to the successive changes in the form and influence of Parliament. His comparison between the revolutions of England and France is a pleasing specimen of philosophical analysis, and displays remarkable acuteness in detecting the causes both of their identity and their diversity."—Athenæum.

"The success of the History of France on the Continent is without precedent, many hundreds of thousands of copies having been sold in the course of a few years. By order of government it is a class-book in all the colleges of that kingdom, and is one of the standard works selected to be given as prizes."—Preface.

A NEW PICTORIAL EDITION of FOX'S BOOK OF MARTYRS With an INTRODUCTORY ESSAY; carefully Revised and Edited by the Rev. JOHN CUMMINGS, M.A. Illustrated by numerous original Wood Engravings, executed by eminent Artists, and beautifully printed in super-royal 8vo.

THE BOOK OF MARTYRS is perhaps the most popular production in the English tongue:—it was once so valued, that according to Neale, the historian of the Puritans, it was ordered to be set up in every one of the parish churches in England. It is admirably adapted to spread among our people knowledge of the most precious portions, and of the best and holiest personages in the history of the church of Christ and of our country; to acquaint them with the ablest arguments wherewith to repel the revived aggressions of the emissaries of the church of Rome; and to place before them almost living illustrations of faith, hope, and charity, in the dungeon, on the scaffold, and in the flames. Great expense, and most anxious care, have been employed to render the present edition worthy of that place in the libraries of rich and poor which Fox ought ever to occupy. Numerous and beautiful wood and steel engravings, in the first style of the art, will be introduced, derived from original and authentic sources. The Publisher, in short, pledges himself to present to his readers a Pictorial and Illustrated Edition of the BOOK OF MARTYRS, cheaper, more beautiful, and more accurate by far than any other yet submitted to the Public.

The Work will be completed in about Thirty Monthly Parts, price Two Shillings each, a Part to be published regularly on the first of every Month.

The Work may also be had in Numbers at One Shilling each.
